HARRISBURG, PA.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 30, 1864.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All Advertisements, Business Notices, Marriages, Deaths, &c., to secure insertion in the TELEGRAPH, must invariably be accompanied with the CASH. Advertisements ordered in the regular Evening Edition are inserted in the Morning Edition without extra charge.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

The General Synod of the Lutheran Church will meet in York, on Thursday next, May 5th.

The antediluvian frog recently found in the centre of a rock, at Johnstown, died a few days ago.

Rev. I. K. HATS, of Middle Spring, will preach in the Old School Presbyterian Church, to-morrow morning and evening.

Look out for pick-pockets next week, when the circuses are in town. The long-fingered gentlemen are always about on "show" days.

A boy named James Patterson, of Fairview, Cumberland county, was drowned at Wrightsville, on Thursday, by being thrown from a boat. His age was about 18 years.

Go to Sanford's opera house this evening and see the wonderful performances of the stars that nightly appear there. Do not fail to go early.

FINLEY JOHNSON, the well-known poet and sketch writer, died in Washington, on Wednesday, after an illness of but two days. Mr. Johnson was from Baltimore.

Boat newspapers are now published in Cumberland county. The word "Valley" appears in three of them. Publishers must do a stirring business in Old Mother Cumberland.

To-day the fines collected at Mayor's Office within the last four weeks, were paid over, as follows: To the county treasury.....$18 To the city treasury.....$48

YANKES ABOUT.—A large number of rascals can be seen passing through here daily, on their return from the lumber market. Many of them stop from one train to another, and make large purchases of goods, as they can be obtained at lower prices than are demanded for them "away up north."

Oh, How Cold!—Mr. George Dress will open his Ice Cream Saloon this evening. Persons desiring to indulge in a dish of first rate cream, will do well to give Mr. Dress a call. He wishes it to be understood that he will positively refuse admission to all improper characters. None but respectable persons need apply.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—There will be service in the Baptist church, corner of Second and Pine streets, on to-morrow morning at 10½ o'clock, and in the evening at 7½ o'clock. The pulpit will be occupied in the morning by the Rev. Mr. Stile, and in the evening by Rev. Mr. Robinson, of the Presbyterian church. The public are invited to attend.

MARKET.—There was a large supply of produce and a large attendance of purchasers, this morning.

A countryman with gumelastic conscience had soaked a lot of dried cherries, which were swollen to their original size, and offered them for sale. The Market master happened to see the cherries, confiscated them.

A party whose name we have not learned lost a basket of butter on account of light weight.

We would call the attention of the authorities to the fact that a number of persons continue to use the spring balances in market. It is the earnest wish of our citizens that the nuisance may be abolished, as purchasers have been swindled sufficiently by the use of these illegal instruments.

PRIVATE SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—Rudolph F. Keller sold to Colonel John Roberts a farm, situate in Susquehanna township, Dauphin county, containing 219 acres, thereon erected a two-story stone dwelling house, stone barn, &c., for the sum of $15,000, cash. Jacob Shell sold to Daniel E. Reichel two lots of ground on the Jonestown road, about three miles from this city, situate on Butler street, being lots No. 50 and 51, in a plan of lots laid out by Jacob Shell, for the sum of $400.

Valentine Hummel sold to William Metzgar a tract of land in Swatara township, Dauphin county, containing four acres and one-quarter and twenty-five perches, for the sum of $5,000.

PUBLIC SALES.—Sheriff Jennings sold the following on Thursday last:

A certain lot of ground, situated in the city of Harrisburg, fronting on the Ridge Road 20½ feet, and extending back along Cumberland street 100 feet, more or less, to an alley, thereon erected a two-story brick and frame tavern house, and frame kitchen and small frame bar-room, a good well of water and hydrant, &c., as the property of J. Martin Weaver, to John J. Crum, for $50.

All that two-story frame house, 16½ by 22 feet, situate in Lykenstown, Wisconsin township, together with the lot of ground whereon the said building is situate, fronting on North Third street, and one hundred and fifty feet in length or depth, to an alley, as the property of Ignik Szymanski, to J. Martin Bluh, for $200.

