THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT, ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

MARRISBURG, PA. FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 25, 1864.

The Attitude of the Ministers of the Methe

dist Episcopal Church. We print the report of the committee on the State of the Country, of which Rev. J. Walker Jackson was chairman, to the conference of Methodist ministers recently held in Wilmington, Del., this afternoon. We refrained from publishing this preamble and resolutions, purposely to get a true copy from the distinguished author of the same, as the report had created a singular sensation both among loyal men, and those who profess a sort of semi-loyalty with the blackest treason -rankling in their hearts. So far as our judgment is concerned, we cannot refrain from approving of the sentiments expressed throughout the entire report. The doctrines of these resolutions are those which every patriot should cherish and every Christian cultivate. And yet, strange as it may appear, such Methodists as the editor of the Lancaster Intelligencer declares that by the influence of teaching similar to that conveyed in those resolutions, must have a tendency to un-church him as well as many other good Democratic Methodists. Peculiar, indeed, must be the Methodism, and strangely changed has that doctrince become, since Wesley first proof the report made by Rev. Jackson fail to command the respect and the approval of all true Methodists.

-Without offering any further comments on this report, except to write that as we print it it is correct according to the original of the author, we commend it to our readers.

State Declarations in Favor of the Re-Election of Abraham Lincoln.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania was the first official body, directly representing the interests and political sentiments of the masses of the people, which declared in favor of the re-election of Abraham Lincoln! Immediately after the Keystone State, through her representatives, had thus emphatically avowed a purpose to secure a continuance of the National Administration and its policy, fourteen other States followed in quick succession, until we are now able to print a list of fifteen States, fairly committed to Abraham Lincoln. The States may be enumerated as follows: Pennsylvania Legislature.

New Jersey Legislature. California Legislature. Ohio Legislature. Maryland Legislature. Michigan Legislature. Wisconsin Legislature. Kansas Legislature. Rhode Island Legislature. Minnesota State Convention. Iowa State Convention. Indiana State Convention. New Hampshire State Convention. Connecticut State Convention. Maine Legislature.

-Besides the States thus named as having declared for the re-election of Mr. Lincoln. almost every Loyal League in the country, conventions of cities and counties, and newspapers advocating Union sentiments, have avowed a determination to extend the term of the National Administration another four years.

The Bounty Bill.

The bill authorizing the payment of bounties having now become a law, the next great object is to secure its immediate operation, and thereby fill up the quota of each district in the coming draft. In volunteering for bounties, it could be well for every man, and particularly men who leave families behind. to enlist in localities where they have their homes. By this course they do not, perhaps, receive as large a bounty as they would in other localities, but they make certain of other important aid, in the way of the relief fund which each county will undoubtedly distribute which each county will undoubtedly distribute are the secret foes of the Government, with to the families of volunteers. If the volunalithe venom, but without the manliness of teer goes from home to enlist, his family will of course lose this relief. Hence the importance of each man crediting himself on the

-We believe, with a fair and earnest exertion on the part of the people of each township, ward, city and county, that the different quotas could be raised without much diffioulty. And, besides this if the people in each locality to go work to raise their own quotas from their own population, the bounties will be fully secured to volunteers instead of being divided among hordes of hungry substitute brokers. It is a fact worthy of notice, that the bounties heretofore paid by counties, have been mostly exhausted in feeing these substitute brokers, who have managed to stand between the volunteer and the localities with quotas to fill up, and whose services were of no possible practical account. With this system broken up, and with the people fully understanding how to protect themselves from the sharks who have heretofore flourished on these illy gotten gains, we may hope to see Pennsylvania at last fill up her quota on the coming draft with as little delay as possible, and without the operation of the conscription laws.

Mr. Solicitor Whiting hasdecided that all persons liable to be enrolled are liable to be drafted, and though absent may be served with notice left at their last place of residence. Non-appearance upon such notice subjects them to the penalties of desertion. On this decision the Provost Marshal has issued his

Mrs. CATHARINE SAVAGE, formerly of Coventry township, Chester county, died on the 20th of February, in Phoenixville. She was born January 1st, 1767, and was therefore 97 years, 1 month and 19 days old. She raised 11 children, 8 of whom, we believe, are still living, the eldest 77 and the youngest 49 years. She also leaves 56 grand-children and 54 great grand-children. During her younger days she more than once saw Gen. Washington, and had a distinct recollection of him.

THE PLATFORM OF THE METHODIST EPIS-COPAL CHURCH.

Its-Loyalty and Christian Patriotism Affirmed.

