Advertisements ordered in the regular Evening Edition are inserted in the Morning Edition without extra charge.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

ANOTHER SALE OF A FRESH LOT OF TREES.—Ensinger & Adams will sell to-morrow (Saturday) morning, at auction, at their market stand, some five hundred apple trees of the choicest varieties; five hundred peach trees of the best varieties; also, a lot of dwarf and standard fruit trees, shrubbery, &c.

A SPLENDID bill at the theatre to-night. The owner of the lost drab shawl, advertised yesterday, can hear of its whereabouts by calling at this office.

EVERYBODY is going to Mr. Rouse's benefit to-night. If you are troubled with nervousness and indigestion, take Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. Advertisement in another column. 2t

An old lady from the country had her pocket picked of about twenty dollars, yesterday, somewhere in Market street. Even the ladies are not free from the pocket-picking fraternity.

A NUMBER of large and handsome houses are to be erected here this season. Already are workmen engaged in demolishing old structures and removing their remains from the sites of the new buildings.

Who will miss the splendid treat offered at the theatre to-night? Not one who can possibly be there.

Do not fail to visit Sanford's Opera House to-night. A very laughable entertainment may be expected, including a number of new plays which will be rendered in the most mirth-provoking manner.

MEMBERS of the Legislature, State officials, and numerous prominent citizens have united in tendering Mr. Rouse a complimentary benefit. Mr. R. is in every respect worthy of this token of respect. Let everybody attend to-night.

READ the list of names of those who tendered the complimentary benefit to Mr. Rouse.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.—As some unprincipled persons are offering to the public base imitations of Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron, purchase none but the genuine article, manufactured solely by S. A. Kunkel & Bro., 118 Market street, Harrisburg. 2t

Do not forget the complimentary benefit to Mr. Rouse, at Brant's Hall, this evening. Go and see the Honeymoon and the Bonnie Fish Wife.

SOME of the farmers in certain sections are already circulating a rumor that the fruit buds have been destroyed by the unseasonable weather of this month. There may be truth in the report—but we would advise the public not to give it too much credit, at present.

CIRCUS.—The lovers of fun will have an opportunity of visiting Gardner & Hemmings' Great American Circus, at this place, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, of next week, afternoon and evening. Our citizens who witnessed the performance of this troupe last season spoke in terms of praise of it; and we are assured that the company has been increased and improved since their last visit. See advertisement.

Look out for a great jam, to-night, at the theatre.

ACCIDENT.—A painful accident occurred at Marietta on Sunday week, which resulted in a raffian, named Abraham Dehaven, from Clearfield county, losing a leg. He was in the act of "snubbing" a raft, when he became entangled in the rope, and his foot was almost pulled off at the ankle joint. Amputation of the injured limb was successfully performed. The lumbermen contributed one hundred and fifty dollars for the benefit of Dehaven, who is a worthy and industrious man.

Do not fail to see the Honeymoon, at Brant's Hall, to-night.

Fox 1—Brien's great show and Tom King's Excelsior Circus will visit our town on Tuesday and Wednesday next, and exhibit in the afternoon and evening. Among the performers are some of the best male and female equestrians, acrobats and gymnasts in the country. All the little folks, far and near, and a very large sprinkling of the big ones, will be present at the exhibition to witness the fearless riding, and to hear the jokes of the clown.

FIRE.—The substantial brick dwelling of Mr. Rudolph Martin, one mile north of New Cumberland, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. The citizens of the above named village promptly repaired to the scene, and rescued much of the furniture from the jaws of the devouring element, and saved a number of out-buildings from destruction. The fire is supposed to have originated from the sparks or rockets thrown on the roof by one of the engines attached to a through freight train going north over the Northern Central railroad, between four and five o'clock. The configuration was witnessed by a number of citizens on Front street.

THE BONNY Fish Wife will appear at Brant's Hall, to-night.

LOCAL matters are uncommonly dull. Perhaps the "Spring fever" has rendered our citizens incapable of committing any deeds worthy of a notice.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—The Market street canal bridge will be re-planked on Monday next. The public are therefore notified, that aforesaid bridge cannot be used on that day.

PERSONS writing to the 7th Pennsylvania Cavalry should direct their letters to Columbia, Tennessee, marked "Follow Regiment." The regiment left that place for the front, a few days ago.

SALES of condemned government horses will be held at various points in this State, commencing with Newport, Thursday, May 5th. Full particulars can be had by reference to our advertising columns.

