TOWN AND COUNTRY.

JOHN T. SYLVANA, a merchant of Georgetown, Sullivan county, was drowned in Muncy creek, on Sunday evening. He was attempting to cross the stream in a boat, which was upset.

NEEDS REPAIRING.—One of the foot-bridges over the canal, at the Market street crossing, presents a capital "opening," into which pedestrians can insert their feet and have their limbs broken—especially those who pass over the bridge at night. The "break" should be repaired at once, or somebody may have damages to pay to somebody.

THE Mount Alto iron works, in Franklin county, have been sold for $250,000. The iron business is looking up. A large number of idle furnaces have changed hands this spring—all of them having been purchased by parties who intend to put them in operation at the earliest possible period.

THE attention of the readers of the TELEGRAPH is invited to the advertisement of Mrs. J. Hibbs, who has opened a splendid assortment of reasonable millinery at No. 8, Market Square, next door to Felix's confectionery store. Ladies in want of anything in the millinery line will do well to call on Mrs. Hibbs.

A STEAMER ON THE SUSQUEHANNA.—A sidewheel steamer of about forty tons burthen, came down the Susquehanna river this morning, and halted opposite this city, for a short time. It attracted a large crowd of spectators. After affording those present an opportunity to witness the operation of turning and running up stream a short distance, the steamer departed, wending its way down the river.

PARDOXED.—A dispatch from Elizabeth, N. J., announces the return home of Mr. F. P. Hill, who was recently found guilty of embezzlement from a railroad company, by the Dauphin county court, but who has been pardoned by the Governor. A large crowd met Mr. H. at the Elizabeth depot, to welcome him home, as they believe him to be (says the dispatch) an injured and persecuted man.

PERHAPS spring is about to open. The rainy spell has given place to clear, beautiful weather. The wind of Sunday had the effect of drying up the mud to a considerable extent. The late rains have caused the grass to shoot forth, and the grain-fields present a healthful appearance. In fact there is a fine prospect of an ample harvest. The farmers are somewhat back with the spring work, but it is not too late to sow their oats and prepare their corn-ground.

BUSINESS.—Our railroads are doing an immense business. Every passenger train passing here is crowded with human freight, and the trains are of an unusual length. The spring trade has fairly opened. Freight trains are laden with merchandise of all descriptions. The country merchants are laying in their semi-annual supply of goods, and thus add materially to the freight and passenger trade of the railroad companies.

SOLDIERS ROBBED.—The pickpockets have been doing a "flourishing" business. On Saturday morning a veteran was relieved of sixty dollars, in market; a "new recruit" had his pocket-book, containing some ninety dollars, stolen, on Saturday afternoon, as he was about leaving the city, by one of the trains; another soldier was relieved of one hundred and fifty dollars while sleeping in the vicinity of the depot, on Saturday night. No doubt these "hands" were quite satisfactory to the pickpockets, but they were not so to the soldiers.

PASSED THROUGH.—The Tenth New Jersey regiment arrived here on Saturday evening, en route for the front, under command of Col. Reason. This regiment was on provost duty in New York during the disgraceful riots that occurred there a few months ago. Since then it has been on duty in Schuylkill county, in this State. The men—who are a noble looking body of soldiers—were quartered at Camp Curtin on Saturday night, and left this city at noon on Sunday, their destination being the front of the army.

IMPORTANT.—We copy the following important notice from an exchange:

The draft has been postponed until June 1, and then—

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, Mr. Thomas S. Davis, of Williamsport, Pa., was instantly killed, by a pile of logs (which he was rolling into the river) rolling over him.

DROWNED.—On Tuesday last, while several children were playing on the river bank, near Williamsport, one of them, named Willie Davis, aged three years, fell into the river, and was drowned.

Mr. D. A. KEPNER, of this city, has been appointed Assistant Assessor of U. S. taxes, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Wm. H. Caslow (since deceased.) This is an excellent appointment.