All the right, title and interest of Christian S. Funk in a certain tract of land, situated in Halifax township, containing one hundred and twenty-six acres, more or less, thereon erected two-story frame houses; also, one other frame house, two barns, also, a grist mill, with good water power, apple orchard, with good fruit, &c., as the property of Christian S. Funk, to John P. Leebick's executor for $750.

SPIRITUALISM.—Mrs. A. Wilhelm, of Philadelphia, will lecture in Exchange Hall, Sunday, May 1st, at 7½ p. m.

If you are troubled with nervousness and indigestion, take Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. Advertisement in another column. 2t

A STATED MEETING of the Good Will Fire Company will be held in their hall this (Monday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. Every member is expected to be present, as the election of officers will take place.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.—As some unprincipled persons are offering to the public base imitations of Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron, purchase none but the genuine article, manufactured solely by S. A. Kunkel & Bro., 118 Market street, Harrisburg. 2t

VIOLATION OF CITY ORDINANCE.—John Baulus was arrested for leaving his horse unattended in the square, and fined $3 and costs. This is right. Such violations of the ordinances should be punished in every instance, as life is endangered by the carelessness of persons who leave their horses unattended in the streets.

A LARGE and appreciative audience attended the "benefit" entertainment last night. The Honeymoon, and The Bonnie Fishwife were the plays for the occasion. Mr. Rouse appeared in two characters, and convinced all present that he is a comedian of superior merit, and one who has but few equals.

To-night the great thrilling life-picture of pioneer life in the West, entitled NICK OF THE WOODS, will be presented, with all the accompanying scenery, and a fine cast of characters. This is a grand play, and one of intense interest. It requires a very large and efficient company to render it properly, and all who witnessed it a few evenings ago, will readily assert that full justice was done it. My Neighbor's Wife will conclude the entertainment. We would advise everybody to go tonight, as the Combination Troupe will be absent next week.

DEATH OF MR. HOLBROOK.—James Holbrook, special agent of the Post Office Department, died on Thursday afternoon, at his residence in Brooklyn, Connecticut.

Mr. Holbrook received his appointment in 1845, for the district of New York and England; afterwards he was made "special agent at large," and continued to hold his position under all the administrations which succeeded that of Mr. Polk. Mr. Holbrook, who was a self-made man, edited the Norwich Aurora before he entered the office. In 1855 he published a sketch book entitled "Ten Years Among the Mail Bags," and for four years past has edited and published the United States Mail, a journal established by him and devoted to postal matters.

His official services were highly useful, and were appreciated by the department. In the performance of his duty, which included a general supervision over the postal service, and a protection of the mails, his health was several months ago so much injured, that the active work of his department necessarily devolved upon Mr. James Gayler, his assistant, who is now in charge.

Mr. Holbrook was very successful in the detection of mail depredators. The case of Tuckerman, a shrewd and bold operator, who traveled about five years ago on the cars between this city and Boston, stealing whole mails, is one of the notable instances of Mr. Holbrook's skill. It may be remembered that Tuckerman carried an empty trunk into which, when the attention of the agent in charge was directed elsewhere, he threw the mails, and subsequently escaped without suspicion; and that he was detected and finally sent to the State prison for twenty-one years.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
Military Business Attended To.
Bounty, Pension, Back Pay, Subsistence and Military and War Claims, generally made out and collected. Persons residing at a distance can have their business transacted by mail, by addressing

Coughs and Colds.
The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PNEUMONY, BRONCHITIS and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches" or Lozenges, the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution more serious attack may be effectually averted off. F. C. SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Bannvart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa.; to whom all orders should be addressed, sold by druggists every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.
C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat trouble, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need most effectually.
Yours truly,
T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches.
W. C. CAITTELL,
Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864.
To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,
JNO. WALKER JACKSON,
Pastor of the Loonst St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c.,
G. G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.
HARRISBURG, Feb. 23, 1864.
To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers.
A. J. HERB
