

THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY TO USE THE RADICAL GERMAN.—It is a somewhat significant fact, that while the radical Germans of St. Louis and elsewhere, have been the objects of the most malignant assaults on the part of the "Conservative" press, their late maligners, availing themselves of the position of certain German newspapers upon the question of the Presidency, are seeking to turn that position to Copperhead account.

There is, however, yet time and means to bring the mass of our German fellow-citizens to see through the fog of Radicalism, and when the decisive hour comes, we may yet find them on the right side—as ready to help us save the country from Radicalism and ruin, as they have been ready to help us fight the rebels and restore the Union.

We suspect that intelligent Germans will hardly willingly become instruments in the hands of their enemies for the defeat of the very measures for which they have so long been battling.

The fact that only eighteen members of the House of Representatives supported the proposition of Mr. Harding, of Ky., forbidding the use of any part of the army appropriation to pay negro troops, at once indicates to what point popular opinion has advanced and that no cause is too bad that it will not have supporters. One year ago, it would not have been strange had this proposition received a respectable vote, for the public mind was but beginning to comprehend the subject and recognize the wisdom of employing negro troops.

We are not certain that we would have had the vote for the proposition less. It shows the present actual strength of the Copperheads in the House, and indicates as well as anything else can the probable strength of that party in the country. This is the way we find out how fast the world moves.

THE COPPERHEAD CONVENTION which meets in Philadelphia to-day, will, of course, emulate the example of similar bodies all over the country, by denouncing the war to crush rebellion, ridiculing the efforts to conquer France, assailing the motives of those in authority, and then nominating George B. McClellan for the Presidency. In one sense, it matters little what these desperate tricksters do or say, as they can influence only a few of the more ignorant and prejudiced in each community; when in another view it is deplorable and humiliating that the games of such men are allowed to go on against the Government, while others are sacrificing fortune and perilling life in its defence.

THE ARMY VOTE.—It being authoritatively settled that soldiers shall vote, the New York Times calls on the army to nominate a peace man for President (and expresses confidence that such a candidate would command a majority of the army vote, were this not hampered and controlled by military restraint. The late Missouri election very emphatically repels this calumny against the soldiers. Her troops voted almost en masse for the radical war ticket, although their officers frequently sought to hamper and restrain them in the interest of the conservative or milk and water party.

THE DESIGNS OF THE COPPERHEADS were recently unfolded at a "big meeting" recently held in New York city, to nominate George B. McClellan for the Presidency. The platform resolutions adopted, denounce the war as "fratricidal" and all that, and want the "Young Napoleon" elected, not to carry on the war, mind you, but to bring about its "termination"—for not one word is said about prosecuting the war. It is a little funny that "the greatest general of the age" should find his worshippers in the "peace party," and be run for the Presidency on the "no-fighting" platform.

A MAN NAMED Daniel Maloney was recently sent to jail at Norfolk, for assault and battery, but applied for a new trial. Soon after, a brother of the prisoner placed a letter in the hands of Major Haggerty, the Provost Judge, which was found to contain a $50 greenback, and expressing the writer's thanks for his intention to give a new trial. The letter and contents were promptly returned, and on the motion for a new trial coming up, the prisoner acknowledged that he sent the letter and enclosure, whereupon he was sentenced to be imprisoned one year, and fined $600 for offering a bribe.

THE TOTAL RECEIPTS of Sanitary Fairs, held since November last, commencing with the pioneer fair at Chicago, is estimated at over one million of dollars. The great fair to be held in the city of Philadelphia in a few months, can be made to increase the sum at least half a million more, if the proper efforts are made by the people throughout the Commonwealth.

PRICE OF WOOD AT RICHMOND.—One of our contemporaries recently said in speaking of the proposition sometimes indulged by the Peace Democrats, of tendering the olive-branch to the rebels, if we were to send them cords of olive instead of branches, it would not pay for the cutting and hauling. Is that not strange when oak-wood retails at Richmond at $44 per cord, and pine at $35? Perhaps Fernando might bring a little lower.

A GENERAL AND A FORMIDABLE STRIKE is in progress among the railroad employees in the State of Illinois. It seems to have been gotten up after a most complete understanding, as all the roads are treated alike in the demand for the increased pay of their employees.

Leut. Col. J. P. Sanderson. We have noticed for several days a report, going the rounds of the western and northern press, highly injurious to Lieut. Col. J. P. Sanderson, of the 12th Regulars. The report was in effect that the Military Committee of the United States Senate had refused to recommend Col. S. for promotion, on account of alleged cowardice at Chickamauga. So far as our faith in the man was concerned, we felt certain that the report was without foundation in truth; but in order to give weight to its contradiction, we delayed any reference to it, until we could furnish the reader with indubitable evidence of the injury which was designed to be inflicted upon a gallant soldier by proof of his unknown political enemies. The same is now before us in the shape of a card from the headquarters of the Army of the Missouri, printed in the St. Louis Republican, March 19, which we submit in full as follows:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE MISSOURI, St. Louis, Mo., March 18. Special to the New York Commercial.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The Military Committee of the Senate has refused to recommend for promotion Lieut. Col. Sanderson, of the 12th Regulars, because of proof of his cowardice at Chickamauga. Mr. Editor: The above communication, published in the morning paper, is calculated to do great injustice to a deserving officer now on duty in this department. The General commanding the department, as an act of justice to Colonel Sanderson, directs me to state that he has no knowledge that such charge has ever been made against Colonel Sanderson, and that he is persuaded if it has been made, that it is unfounded in truth. That so far as his personal observations went, Colonel Sanderson conducted himself in such a manner as to entitle him to special mention in his official report of the battle of Chickamauga.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant, FRANK S. BOND, Major and A. D. C. FROM GEN. ROSECRANS' REPORT.

