THE One Hundred and Eighty-Seventh Pennsylvania regiment has been organized, and numbers over eleven hundred able-bodied men, nearly all of whom have been in service from six to nine months. This regiment will do effective service.

Sanford's bill for this evening is rich. It is composed of the essence of negroism, and will prove a remedy for the ills to which humanity is subject. If you desire to enjoy a hearty laugh, go to the Opera House, where you will see the greatest variety ever given by . a company of minstrels.

SURGEON JAMES H. DOBBINS, of Bellefonte, Pa., a member of the Board of Enrollment of the Centre District, was in town this morning. He is en route for the hospitals in Washington city, for the purpose of ministering to the sick and wounded soldiers, citizens of his district. The profession has few abler physicians, and the service no more indefatigable Surgeon than James H. Dobbins.

Last evening the Provost Marshal of this post took possession of the Inland Telegraph office in this city, and placed the operators under arrest. A guard was placed in charge of the office, which still remains closed. We learn that the offices along the entire line of the Inland Company were seized by the military authorities. It is supposed that this course was adopted for the purpose of discovering whether the bogus proclamation published in the New York papers of yesterday, had passed over the line.

REV. J. WALKER JACKSON AT DICKINSON COLLEGE. - We understand that one of the societies composed of the students of Dickinson College, has invited the Rev. J. Walke Jackson, of this city, to deliver an address at the commencement of that college. We are not advised as to the subject upon which our Reverend friend will discourse, but we can assure our friends of the Dickinson, that he will make their lecture room resound with an cloquence never excelled within those classic precincts. The commencement will take place on the 29th of June ensuing.

THE NINETY-THIRD REGIMENT. - We learn that the Ninety-third Pennsylvania regiment lost heavily in the late battles in Virginia having had forty men killed, and two hundred and twenty-five wounded. There are a large number of Dauphin county men in the 93d, and their friends will be in suspense until the list of killed and wounded is published. One company belonged to Middletown and vicinity, and was commanded by Capt. Boynton. This company had a large number wounded. We have not learned the names of any, of the men who were lost or wounded in the engage-

ABREST OF TELEGRAPHERS. —Yesterday afternoon, Col. Ingraham's detectives arrested eleven telegraph operators at the principal and branch offices of the Independent Company, in Washington, and committed them to the Old Capitol Prison. The offices are guarded by the Veteran Reserve Corps, and the papers taken possession of by the military authorities. The cause of these arrests is the fur- To give to the contour an elegant and finished nishing of contraband news from time to time, and especially the transmission to New York of the bogus proclamation, purporting to have been issued by the President, calling for four hundred thousand more men, which was published by the New York World yest arday morning.

TAY REPRESENTATION IN THE M. E. CHURCH. -A convention of Lay Delegates of the M. E. Church in favor of lay representation, assembled in Philadelphia, on Tuesday. Delegates were present from all parts of the United States. Hon. J. A. Wright, of Indiana, was chosen temporary chairman, and. after the appointment of committees on credentials, &c., the Convention adjourned until 8 o'clock, P. M. At the evening session a permanent organization was made, by the election of Thomas Kneil, of Mass., as president. Among the Vice Presidents chosen are ex-Gov. Wright, of Indiana, Gov. Cannon, of Delaware, Senator Willey, of West Virginia; and other well-known gentlemen. Six secretaries were also appointed. The object of the Convention is to have the Laity placed upon the same footing as the Clergy in the govern ment of the Church, and several addresses; favorable to the proposition were made.

THE sale of condemned government horses at Altoona, last Thursday and Friday, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, was largely attended, and the bidding, for some of the better class of frames, was quite spirited. The whole lot (some 250) was disposed of, at prices ranging from $1 up

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.—In the columns of this paper will be found a proclamation by Governor Curtin, calling upon the militia of Pennsylvania to organize into companies at once, and prepare themselves to answer any call that may be made by the Government for their services. It would be well for the people of the State to give the matter the attention it deserves. Organization and practice will add greatly to the efficiency in the event of their services being needed by the

The troupe will no doubt sustain the various characters in a manner that will add greatly to the in teres of the piece, which possesses more than ordinary merit. Go to Bannvart's and secure

POLICE AFFAIRS Before the Mayor. - Owing to a pressure of other matter we have been unable to publish our usual police reports for several days.