ATTENTION, CITIZEN!—A special meeting of the Citizen Engine and Hose Company will be held this (Friday) evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present, as very important business will be acted on. By order of the President.

WM. J. LAWRENCE, Sec'y.

OH, HOW COLD!—Mr. George Dress will open his Ice Cream Saloon to-morrow evening. Persons desiring to indulge in a dish of first rate cream, will do well to give Mr. Dress a call. He wishes it to be understood that he will positively refuse admission to all improper characters. None but respectable persons need apply.

PROF. SAUNDERS, of Geason Seminary, will be at W. Knoche's Music store, in this city, to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, between the hours of two and four o'clock, where parties, desiring to send children to the Seminary, can see him. There are a few vacancies in both departments of the institution, which is said to possess superior advantages as a place of learning.

ANOTHER DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—The large flouring mill, saw-mill, still-house and hogpens, belonging to Mr. Zachariah Loucks, situated about one mile north of York, Pennsylvania, near the line of the Northern Central Railway, were destroyed by fire between two and three o'clock this morning. A large quantity of flour, grain, &c., was destroyed. The firemen of York turned out en masse, and by their prompt and timely assistance the house and extensive barn of Mr. Loucks were saved from destruction.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The Grand Jury concluded their labors, and were discharged yesterday. A number of persons against whom true bills had been found, were tried. John Trump, charged with burglary, was found guilty. Patrick McNeil, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, was tried. Verdict, not guilty. Annie Foster was found guilty of larceny. Henry Engle pleaded guilty to the charge of felonious assault and battery. George Potter, charged with larceny, pleaded guilty. Daniel Reigert was tried on two charges of assault and battery. Verdict, not guilty, in both cases. Zadoc M. Morgan pleaded guilty of the charge of bigamy, and submitted.

COMMENDABLE.—Mayor Rounfort, we understand, has addressed a note to the proprietors of the various places of amusement in the city, requesting them not to let tickets of admission, nor to admit free, children under twelve years of age, to witness their performances, unless accompanied by their parents.

This request we deem of sufficient importance to meet with a ready acquiescence on the part of the managers, as such license is frequently made the excuse to parents by their children for late hours, and enables them under shadow of it, to wander through the streets and associate with all sorts of company, to the destruction of their morals individually, and detrimental to the public generally.

Go to Bannvat's and secure your tickets for Rouse's benefit, early, or you will not obtain a seat.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before the Mayor.—There was but little doing at the Mayor's office during the past twenty-four hours. In fact matters were very dull there. The following are the only cases we have to report: Miles Carter, (colored), cavalryman, a supposed deserter, was handed over to the military authorities. Joseph Neetrich—upon the same charge—as deserter, expressed his determination to resign—was disposed of in the same way. N. W. Ash and F. Knecht, soldiers, the former was drunk and disorderly, the latter supposed to be absent without leave, were handed over to the Provost Marshal. Heinrich Schmidt, vagrant, upon a hearing, was discharged, with orders to leave the city.

SHOCKING DEATH.—A German, named Tony Zerlaut, was found, yesterday a. m., terribly mangled at Summit No. 1, near Freeland's Station, on the N. C. R. R. It is supposed he fell from a freight train, while asleep, no one connected with the train knowing of his presence on the bumper, as he was evidently making his way home from Baltimore gratis. He belonged to Glafelter's Station, and formerly worked on the road as a track hand. The unfortunate man was literally cut in two, his ribs, bones and heart protruding, one arm cut off, and the hand of the other arm severed at the wrist. He leaves a wife and three or four children. Zerlaut's remains were taken to York, yesterday, an inquest held, and this morning sent home to his family in a neat coffin, furnished at the expense of the N. C. R. R. company. He had only one penny in money on his person.

MR. ROUSE'S benefit takes place this evening. Secure your seats early.

GRAND COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT.—A large number of our most prominent citizens, and numerous sojourners, including members of the Legislature and others, as an evidence of their high appreciation and personal regard for W. A. Rouse, Esq., of the Star Combination Company, have tendered that gentleman a complimentary benefit. This evening has been set apart for that purpose, and a grand bill has been set apart for the occasion, consisting of Tobin's great play entitled THE HONEYMOON, and the capital farce, THE BONNIE FISHWIFE, in each of which Mr. Rouse will sustain a prominent character. This benefit is doubly merited by Mr. Rouse, inasmuch as he has proven himself to be a gentleman in every sense of the word, and sustains a private character beyond reproach, and because he has furnished a series of entertainments that have never been equalled here. Mr. Rouse is an excellent comedian, with few superiors, and has a large and efficient company, composed of ladies and gentlemen who have nobly sustained the various characters assigned them. We trust our citizens will turn out en masse this evening and witness the entertainment. Go and patronize a company that is worthy of your encouragement. Let every nook and corner of the room be filled.