"I must not omit Colonel J. P. Sanderson, of the Regular infantry, who having lately joined us, on those two days of battle acted as aide-de-camp, and carried orders to the hottest portions of the field."

W. S. ROSECRANS, Major General. —We are exceedingly glad that Colonel Sanderson has been thus fully vindicated by his superior in command; and we know that the vindication will be hailed with satisfaction by his numerous friends in Pennsylvania, who have always known him as a faithful, upright, brave and sincere man.

The charter election in Bay City, (Mich.) which took place on the 7th inst., resulted in a complete victory for the Union cause. Bay City has heretofore been noted for its copperheadism, but now she has been redeemed, and that party is routed, horse, foot and dragons. The entire Republican ticket is elected by seventy-five majority.

A Louisiana Unionist who enlisted in the Twelfth Connecticut regiment and came with it on its recent furlough, recently said: "Since I came here I have heard more reasonable talk, and read more reasonable articles, than I did for months in the South among Southern men before I left there. The Union men of the South didn't permit such talk within their ranks."

DESERTIONS FROM THE REBEL RANKS.

The "Coffee Fraud" Bogus.

Unsuccessful Effort of Admiral Dahlgren to Obtain the Body of His Son.

Prospects of its Recovery.

Terrific Storm--Vessels Damaged.

WASHINGTON, March 24. Lieut. Gen. Grant and staff went to the Army of the Potomac.

A letter from the Army of the Potomac says that a lieutenant and seven privates of a Louisiana regiment came into our lines yesterday and made the usual statement of demoralization in the rebel ranks.

It having been reported that the Government was being defrauded in the article of coffee, and that ground glass was found in the bottom of barrels, commission was appointed to examine into the subject. The result is that some coffee had been emptied into a barrel, which previously contained fragments of a bottle. This is the origin of the charge of fraud.

The Star has the following: The steamer Baltimore, acting master Mitchell, which left here on Monday morning with Admiral Dahlgren, who went down to Fortress Monroe expecting to receive the body of his son, arrived up this morning with the Admiral on board, he having been again unsuccessful in his mission.

The flag-of-truce boat, which was due at Old Point on Tuesday afternoon, did not arrive until yesterday, P. M., on account of the storm, which obliged her to lay to off old Jamestown Island during Tuesday night. The boat brought down a number of wounded soldiers, but did not bring down the remains of Colonel Dahlgren, as expected.

Col. Ould, the Confederate agent for exchange of prisoners, sent a rebel message, stating that the men who had buried the body could not be found in time to get it ready for transportation, but it would be sent down as soon as possible.

This promise gives the officers at Old Point and the numerous relatives and friends of the deceased hopes that the remains will shortly be delivered to the afflicted father and his family.

Capt. Mitchell describes the late storm as one of the most terrific that has ever occurred. It blew and stormed with tremendous fury. A number of vessels in the Roads were dashed about by the storm, and some driven ashore and damaged. Three schooners were totally wrecked, and four lives were lost.

Ohio Democratic State Convention.

COLUMBUS, March 23. The Democratic State Convention organized by the election of George B. Rux as president, after considerable squabbling by the Vallandigham men. The following delegates to the National Convention were elected: Wm. Allen, George A. Pendleton, Allen G. Thompson, Rufus P. Ranney. Two hundred and eleven votes were cast by the Vallandigham men.

Necessary to a choice 215. George E. Pugh and Thomas W. Barclay were chosen Senatorial electors on the Presidential ticket. Resolutions were adopted opposing the prosecution of the war for the subjugation of the South; that the mob spirit now abroad was the result of a violation of the Constitution by the party in power; the tyranny of the present Administration has become intolerable, and we are now reaping the harvest of crime.

The following nominations were made for State officers: Secretary of State—W. W. Armstrong. Supreme Judge—Judge P. Van Trump. For Short Term—M. C. Whately, of Hancock.

Attorney General—J. L. Critchfield. Comptroller of Treasury—W. S. P. Pentz. School Commissioners—A. S. Ramsey and H. H. Burney.

An Appeal for Aid. BALTIMORE, March 24. The following dispatch from Rev. J. O. Sloan, agent of the Christian Commission at Annapolis, was received at the office of the Commission, this city, this morning:

Over nine hundred men have just landed; three died on the way from Fort Monroe. About four hundred are sick and the condition of some is beyond description. Send me supplies of milk, cheese, oranges and lemons. Although the funds of the Commission are very low they have made a large shipment to Annapolis this morning, hoping that they will be sustained by the liberality of our citizens.

Cotton from Dixie. CAINO, March 24. The steamer Silver Wave, from Memphis on the 22d, passed up this morning for Cincinnati, with a large cargo of bales of cotton, a large quantity of miscellaneous freight and many passengers.

Memphis dates of the 22d contain little news. Cotton still on the decline, having fallen one cent on all qualities, little differing. No disposition to buy. Good middling 58, strict middling 56 and middling 55.

Destruction of a Shot and Shell Foundry. MAUCH CHUNRY, March 24. The large shell and shot foundry and pattern shop of Albright & Strup was destroyed by fire this morning, at half-past four o'clock.

The loss is $30,000, with an insurance of $12,000.

Copperhead State Convention. PHILADELPHIA, March 24. The Democratic State Convention met today, by the election of Wm. H. White, permanent President, and Robert J. Hemphill Secretary.

Union National Convention. ALBANY, March 24. The Union National Convention has been called to meet at Syracuse on the 26th of May.
