EVENING EDITION. THE CAPTURE OF FORT PILLLOW. OFFICIAL DISPATCH FROM GEN. SHERMAN.

Further Particulars of the Massacre. THE REBELS REPULSED AT COLUMBUS. THE DAMAGE AT PADUCAH TRIFLING. WASHINGTON, April 16. Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, despatches were received here from General Sherman confirming the news of the surrender of Fort Pillow and the brutal conduct of the rebels immediately afterwards, which bids fair to be amply retaliated in that quarter in due time.

The Star says according to General Sherman's report, our loss was 50 white troops killed and 100 wounded, and 300 black troops murdered in cold blood after the surrender. Fort Pillow is an isolated post of no value whatever to the defence of Columbus, and utterly untenable by the rebels, who have no doubt left that vicinity ere this, having been disappointed, with considerable loss, in the object of their raid thither; which was the capture of Columbus, whence they were promptly and severely repulsed, with no loss to us.

We are satisfied that due investigation will show that the loss of Fort Pillow was simply the result of a mistake of a local commander, who occupied it against direct orders, a contingency incident to all wars. The rebels, according to the official dispatch received here last evening, effected nothing at Paducah, losing a soldier killed and wounded for every horse they succeeded in stealing, and doing us no other damage than by a few thefts.

It is believed that Forest's raiders will next appear in the vicinity of Memphis where they can effect no more than they did at Columbus and Paducah, and stand a very fair chance, indeed, of finding themselves surrounded by overwhelming superior forces.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Unsuccessful Attempt to Capture Gen. Grant. WASHINGTON, April 16. Despatches from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac state that yesterday noon a party of rebel cavalry made an attack on the pickets at Bristoe Station, but were driven off after a brisk skirmish.

One man was killed and two were wounded, being taken to the 13th Pennsylvania. Several of the wounded were carried off by their comrades. The mail train with Gen. Grant aboard had just passed a few minutes before the attack was made, and it is supposed the intention was to capture him.

The body of Capt. McKee, of the 21st Infantry, who was killed by guerrillas on Monday last, was forwarded to Washington today. The man who shot him was named W. Flinders, and he, with three others, made an attack on a picket post near Catlett's, on Wednesday, when he was shot dead by a soldier of the 2d Infantry.

From Indiana. An Indianapolis special dispatch represents military matters very active. A large number of recruits leave for the front daily. Govs. Brough, Yates and Morton were in consultation with General Heintzelman yesterday. A colored regiment leaves on Monday to report to Burnside at Annapolis. The new Indiana regiments are being rapidly organized for the field.

It is thought that Gen. Mansfield will be a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor in place of Gen. Kimball, declined. CLEVELAND, April 16. The Supreme Court of Ohio has decided that the law allowing soldiers to vote is constitutional. Release of a Prisoner. ELIZABETH, N. J., April 16. The efforts of Captain F. P. Hildes to secure his pardon having proved unsuccessful, he was met last night at the depot by hundreds of his fellow citizens who met to welcome home one whom they all believe to be an innocent and persecuted man.