GRAND complimentary benefit to Mr. Rouse, the gentlemanly manager of the theatre, to-night.

Complimentary Benefit to W. A. ROUSE, Esq.

HARRISBURG, April 28th, 1864.

W. A. ROUSE, Esq.: Dear Sir: Having had many opportunities to become acquainted with the enterprise and liberality with which you conduct your professional business, and also having witnessed the ability with which you sustain yourself as an actor, we beg to be permitted to show you our high appreciation of you as a citizen, personally and professionally, by extending to you the compliments of a benefit. You will please designate the time at which a committee of your friends can secure the benefit they think you so richly deserve. Your early reply to this is respectfully requested.

- SH Sieg, A M Penton, DB Montgomery, W H H Sieg, J D Baker, Thos A McGuire, P J Nichols, W S Phillips, S S Child, E C Horv, D S Burns, H Uhler, J G Herr, S Coyle, Josephus Shisler, Christian S Frazer, Geo W Wayman, W W Gibson, Robert A Mench, C O Zimmerman, A F Klapp, R J Foslidge, Geo W Hunter, W Chapman, Jr, C S Woodruff, H P Reynolds, T E Vogle, Oliver Edwards, D F Blessing, Geo W Crab, P K Boyd, Thos S McGowan, Bernard Campbell, Samuel Masler.

HARRISBURG, April 28, 1864.

To Hon. Wm. V. McGRATH, Hon. M. S. QUAY, Hon. A. HERRMAN, Hon. C. L. LAMBERTON and others.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor dated this a. m., tendering me a complimentary benefit and requesting me to designate the evening. It is, gentlemen, with genuine feelings of gratitude for this unsolicited consideration that I accept your kindness, and would suggest that it take place on Friday evening, April 29th.

With the most grateful remembrance of your encouragement, and the kindly feelings extended to me by so many who were, but a short time since, strangers, I remain your obedient servant, W. A. ROUSE.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE TELEGRAPH.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, April 29, 1864.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock. Mr. GLAZT (Corporations) reported, as committed, House bill No. 1001, an act to incorporate the Yellow Stone gold mining company of Montana Territory.

The resolution from the House, thanking in the name of the State, General Reynolds and Meade, was concurred in by the Senate, by a unanimous vote.

Mr. CONNELL read in place an act relating to Hamilton and Thirty-first streets, in the Twenty-fourth ward of the city of Philadelphia.

Also, a further supplement to an act to establish a Health office, &c., in Philadelphia.

The Clerk of the House informed the Senate that the House of Representatives had non-concurred in the Senate amendments to the appropriation bill, and had appointed a committee of conference.

On motion of Mr. CONNELL, the Senate insisted on its amendments.

Senate bill No. 664, to enable State banks to become National banks, passed finally—20 yeas to 12 nays.

The amendments of the House to the amendments of the Senate to the Revenue bill were considered and, on motion of Mr. CONNELL, concurred in.

House bill No. 1010, a supplement to an act to facilitate the passage of coal and coke boats in the Monongahela navigation, came up and passed finally.

The bill relative to liens of the Commonwealth on lands from which purchase money is due the Commonwealth, came up and was re-committed to the Judiciary Committee, to report (this afternoon) a bill granting clear titles to such lands in payment of the principal, less the interest.

Mr. LOWRY, chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, reported the bill to re-organize and discipline the militia, and on his motion said bill was considered and laid over. At 1 P. M. Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, April 29, 1864.

The House met at 9 o'clock. Mr. BIGHAM, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported the general appropriation bill, with a recommendation that the House non-concur in the Senate amendments, and appoint a committee of conference; and accordingly the House non-concurred, and Messrs. BIGHAM, SMITH (Philadelphia) and BARNER were appointed the committee of conference.

Mr. BIGHAM, from the same committee, reported the revenue bill; and in accordance with the recommendation of the committee, the House concurred in the Senate amendments with certain amendments. The House amendments were subsequently concurred in by the Senate.