At the recent Conference of the Ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, held in the city of Wilmington, Delaware, Rev. J. W. Jackson presented the following report of the Committee on the State of the Country: WHEREAS, A Rebellion, unjust and causeless in its origin, and infamously wicked in its objects, continues to threaten the existence of the Government framed by the wisdom and sacrifice of our fathers, and founded upon the corner stone of the freedom and equality of all men; and doctrince become, since Wesley first pro-likeras, the success of the leaders in this claimed it, and Summerfield carried it on his tongue of sublime eloquence, if the sentiments memberment of the country and the estab-lishment of a new Confederacy within the present territorial limits, having for its corner-stone the system of human slavery—would be to imperil the existence of civil and religious liberty, which is the life of the nation; and

Whereas, As Ministers of the Lord Jesus Christ, we relinquish no rights as American citizens, but are compelled by our articles of religion to preach to all loyalty to the powers that be, that are "ordained of God," we there-

Resolve, 1, That asministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church within the bounds of the Philadelphia Annul Conference, we reaffirm our past declarations since the war commenced, in reference to the Rebellion, and our pledged determination to sustain the Government in this crisis of our national existence.

Resolved, 2, That while we acknowledge the war as a great national calamity, and lament the untold miseries that by it are entailed upon the land in the loss of precious lives, in sad, demoralizing influences, we believe that the duty of the nation is to prosecute the war with all its resources of men and money, until peace shall be obtained by victory, the Rebellion be completely subdued, the legitimate power and authority of the Govern-ment shall be re-established, and till the flag of the nation, as the emblem of the undisputed sovereignty of the Federal Government, shall wave over every foot of the territorial domain. Resolved, 3, That as the Constitution of the United States, the supreme law of the land, makes it the duty of the Government "to sup-press rebellion," and as Government would be a nullity aside from its administration, we maintain that loyalty to the Government is only to be understood as loyalty to the Administration of that Government as duly elected under the Constitution, and that in rendering to "Casar the things that belong to Casar," the entirely unqualified and prompt obedience of all under its authority is to be rendered to the Administration, not in wrath, but for conscience sake; and that resistance to its authority, either by speech or action, is not only rebellion and treason to the civil Government, but to God. Resolved, 4, Vhat while we recognize the policy of the Government, we yet affirm that it is a religious duty "not to speak evil of min-isters and magistrates," and that, especially in times like these, when the utmost wisdom is required in the administration of civil affairs. the right of even such discussion is only to be exercised with great caution, prudence and forbearance.

Resolved, 5, That so far as our influence may extend, we discount on ance and condemn the ill concealed treason of those who, influenced by party spirit, or sympathy with humrn bondage, find fault with every warlike measure, under the pretext of a discrimination between the Constitution, as the supreme law of the land and the administration of the Government as framed by the Constitution. They rebels in open arms.

Resolved, 6. That we recognize in American slavery, so justly characterized by the Fathers of our Church "as contrary to the golden law of God, on which hangs all the law and the prophets, and the inalienable rights of man-kind, as well as every principle of the Revo-lution," the root and palpable cause of this most foul and wicked rebellion; and that we cured its own destruction, and that in the emancipation policy of the Government we recognize the hand of Him who, thus overruling the councils of men, has caused a military necessity to coincide with the principles of everlasting righteousness in the extirpation of slavery, the prolific mother of wicked leg-islation in the State, and of dissension and bickerings in the Church.

Resolved, 7, That our brave soldiers and sailors who under the influence of patriotism, day, so have sacrificed the comforts of home, and ganized. risked their lives in defence of the great in-terests that are at stake in the national struggle, are the object of our sympathy and love, and that we will pray for them, and in all possible ways co-operate with the instrumentali-ties that are made use of for the promotion of their temporal and spiritual interests; that those who liavo fallen and those who survive have secured an imperishable monument in the hearts of their countrymen, and that the orphans of those who for the defence of the nation have sacrificed their lives should be the nation's special care.

Resolved, 8, That the sublimely charitable institutions, the United States Sanitary and Christian Commissions, as outgrowths of this war, illustrating as they do the influence of Christian civilization in its efforts to alleviate the unavoidable calamities resulting from war, demand and should receive the prayers and donations of all Christian people, as well the Freedman's Aid Society, in whose efforts to elevate the hitherto downtrodden and op-

Capture of a Guerrilla Chieftain

Fire-Arms Taken, &c.

WASHINGTON, March 25. Col. Wells, Provost Marshal General at Alexandria, sent out a party of company D, First Michigan cavalry, dismounted, on Wednesday evening, under command of Lieut.

Jackson, in search of guerrillas. They went by steamer to Freestone Point, and from thence through the woods about ten miles, where they captured Capt. Hannegan, a well known guerrilla chieftain, and three men, together with six shot guns, muskets and rifles, three revolvers and one horse. They returned safely this morning.

Hannigan is a dangerous man and has often boasted that he would not be captured alive.

Passes and permits from the rebel authorities were found upon him, permitting him to go where he pleased within the enemy's lines.
