TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A LINE of telegraph is about being established between Reading and Columbia, along the railroad.

DELEGATE ELECTION IN THE THIRD WARD.-The election in the Third ward will be held at the public house of Jacob D. Hoffman, in Walnut street, on Saturday evening next.

RAIN. - Within the past twenty-four hours we have had several showers of rain, which, no doubt, were gratefully received by the farmers, as vegetation will now shoot forth with renewed vigor.

A RARE CHANCE.—The well selected stock of J. Kahnweiler's dry goods store, corner o Second and Walnut streets, is now offered for sale to any person wishing the entire stock .-It will be sold on the most reasonable terms. $\mathrm{my}\,11$ – $2\mathrm{t}^*$

SICK AND WOUNDED PENNSYLVANIA VOLUN-TEERS.—Information respecting Pennsylvania soldiers in the hospitals of Philadelphia, may always be had by application to Jos. Parker, Chief of the Hospital Commission, at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, No. 1011 Chestnut street.

THE Harrisburg branch of the Christian Commission urgently call for contributions, in view of the fearful destruction of the past few days, in the Army of the Potomac. Let not our wounded heroes be forgotten.

Contributions may be sent to R. A. Lamberton, treasurer.

THERE is a fine programme for to-night's entertainment at Hitchcock's National Hall. The new company attracts large audiences, and the plays, songs, dances, &c., are presented in fine style. Mr. Hall, the stage manager, has an eye to pleasing the public, and thus far has succeeded admirably. Go to the National, and drive the blues away.

LET THERE BE LIGHT. -A number of persons who are compelled to go home via Third street, late at night, have requested us to call the attention of the city authorities to the fact that there are no lamps along the above street, between Walnut and North. Measures should be taken at once to accommodate those of our citizens who frequent that portion of the town.

DISTRESSING ACCIDET. -On Monday last, as a boy, aged nine years, son of Henry Shearer, of Orrstown, was returning from mill with a two-horse wagon, the horses became frightened, and the boy was thrown in front of the wagon, the wheels of which passed over him, breaking both arms, and injuring him internally to such a degree that he died on Monday.

worthy of note, the war news absorbing the attention of our citizens generally. Conse-THERE is scarcely anything occurring here quently it is exceedingly difficult to present, in this department of our paper, the usual variety of local news, and we give up as much space as possible to the reports from the seat

SANFORD'S TROUPE. - If good singing is attractive then you can find it at Sanford's Opera House. The first part of the performance introduces ten male and female performers, giving the best vocal music that has ever been presented by any minstrel troups that has visited this city-after which an olio of songs, dances, &c.; also the Exempts, by three ladies and three gentlemen-concluding with Sanford's Bone Squash. As Mr. S. is proprietor. of this opera and the only man who performs of our eminent clergymen:

A Box of such articles as wounded soldiers require, is about to be made up here by the Ladies' Union Relief Association. Presuming that all members will desire to contribute, they can do so by sending such articles as will carry safely, to the house of John H. Briggs, Esq., so that they may be packed tomorrow. At this season it is well known that nobody has a large supply on hand, but one cup of jelly or one can of tomatoes or pickles from each person, or some dried rusk, sugar, lemons, tamarinds, &c., will soon fill a box. Let us do what we can. M. S. BEATTY, Pres't U. R. A.

Harrisburg, May 12th, 1864.

HIGH APPRECIATION OF A WOUNDED SOLDIER BY THE COMMANDANT AT THIS POST.-We were called on this morning by a highly intelligent young man, who had lost an arm in the struggle to crush the slaveholders' rebellion. It seems that he had been induced to leave a temporary situation in Philadelphia, and was encouraged to come to Harrisburg, with the intimation that he could get employment in the office of Colonel Bomford. He accordingly made application to that officer for a clerkship, his papers recommending him being of the best ever put on file for a similar purpose; but his application was rejected, and a civilian appointed in his stead, who had never seen a day's service in the army. We make this statement entirely on the representation of the soldier thus shabbily treated. The whole transaction is very Bomfordish, and is another fact added to the already accumulated evidence in favor of a change of commanders at this post. The wounded men of the army are entitled to all places in the military service, of a clerical character. They should be preferred, at least, when making application for such places, to civilian appli-

