SALE OF "FORSTER'S ISLAND."-We have just learned that Mr. Harry Thomas, one of our wealthiest and most enterprising citizens, has purchased "the Island" lying in the river immediately opposite the city, for the sum of $20,000 cash, and that he intends to spend $30,000 more in the crection of a magnificent cottage, and other improvements, so as to: make it one of the most delightful summer residences in the Commonwealth. The island lately belonged to the estate of General John Forster, and has always been regarded as one of the most valuable properties in this region. Its location is most romantic and healthy, while the land which it embraces is capable of a high cultivation. Indeed, it will, afford a home fit for that prince of good fellows, Harry Thomas.

SENTENCES .- The following persons were sentenced this morning, viz:

William Gibson, convicted of felonious assault, was sentenced to three months, imprisonment and $10 fine

Ann Forster, larceny; 6 months' imprisonment and $1 fine.

Henry Engel, felonious assault and attempt to kill; 3 months' imprisonment and $10 fine.

A HARRISBURGER SERAING A HOME IN THE WEST.---We learn from the Daily Davenport (Iowa) Democrat, that our esteemed fellow. citizen, Colonel John H. Berryhill, has made some splendid purchases of real estate in that region. The Democrat thus describes the extent and value of the property:

Yesterday the papers were passed by which L. C. Dessant. Esc., stransfers to Colonel John H. Berryhill; of Harrisburg, Pennsyl-vania, his splendid farm of one hundred and forty three acres, lying on the new Hickory Grove road, three miles from the city, for the sum of ten thousand seven hundred do lars work to This is near of the new thickory cash.* This is one of the very finest towns in the county or State. The land is under fine cultivation ; is fenced in and divided into convenient lots by substant al, board, fence with cedar post. The dwelling house is new, built of the best lumber, in modern style-large and roomy with latest improvements. The barns and out-houses are on an extensive scale, and all most thoroughly built. On the place are over six hundred thrifty fruit trees, with an abundance of small fruits, grapes, etc. About the farm are set over three thousand forest trees, all thrifty and growing finely. sand forest trees, and infinity and growing intery. It is a fine purchase, and, we are informed that the Colonel his already refused twelve thousand dollars for it. This is the same gentleman who purchased the Price residence in this city for ten thousand dollars. He moves his family about the first of Angust next. Such men are really a valuable accession to our city.

And "such men" are a loss, too, to the community from which they emigrate, and hence the many friends of Colonel Berryhill in this portion of Pennsylvania will greatly regret his removal. After years of an intimate social and business intercourse with Colonel B., we are constrained to admit that we always found him faithful to his agreements and liberal in his dealings; and we feel certain that by the exercise of the same. qualities, he will not fail to make as many friends in his new as he won in his old home.
