GONE TO ANNAPOLIS. - Col. Sipe's regiment, the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry.

A "SECOND NATIONAL BANK" has commenced operations in Mechanicsburg. Business must be brisk up there!

FRIDAY next will be "All Fools' Day." Look out for a "sell.". The time-honored custom of moving will be duly celebrated.

POLICE AFFAIRS are dull. But four cases were before Alderman Kline this morning, viz: John Wolf, Samuel McKinney, Thomas Henson and Alleh Stevenson

THE 102d Pennsylvania regiment, some of the officers and members of which so completely disgraced themselves here yesterday.

LEE, No. 69 Market street, has just finished several magnificent Canis, which were gotten up expressly for presentation in this city. One of these Canes is to be sent to a neighboring city. This reminds us that Lee is almost daily receiving orders for this kind of work, for different portions of the State, a fact which speaks well for his reputation as a master mechanic. In addition to the finishing and manufacture of Canes, Lee continues to deal largely in Umbrellas, &c. His stock of goods is certainly worth inspection.

PASSED THROUGH.-About five hundred ebel prisoners passed through this city yesterday morning, from Camp Chase, Ohio, in charge of a guard of one hundred and twenty men. The difference in the appearance of the prisoners from those taken through here a few days ago, was owing to the fact that these were officers and the others privates. Among the prisoners, yesterday, were two brigadier generals, several colonels and quite a number of captains. Their uniforms were invariably of a gray color. The prisoners were on their way to Fort Delaware, doubtless to be soon removed to Fortress Monroe for exchange. ----

Y. M. C. A.--We would invite all who wish to know what the Young Men's Christian Association of this city has been doing during the year, to attend the meeting to be held in the First English Lutheran Church on Fourth street, this evening at 71 o'clock.

It being the eighth anniversary of the association, the annual report will be read by Rev. W. C. Cattell, the retiring President, whose old friends should not fail to be on hand. An address will also be delivered by Rev.

F. W. Conrad from Lancaster, which alone will be a treat. All are invited to attend,

SHAMEFUL BEHAVIOR OF A COLONEL AND CAPTAIN .- Yesterday afternon, the Colonel of the 102d regiment, with one of his Captains, committed a most outrageous assault upon Detective Officer Franklin, of the Provost Marshal's Office. It appears that while this regiment was in the act of leaving the depot, officer Franklin discovered certain deserters in one of the cars, and endeavored to seize and secure them. In the effort he was roughly repulsed by a Captain, and when he (Franklin) sought the interference of the Colonel, that officer drew his sword and ordered his men to attack Detective Franklin. In the melee officer Franklin lost his revolver, was also considerably bruised, and had the mortification of seeing the deserters escape. We understand that charges have been preferred against the Colonel and Captain in question, and we earnestly trust that both will be made stern examples of, if not dismissed in disgrace from the service.

This act of outrage is only another evilence of the insufficiency and insecurity with which the affairs at this post are administered by the officer in command. Had proper guards been detailed at the depot, the outrage on Officer Franklin would not have occurred, nor the deserters thus shielded escaped. yet there is no hope in complaining, as Bumford is a fixture.

