TOWN AND COUNTRY.

STILL IT COMES.—The pleasant weather of yesterday was followed by a fall of rain, which commenced last night, and continued until a late hour this morning.

CHARGED WITH PERJURY.—George Kenner and Augustus Liehtner, of this city, were yesterday arrested, for the purpose of being taken to New Bloomfield, Pa., to answer a charge of perjury.

IS OUR NOTICE OF THE OPEN MARKET FOR CATTLE, published yesterday, we should have stated that Capt. Hess is the inspector of the animals offered for sale.

HEAVY LOSS.—A few days ago William Skinner, Esq., of Chambersburg, lost his pocket-book, containing $9,300, in Philadelphia.

THE PRINTERS' UNION of this city, at a late meeting, adopted a new scale of prices, which will take effect in a few days.

A COLORED CARTER came near losing his horse and cart yesterday. They "tilted" over the river bank as the driver was engaged in unloading the vehicle.

Y. M. C. A.—It is respectfully requested that as many of the members of the Young Men's Christian Association as can, will attend the funeral of their late fellow member, Charles Zinn, to-morrow afternoon.

THERE are a number of boys in this city who make a practice of jumping on and off wagons, and other vehicles, as they pass along the streets.

MARLET was slily attended this morning. Neither the country folks or our citizens turned out to any extent, on account of the very inclement state of the weather.

PERSONS desiring to be present at the opening of the market are compelled to rise early. The bell rings at half-past four o'clock.

PAYMENT OF THE MILITIA.—We understand that Major Wiley, U. S. paymaster at this post, has received orders to pay the militia, an act of justice which has been too long delayed.

MAJ. M'PHAIL, on duty at this post for some time past, as a paymaster, has been ordered to West Virginia. He will carry with him the good opinions of those who had business with him during his service here.

SEVENTY-SECOND NIGHT.—This evening, in consequence of repeated requests for its repetition, Rouse's Star Combination Company will re-produce the great Ledger drama, THE HIDDEN HAND.

THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.—The proposition to remove the seat of Government from Harrisburg to any other place than Philadelphia was but persistent boring has brought about a mischief for which not one of us was prepared.

CAPT. ROBINSON, in charge of the Commissary Bureau at this post, is the last man whom we would misrepresent, and yet we were inadvertently guilty of this misrepresentation a few days since, by placing him in charge as Quartermaster in Harrisburg.

DEED.—At Richmond, Va., March 21st, 1864, Christopher A. Hynicka, of Co. D, Seventy-sixth Pennsylvania Volunteers.

SOME things are wordless, and some others so good, For Freedom and Union each man owes his part; He has his share all warm from his heart.

DECEASED was a resident of this city, and highly respected by all who knew him. His death will be deeply lamented by his numerous friends and acquaintances.

TO PRINTERS.—A foreman for a country newspaper establishment. See advertisement.

SANFORD has prepared an unusually attractive bill for this evening, when a number of new plays, songs, &c., will be presented to the frequenters of that pleasant resort.

THERE was a large audience at the National Hall, last night, to witness the fine performances of Hitchcock's Variety Troupe.

HOPE FIRE COMPANY, ATTENTION.—A stated meeting of the Hope fire company will be held at their house on Friday evening next, the 15th.

AN affecting incident occurred at New Haven barracks the other day. A woman desired to see her husband, embraced him, began to sob and cry violently.

CONVOCATION.—A meeting of the South Central Convocation of the Episcopal Church, of this Diocese, commenced at St. Stephen's Church, this city, last evening.

PUBLIC services will be held regularly every morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7, up to Friday evening. Bishop Potter is expected to present this evening.

SHOCKING OCCURRENCE AT WILLIAMSPORT, PA.—The Williamsport Bulletin, of Saturday last, gives the following account of an accident that occurred in that place on Friday morning last.

ALFRED H. MANN, of Havre-de-Grace, Md., came to this place some nine or ten days ago, and was attacked with erysipelas, at the Parker House, where he has been confined to his bed until yesterday morning.

