THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT. ABRAHAM LINCOLN. HARRISBURG, PA. MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 4, 1864.

Union State Central Committee. The members of the Union State Central Committee are requested to assemble at the Jones House, in the city of Harrisburg, on WEDNESDAY, the 8th day of April next, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

Wayne M. Teagh, Chairman. Geo. W. Hays, Secretary. W. W. Hays, Secretaries. March 31, 1864.

Copperhead Justification.

Whenever a scamp attempts to explain any word or deed of his, that has elicited public condemnation, his guilt peeps out of his prevarications, and he generally ends in his own complete condemnation. Indeed, it is only necessary occasionally to unmask the forgeries who are now engaged in a secret effort to embarrass the Government, at once to read in their own countenances and confusion, the evidence of their guilt.

time these calculations and hopes were almost realized. The slave interest in Maryland did all in its power to aid rebellion, and only failed when opposed by the immense force of the loyal men hurrying over its borders to meet armed traitors.

Will hold her election on Tuesday, (tomorrow), when will be decided whether the Constitution shall be amended, so as to give the soldiers the right to vote. This contest will be regarded by the people and the soldiers of other States with immense interest; and as New York decides, the masses of other Commonwealths will be more or less influenced. The issue involved in the right of the soldier to vote, has divided Pennsylvania in New York, as widely as it has in Pennsylvania.

again on the 5th. The U. S. ship St. Louis, reached Santa Cruz on the 16th. Maximilian will embark for Mexico on the 13th.

On the night of the 28th, the guerrillas captured and burned a trading boat seventy miles below Memphis. The crew were captured, but afterwards paroled. Several hundred rebels occupy Hickman, Ky. Faulkner's headquarters are said to be there.

London, March 23.—The Reichsraad closed today. The King said we are still at one, and know not how long Europe will look with indifference upon the acts of violence perpetrated on us. We are ready to do everything that may serve to obtain peace, but the period is still distant when we shall submit to humiliating peace.