SOME of our exchanges contain numerous advertisements from soldiers who desire to open correspondence with young ladies, for amusement. We would caution young ladies against corresponding with strangers in the army. A great amount of evil has already resulted from such correspondence, resulting in the ruin of thoughtless misses.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—Just before going to press we learn that the celebrated singing dog, Dick, has arrived in this city. This musical gentleman will appear at Sanford's Opera House every evening this week. On each occasion he will sing a number of songs, besides speaking and taking part in the various plays. Let everybody see this wonderful canine wonder of the world.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—Sanford this evening presents one of the greatest combinations ever given in this city; in fact a double company viz: The Broadwell Opera and Drawing Room Company, together with Joe Childs, Mortimer and Diamond. See his lengthy advertisement which explains full particulars. Variety is Sanford's motto. As competition is the life of trade, Sanford excels in advertising, excels in drawing full houses here, and he has the best entertainment.

HORRIBLE.—On Friday night last, a fire broke out in a house occupied by a family named Mann, in Tarport, Pa. The parents occupied one room, and four children another. The flames spread before the family awoke. On awaking the father attempted to rescue one of the children, but was suffocated before leaving the house, and, with the child, was burned. The mother attempted to arouse the other children, but could not rescue them, and, with them, was also suffocated. Thus the whole family of six were burned with the building.

"THE CAMPBELLS ARE COMING!"—We have the pleasure of announcing that manager Rouse, of the theatre, has engaged the world-renowned Campbell Minstrels, and that they will appear at Brant's Hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, in connection with the great Star Combination Troupe. Mr. Rouse deserves and will receive the thanks of our amusement-loving population for his continued efforts to favor them with varied entertainments, and we have no doubt that the immense crowds which will assemble at Brant's Hall on the evenings above named, will convince Mr. R. that our people fully appreciate his labors to please. The Campbells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A sad accident occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad, between Aqueduct and Baily's Stations, about fifteen miles west of Harrisburg, on Saturday, as the mail train, which left here at noon, was going westward. At the point where the accident occurred, there is a house on one side of the railroad track, and a canal lock on the other. A little child, about eighteen months old, attempted to go from the house to the lock, and in crossing the track, it is supposed that it fell, and as it could not proceed farther, was lying there when the train arrived. There being a short curve in the road near by, the engineer did not observe the child until it was too late to stop the train in time to avoid an accident, and the little fellow was run over and injured to such an extent that it died in two hours. The child belonged to the lock-tender, whose name is Baker. The engineer did all in his power to prevent the accident.

A LARGE audience assembled at Brant's Hall, on Saturday night, to witness that magnificent play, The Carpenter of Rouen. It was presented with all its attendant scenery and thrilling effect. To night our citizens can have a peep at things as they exist in portions of Dixie. In compliance with numerous requests, the management of Rouse's Star Troupe has consented to repeat (positively for the last time) that great play known as UNCLE TOM'S CABIN, or Life Among the Lowly. Messrs. Rouse, Jennings, Crossen, Misses Fanny Denham, Nellie Sprague, Mrs. Jennings, little Allie Jennings and others, will appear in their favorite characters. This is a play that always attracts large crowds, and as this is its last repetition, there will doubtless be a great jam at the hall. In order to secure comfortable seats, our readers should go to Bannvard's and get their tickets, before going to the hall.

GREAT ATTRACTION!—Mrs. M. Mayer has opened, at No. 13 Market street, one of the largest and most attractive assortments of millinery and other goods ever brought to this city, consisting of ladies' and misses' bonnets, of the latest patterns, and finished in the finest style, with trimmings of the richest and brightest colors; also ladies' and misses' hats and head-dresses, of every kind. Mantillas and cloaks are offered in great variety, and of the best material; also hoop-skirts, hosiery, gloves, and a great assortment of other articles, which space will not allow us to enumerate. Mrs. Mayer assures us that all the articles offered are entirely new, and will be sold at low rates, for cash. The store is fitted up handsomely, and is well worth a visit from all who desire to see a large and splendid variety of ladies' and misses' millinery and other goods of the very latest styles and fashions.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before the Mayor.—The following cases have been before His Honor, since our last report:

Two notorious street walkers, or nymphs of the pavement, were arrested, and after a hearing were committed for thirty days.