On motion of Mr. GLASS, the House took up House bill, entitled A supplement to the act to create a loan and provide for arming the State. The bill provides for the establishment of an agency in the Southwest, to take care of sick and wounded Pennsylvania volunteers, and to send home the bodies of those who may die in the service. It also provides for the appointment of two additional clerks for the agency at Washington, so that claims of soldiers, their widows or children, may be prosecuted without charge.

The bill also provides for the preparation of a military history of the different organizations of Pennsylvania volunteers. The bill passed finally.

House bill, to provide for the instruction and training of destitute orphan children of soldiers, was, on motion of Mr. McCLELLAN, made the special order for this evening.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of a special private calendar, and the remainder of the morning session was spent in the first reading of private bills.

From Red River.

REBELS MARCHING ON GRAND ECORE.

OUR TROOPS MOVING TO MEET THEM.

Union Loss in the Late Battle.

St. Louis, April 29. The Democrat has received a special dispatch from its correspondent at Vicksburg, dated the 22d inst., which says:

The steamer Lucy has arrived here with news from the Red river. No more fighting had occurred up to the 20th, but the rebels were reported to be marching on Grand Ecore. Our troops were going out to meet them.

Our total loss in the late battles foots up 4,000.

Our army is believed to be securely entrenched at Grand Ecore, on both sides of the river.

From Memphis.

MURDER OF AN OFFICER.

Investigation of the Fort Pillow Massacre.

CAIRO, April 28. Memphis papers of the 28th contain nothing special. Cotton has advanced 1c, and there is but little doing; holders are waiting for better prices.

A reception was given to the veterans at Carbonado yesterday, preparatory to their return to the field. It was followed by a ball and dinner. During the afternoon some soldiers who had an old grudge against Col. Osborne entered a store where the colonel was sitting and struck him on the head with a weight, breaking his skull and inflicting a mortal wound. The murderers were not arrested at last accounts.

Messrs. Wade and Gooch leave for the east to-morrow morning.

The steamer Forsyth brought up four hundred bales of cotton.

MEMPHIS, April 26.—The committee on the conduct of the war are here investigating the Fort Pillow massacre. It is thought they will exonerate General Harburg, as it is generally conceded the force at his command was inadequate to deal vigorously with Forrest.

THE WAR IN THE SOUTH-WEST.

A FIGHT NEAR CHATTANOOGA.

Butchery of the Wounded.

A NOTED GUERRILLA KILLED.

A REBEL SMUGGLER TO BE EXECUTED.

Major General Washburne at Memphis.

Reported Capture of Shreveport by General Steele.

CHATTANOOGA, April 26.—On the morning of the 23d of April the rebels made an attack upon our pickets on Nickajack Trace, near Lee's farm, with both infantry and cavalry.

The cavalry came over Taylor's ridge—the cavalry came from South valley, and attacked simultaneously seven points picketed by the Fifty-second Illinois. Our men attempted to fall back, and failed. The infantry barred the way.

The men tried to cut their way out, but of sixty-four men, thirty-four, fighting bravely, escaped.

Five of our men were killed, four mortally wounded, three severely, and nineteen missing. Lieutenant Soules was wounded and taken prisoner. The rebel loss is as severe as ours, if not greater.

Several of our men were killed by the enemy after surrendering. Several of the wounded were butchered as they lay on the field.—The rebels in the whole affair were guilty of shocking barbarity.

CAIRO AND MEMPHIS.

St. Louis, April 28.—Cairo dates of the 26th, received by mail, say that the steamers Liberty and Belle of Memphis had arrived, the former with 128 bales of cotton for Evansville, and the latter with a number of river horses, mules, and wagons, belonging to the 16th Army Corps, for Cairo, and 270 bales of cotton for St. Louis.

Memphis dates of the 25th state that the steamer Oriole, from the Arkansas river, while abroad at Johnson's Island, was attacked by guerrillas, but the soldiers on board drove them off, killing the leader, Tom Henson, a notorious guerrilla and boat-burner, better known as the Wild Irishman.

Three steamers are reported lying at the junction of the White and Arkansas rivers, from which the guerrillas were receiving large supplies of clothing.

Martin Smith, formerly a conductor on the Mississippi Central Railroad, was to be executed at Memphis on the 29th. He was taken some time since in the act of smuggling five hundred thousand percussion caps and several hundred pounds of powder to the enemy, having previously taken the oath of allegiance.

arrived with 168 wounded soldiers, one-third of whom are from the late Red river battles. They are all on furlough, and on their way home.

Rebel prisoners taken at Pleasant Hill confirm the former reports that Gen. Steele has taken Shreveport.