MAYOR COURT, Jeremiah H. Dunn, who was arrested yesterday, charged with being a pickpocket, had a hearing this morning, but there being no evidence to warrant his retention, he was discharged.

SAMUEL BOYER, arrested for selling butter, the weight of which was below the legal standard, had a hearing. After paying a fine and costs, he was released.

T. H. BROOKS and Warrington Keesey, soldiers, were engaged in a fight at the corner of Third and Walnut streets, last night, for which they were arrested and placed in the lock-up until this morning.

ABRAHAM BUCKALEW, a soldier, was arrested for the larceny of a knife from a man named Weaver. Buckalew purchased a violin at Knoche's music store, and Weaver being present, made some necessary repairs about the instrument.

TWO soldiers, named Berkeimer and Wiley, arrested for disorderly conduct, were handed over to the military authorities.

JOHN H. HUMPHREY, a vagrant, was furnished with lodging in the Walnut street institution.

THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.—The proposition to remove the seat of Government from Harrisburg to any other place than Philadelphia was but persistent boring has brought about a mischief for which not one of us was prepared.

DECEASED was a resident of this city, and highly respected by all who knew him. His death will be deeply lamented by his numerous friends and acquaintances.

THE ARMY HOSPITAL.—During the past week 178 patients were admitted into the army hospitals of this Department; 325 were returned to duty, and 18 died.

PAYMENT OF THE STATE MILITIA.—We are enabled, by the courtesy of Adjutant General Russell, to lay the following official document before our readers.

UNITED STATES ARMY, PAY DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA, OFFICE OF THE CHIEF PAYMASTER, BALTIMORE, MD., April 9th, 1864.

ARRANGEMENTS for the payment of the Pennsylvania emergency troops, called into service by the Governor in September, 1862, will shortly be completed.

To facilitate the work, I have divided the State into three districts, with a supervising paymaster for each, viz: First District, Major David Taggart, at Philadelphia, embraces the counties of Berks, Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Delaware, Lehigh, Montgomery, Northampton, Philadelphia, Schuylkill, and Wayne.

These, as appears from the returns to the Adjutant General of Pennsylvania, are all the counties in which were organized any of the troops in question.

Any information desired by parties interested will be promptly furnished on application to the supervising paymaster, or to the Chief Paymaster. Each of the named supervising officers will arrange the details within his district, looking to the convenience of claimants and the finishing of the work assigned him with the least practicable delay.

Where the officer or soldier cannot be present at his designated place of rendezvous to sign the rolls, the payment may be made to his attorney upon power duly executed.

JULIUS ROSENDALE, OPTICIAN. BEGS to inform the inhabitants of Harrisburg and vicinity that he has removed to No. 29 North Second street, two doors from Walnut.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION is called to the CELEBRATED TINTED PARABOLIC SPECTACLES, for which claim the undermentioned advantages: 1st. That from the peculiar construction of the Glasses, they assist and preserve the sight, rendering frequent change quite unnecessary.

2d. That they confer a brilliancy and distinctness of vision, with an amount of ease and comfort not hitherto enjoyed by spectacle wearers. 3d. That the material from which the Lenses are ground is manufactured specially for optical purposes, and is firm, hard and brilliant, and not liable to become scratched.

4th. That the frames in which they are set, whether gold, silver or steel, are of the finest quality and finish, and are perfectly adapted to every eye. 5th. That, from their peculiar color, they prevent a perpetuity of light affecting the retina, and thereby strengthening the optic nerve and rendering it less liable to Anasarca.

Constantly on hand, a large assortment of Astronomical Microscopes, Spy Glasses, Opera, Marine and Field Glasses; Telescopes and Views, Magic Lanterns, Barometers, Thermometers, Magnets, &c. Remember that Rosendale's Institute will be permanent at No. 29 North Second street, two doors from the Dutch-ler House.