Five supposed bounty jumpers, Benj. Haney, Peter Boyle, John Small, John Burk and Peter Burns, were after a hearing, handed over to the Provost Marshal.

John Hummel, a perpetual bummer, was drunk and disorderly, for which he received 48 hours imprisonment.

Samuel Wallower, a citizen of this city, endeavored to pass himself for a member of the 16th Pa. Cavalry. Being clad in citizens dress, he was supposed to be a deserter, and was arrested, and handed over to the Provost Marshal. After considerable trouble, he proved his identity and was released. It is not likely that he will attempt a similar game soon again.

George Dale, Henry Williams and William Lentz, arrested as deserters, were also handed over to the Provost Marshal.

Frederick Beermesser, a drunken and disorderly soldier, was taken to the same military authority.

At 3 o'clock this morning, a man named Marshall Patterson was arrested at the depot and escorted to the lock-up. He had a subsequent hearing, when it was discovered that he had been robbed of all his money, ($110), and a railroad ticket. The Mayor discharged him, and secured transportation for him from the city. No doubt he had been drugged by a pick-pocket.

Two men named James M. Dugan and Thomas Pye, were arrested for disorderly conduct and drunkenness. They had a hearing this morning, and were discharged upon payment of a fine and costs. Shortly afterward they committed depredations in the vicinity of the depot, and were re-arrested. They are now confined for a further hearing.

William Jones, a supposed deserter from the 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry, was arrested and handed over to the military authorities.

PROCEEDINGS OF COUNCIL.—A special meeting of the city council was held in their Chamber on Saturday evening:

The committee appointed, for the purpose of making estimates for the several expenditures to be incurred during the present year, for repairing streets, new sewers, laying of water pipe, &c., made the following report:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes: Necessary for street repairs, sewers, &c., in the First district, $4,939 62; Necessary for the Second district, 6,023 00; Necessary for the Third district, 4,890 00; Miscellaneous expenses, 800 00; Watering committee expenses, 5,000 00; Laying of additional pipe, 1,400 61; Fire committee expenses, 2,222 00; Gas committee expenses, 2,500 00.

The reports were all adopted after explanations, with a full understanding that no money can be expended until specific appropriations are made.

The select committee to whom had been referred the message of the Mayor on the subject of a re-organization of the police force, made a report recommending the appointment by the Mayor of a chief of police and lieutenant, and six day and six night policemen; and that the latter perform, also, the duties of lamp lighter and extinguisher. The police to take care of the fire plugs. Owing to the absence of Messrs. Hall and Wilt, members of the committee, the report was recommended.

The bond of Geo. W. Hoffman, market master, was presented, but owing to the omission of the date and one name, referred back to the committee, with instructions to have it perfected. Dr. Shallenberger, Geo. Trullinger and W. Foster are sureties in the sum of six thousand dollars.

Dr. Egle presented the petition from citizens of the Sixth ward, asking that the water pigg may be extended. Referred to the water committee.

Dr. Egle also presented a petition from citizens of the Fifth and Sixth wards, asking that John Wagner be elected supervisor.

Mr. Myers presented the petition of citizens of the Fifth ward, asking that G. B. Cole be elected supervisor.

Mr. Myers moved that council proceed to the election of supervisor for the third district, which was agreed to, and Wm. Willis was elected.

Geo. Hermansderfer was elected supervisor of the first district.

Joseph Burkhardt was elected supervisor of the second district.

Mr. Reese offered a resolution requesting the Mayor to make application to the court for the appointment of viewers to assess the damages to be created by the opening of Market street. Agreed to.

Messrs. Egle and Edwards presented several petitions from the tax-payers of the city, requesting council to make an appropriation of $20,000 for the purpose of erecting a suitable mansion for the Governor of the Commonwealth.