Yesterday morning, Ann Neefer, Elizabeth Croft, e and uo give bouts and Elizabeth Reifsnyder, all nymphs, were sent to Fort Simmons, where they will doubtless remain thirty days. A number of soldiers, arrested for riot at a bawdy house, were handed over to the military authorities. Annie Reed, another prostitute, gave bail to appear at court.

Last night, Barney Campbell, chief of police, arrested Peter Stroop, of the 16th Regulars, and William M'Mullen, of the 148th Penna. Vols., on a charge of picking the pocket of another soldier, named Wm: Powers, at a house in Meadow Lane. When the arrest was being made the accused threw away the pocket book, but it was found, together with some $46 in money. Powers states that about $60 were stolen. Stroop and M'Mullen were committed to prison for trial at next

THE PARIS FASHIONS .- "It is a little singular that the only articles imported from France which have not risen in proportion to the rise in gold, or the depreciation of paper money, are cloaks, mantillas and bonnets. These in dispensable articles of ladies' wear, although made of finer and more costly material than ever, cost but a trifle more than they did three years ago, so that there is no excuse on the score of economy for any lady to wear an unfashionable bonnet, or a worn-out sack or mantilla."-Ladies' Gazette of Fashion.

In Paris lives the devil, the Frenchmen say, He originates all fashions in the twinkling of an eye, And puts up bonnets to a fabulous "high." But this is one of the ills that husbands must bear, In pity for those who have "nothing to wear." But, reader, let me ask you, good lack, Do you fancy an ancient bonnet or sack? Can you complacently look upon Fashion's outraged laws,

Without any just or unreasonable cause? Or can you abide anything of slatternly wear By those who have plenty, and money to spare?

> Important Letter from Gov. Curtin Enlarging its Duties:

The Interests of the Soldiers in the Field to be Cared For at the Expense of the

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,

HARRISBURG, May 18, 1864.

Colonel:—Having commissioned you as colonel, and Major Gillaland as lieutenantcolonel, I beg leave to call your attention to the first section of the act of 4th of May, 1864, efficient the military agency at Washington: That the agency heretofore established at Washington by the Governor be enlarged so that the agent and assistant agent shall have the rank, pay and allowances of colonel and lieutenant-colonel respectively, to be paid by the Adjutant-General, and that the duties of the said agency be enlarged so as to include the collection of pay, pensions and bounties due to Pennsylvania volunteers, without charge or expense to such volunteers—and such other duties as the Governor may from time to time direct."

In thus reorganizing and enlarging the powers of the agency heretofore established by me, the Legislature intended that all the pay, bounties, pensions and gratuities of the government should be collected for the Pennsyl vania volunteer or his family, without charge or expense to him or them. You will immediately prepare the agency for the performance of these additional duties, and on you requisition, the necessary blanks and books will be provided by the Quartermaster General of the State. As heretofore, Dr. J. A. Phillips, Assistant Surgeon General of the State, will remain on duty at the city of Washington, and you will continue so far as possi ble to provide in every way for the comfort and efficiency of our volunteers, the care of the sick and the wounded, for sending home the bodies of those who may die in the service, and to perform all other services that in your judgment may be proper and necessary for the benefit of the citizens of Pennsylvania now in the military service of the Govern-

The act of Assembly to which I have referred authorizes me to appoint two clerks when deemed necessary to be employed in the agency. Of such necessity you must be the judge, and I will appoint clerks on your nomination.

The success of the important work thus entrusted you will depend mainly upon yourself, and I feel assured that you will conduct it in such a manner as will give satisfaction to the people of the State, and fulfill all the expectations of the Legislature in the passage of this most benevolent act.

Very respectfully,
Your ob't serv't,
A. G. CURTIN. Colonel Francis Jordan, Agent Pennsylvania, Washington, D. C.

GRAND LODGE OF PENNSYLVANIA-Annual Session.—The annual session of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania commenced on Tuesday morning, in Philadelphia. New members were admitted, reports read and the following declared elected officers for the ensuing year: M W G Master, Wm H Trinick, of No 52, Philadelphia; R W D G Master, John M Crosland, of No 53, Pottsville; R W G Warden, George Fling, of No. 10, Germantown; R W G Secretary, Wm Curtis, of No 28, Philadelphia; R W G Treasurer, M Richards Muckle, of No 46, Philadelphia; R W G Representative, R A Lamberton, of No 160, Har-

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used

Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.
Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864 To C. A. Bannvart—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, have found the need of some gentle expecto rant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the dresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSON.
Pastor of the Leoust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: Having use your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.