THE LADIES OF HARRISBURG would do well to call and examine the fresh supply of Millinery and Straw goods just received by Mrs. J. Hibbs', No. 8 Market Square, next door to Felix's confectionery. They are of the latest styles and best quality, and will be sold at low d3t

The only topic of conversation in our city is the great struggle now progressing in Virginia. Our office is continually besieged by crowds of individuals in search of news. The extras issued are greedily "gobbled" up, and hurriedly perused. Even the midnight hour witnesses the inquiry, "What is the latest?" Phose who have friends in the gallant army of the Union are doubly anxious to hear the news, and sleepless nights are passed in anxiety in regard to those brave men who are facing the death-dealing missiles of the enemy. When the list of the slain is made public, thousands of wives and children, who are now in suspense, will mourn the loss of husbands and fathers, who have fallen in the field of battle. The instigators of this wicked rebellion will have to atone for the murder of the loyal hosts whose lives have been and will be lost, and the wails of countless widows and orphans will cry for vengeance! There is a terrible end in store for the rebels in the North as well as the South.

A FIGHTING REPORTER.—The Philadelphia North American, of yesterday, contained the following concerning one of its reporters:

A former attache of the North American, Mr. John E. Norcross, was drafted in the first Congressional district. He jammed the points of his steel pen into his table, threw his inkstand at a cat upon the shed, and instantly reported himself for duty. He was the first white conscript in the district to do so. As a member of Col. Thomas' regiment, he had twice gone to the frontier. He read of the last invasion while in Paris. He packed up his wardrobe, consisting of a pair of drawers and three dickeys, and returned by the first steamer to Philadelphia. He joined his regi-ment at Carlisle. He did his duty as adjutant's clerk in the camp for drafted men, and is now appointed a lieutenant in the 25th U. S. colored troops. He will leave to-morrow

BONNETS.—The May magazines give the following descriptions of Spring bonnets.-Upon reading them we suppose the ladies understand what they mean-we don't. We can answer for it that they are all beautiful—when filled out with a pretty face:

1. Bonnet of drawn-cuir-colored crepe, trimmed in front with a fanchon of white lace, loops of green ribbon, and Scotch feathers. The inside trimming is of bright flowers, of Scotch colors. The cape is covered with a fall of white blond.

2. Spring hat of white straw, trimmed with green and blue velvet, and one green and blue plume. The brim is lined with green velvet.

3. Violet crepe bonnet, trimmed on the front with a black lace insertion. The cape is covered by a rich white blonde, headed by a black lace. On the top of the bonnet is a light violet feather, and a pompon of spun glass. The inside trimming is of black and white lace, mixed with scarlet berries and fancy grasses. A black lace barb is tied in with the violet strings.

4. This bonnet has a front of drawn green silk. The graceful soft crown is of white silk. The trimming consists of a tuft of meadow grass and field flowers; also loops of white silk placed directly over the crown. The inside trimming is of white and black lace and field flowers.

5. Spring bonnet of white crepe, trimmed with a fanchon of bright plaid velvet and chenille tassels. The cape is of velvet, ornamented by chenille cord and tassels. A long white plume curls over the front of the bon-

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864. To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., JNO. WALKER JACKSON. Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNYABT—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESTRAW, Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESIAAU, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, \ Harrisburg, Feb. 29, 1864. To C. A. Bannvart—Dear Sir:—I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers.

They render the Gums hard and healthy; neutralize the acid secretions of the mouth, (thereby removing the prime cause of decay.) By their detersive properties they preserve the natural color of the Teeth, without in the least degree injuring the enamel, while they impart to the breath a fragrance peculiarly aromatic and pleasant.—In fact they are THE BEST ARTICLES in use for the purposes named, as a fair trial will fully demonstrate, and as has been abundantly proved by their extensive sale in this community during the last 14 years; and which will be readily testified to by many who have repeatedly urged the Proprietor to still further extend their sale and usefulness.