Mr. Verbeke moved that the petitions be referred to a special committee, with instructions that the committee present their report during the sitting of council this evening. The motion was agreed to, and Messrs. Verbeke, Linn and Egle were appointed the committee.

After some time, the committee reported the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, That the sum of twenty thousand dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated towards the purchase of an Executive mansion for the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and that the President of City Council is hereby requested to communicate the same forthwith to both houses of the Legislature.

The resolution being twice read, and on a call for the yeas and nays, was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Hamilton presented an ordinance providing for the purchase of an additional steam fire engine, to be located in the Fourth ward, at a cost not exceeding $3,500, which was agreed to.

MILLINERY.—Mrs. Jane Wagner, corner of Fourth and Market streets, has received and opened a splendid assortment of Spring and Summer Millinery Goods—such as Bonnets, Ladies' and Misses' Hats, etc., all of the very latest styles. The attention of the ladies is invited to the establishment of Mrs. W., where bargains may be had.

APPOINTMENT.—D. A. Kepner has this day been appointed Assistant Assessor of Division No. 2, Fourteenth Collection District, in place of William M. Caslow, resigned.

DANIEL KENDIG, Assessor 14th District.

HARRISBURG, April 16, 1864.

THE FIRST IN THE FIELD FOR THE SANITARY FAIR.—The following card from that prince of good fellows, S. S. Sanford, explains itself. It is an offer which every manager in the Commonwealth would do well in emulating. We leave it to the public to decide to what account Mr. Sanford's tender of the use of his house and his company shall be placed:

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE, Monday April 18, 1864.

Editor of the Telegraph.—After reading the Governor's appeal in behalf of the State Sanitary Fair, to be held in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh early in June, and understanding the managers of said fair solicit contributions, donations, &c., I take the early opportunity that good work may begin, having the assurance of all the gentlemen in my employ of their gratuitous services on any occasion that an appointed committee will wait upon us, who may take the matter in hand, in having a grand entertainment.

The Opera House with all its advantages and to the extent of my professional services and assistance in rendering the performance worthy of the support of all classes of our community. At the same time the House is at the disposal of the school children for any day exhibition or sacred concert on Sunday evening. You will therefore oblige me by giving information to the public of these facts, as the proposed Fair commands the attention of every lover of his country.

Respectfully, your obedient servant, SAMUEL S. SANFORD.

I'll be at charges for a looking-glass, and entertain a score or two of tailors, to study fashions to adorn my body; since I am crept in favor with myself, I will maintain it with some little cost.

The circumstances which called forth the above resolve from King Richard the Third, was not such as should emulate mankind of the present age to have a proper respect for their outward appearance. Legitimate self respect, however, and through that the obligation we owe to society enjoins, or rather causes, us to the extent of our means to have some pride in what we wear or put on. It is true, in these times of high prices, many ladies and gentlemen will wear a thread-bare dress and coat, that in days gone-by would have been given to the first needy customer that came along, as a panacea, to some extent, for the troubles necessarily growing out of the disturbed condition of our once peaceful country. We regret to see the attention of the public to the large stock of spring and summer dry goods just received from New York, at prices much in favor of the purchaser. C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets.

Mrs. Ball's Remedies.

I take this method of cheerfully thanking the public for past favors, and still solicit their kind attention to my medicines. To tell of all the wonderful cures I have been able to perform would be impossible. I would call the attention of the ladies particularly to this valuable medicine. I think I can safely say it is the very best offered to them. It will regulate the whole system, can be taken at any time; no fear need be apprehended in regard to it. I have also a valuable salve to kill prout pimples, and heal. This has been used for many years that have run 20 years. My Dysentery Drops, Infant cordial and Cough Drops have been well tried. I need say nothing in their favor. I have constantly on hand these Medicines and Salves. Mrs. L. BALL, mar16 No. 27 South Pine street, Harrisburg, Pa.