INTERESTING CEREMONY IN THE PRESENTA-TION OF a Swond.-Lieut. John Harper, of Co. B, Fourth Pennsylvania Cavalry, being on for lough with the veteran volunteers, one of his personal friends in this city, deemed it a favorable opportunity to testify his high regard for him as a man and a soldier. For several years before Lient. H. entered the service, he had been in the employ of Mr, Alexander Koser, of this city, by whom he of the city, but Front street is infested by H., for the purpose of witnessing the presenmer to the latter. Mr. Koser presented the sword in person. In doing so, he said in substance: I am the last man in the world to attempt to make a speech, because I dislike talk; but I cannot present you with this sword without saying a few words. While you were in my employ, you were a faithful man, always ready for service, and ever prompt in obedience to orders. If you conduct yourself in the army this city. The spirit of improvement has siezed upon our people, and we anticipate a very busy season among our mechanics. We invite attention to the card of McFadden & Co., whose marble yard is located at the country, it made my heart glad. I have the corner of Walnut and Fifth streets. All now said as much as I intended to say. Take work entrusted to their care will/be promptly this sword. I give it to you in pure friend-attended to. Give the firm a call-they mar. honorably, and that you will carry it with honor in the defence of the Union and the ten, or a full regiment. The term of services On receiving the sword, Lieut, Harper said he was no speech maker; but such a present from one whom he had always respected, de-manded at least a few words. If God spared Provost Marshal's office in this city. jeweiry, &c., of the very best quanty, all of which will be sold at low rates. We would advise the public to call at the store and ex-amine the goods. See advertisement. • HARRISBURG MINISTERS AEROAD. --Rev. John Walker Jackson, of the Locust Street M. E. ployer, it was because that employer had always been true, to him. He acted on the same principle to his government. He was true to that because it was true to him. Lieut. H. again thanked his former employer and pre-sent true friend for the sword, concluding his remarks with an avowal that he would never draw it in any cause but that of justice and his country. Altogether, however private, the whole affair was one of the most interesting ceremonies we have witnessed for many days. Besides being a tribute to a brave soldier, it was one of those rare instances of genuine fraternity and friendship between an employer and his employee, which does not often illu-MIDDLETOWN.-We are informed that there and as such we commend it to the consider-- Lient Harper went from this city as a lumber dealers are already receiving a large private. BRILLIANT SUCCESS !- The first appearance of Miss Kate Denin and Mr. Sam. E. Ryan was witnessed by a very large and appreciative audience, who speak in the highest terms of praise of these favorite performers. The Lady of Lyons was rendered in a manner that was unexceptionable. The various characters in the play were sustained in the very excellent style for which Rouse's Star Troupe has become noted. The Limerick Boy was equally well rendered, and provoked a langh from "those who never laughed before." For to-night a capital bill is presented, con-

Murray; Adelaide, (Countess of Bassieres,) Miss A. Wilford; Catharine, (Grandmother to Madaline,) Mrs. Aglon; Margurite, (friend of Madaline,) Mrs. J. W. Jennings; Madalaine's Tris Child, little Fanny Rouse; to be followed by Iris the Irish comedy, entitled Irish Assurance, in Irís which Mr. Ryan will appear as Pat, and Miss Fanny Denham as Nancy. Go to-night. There is a rich treat in store for those who attend.

THE great play, yclept ye Mother Goose, of NI incient renown, is now the attraction at Sanford's Opera House. For a scenic exhibition this exceeds anything yet ever produced in this city, and the performance of pantomime is comparable with the Ravels. Sanford as Clown is all that can be expected, while his daughter Julia appears as Columbine, producing the best dances we have ever witnessed, together with the Harlequin and Pantaloon. You may enjoy a feast rarely witnessed. It will be performed every evening this week, also on Saturday afternoon, entirely for ladies and children. No gentleman admitted unless the head of a family. The history of Mother Goose is published by Mr. Sanford, and will be distributed among the audience on this occasion.

ATTEMPTED ESCAPE OF A DESERTER-He is Killed by the Guard.-About noon to-day, a soldier named James Murphy, of the 184th Penna. regiment, was sent under guard to Camp Curtin. On the road to Camp, Murphy attacked the guard, knocked him down, threw away his'gun, and then attempted to escape. By the time he had run a distance of seventyfive yards, the guard recovered his gun, and fired on Murphy, the ball taking effect in the head, and killing him instantly. The guard was a member of Capt. Gowan's company, (Patapsco Guards,) and in shooting Murphy, was but discharging his duty. Thus has a "bounty-jumper" been brought to a sudden end. His fate should be a warning to the hundreds who have enlisted for the purpose of swindling the Government.

THE HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH. - This lively and sterling Union paper, published at Har-risburg Pa.—the Capital of the State-has changed its name to "The Pennsylvania Tele-graph;" and has made a still more important improvement by coming out in an entirely new dress of very handsome type. The Fele-graph has also raised its price, from that of six cents a week to eight cents a week! How a a paper can be published these times, daily, as presen theme of Alexander Koser, of this city, by whom he was greatly esteemed, alike for his fidelity and industry, as for his intelligence and honesty. Last evening Mr. K. had assembled at his residence, a select few of his personal friends, with the friends and acquaintances of Lieut. H., for the purpose of witnessing the presen-tation of a splendid cavalry sword by the forcents, at least. — Daily (Indianapolis) Evening Gazette.
