mmediately cured, and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty haid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apit to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadul consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling little improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged the playical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous infritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, sough, consumption, decay and death.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbited the seeds of this painful disease, too often happens that an illtimed sense of shame or the dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who from education and respectability, can alone betrend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment, or, by the use of the deadly poison, Mercury, nation to constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, each as affections of the hiead, Throat, Nose, Skin, etc., progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered security from whence no traveler returns. and of discovery deters him from applying to those w

INDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important surgical speration performed by Dr. Johnson, witnessed by the reporters of the Swa, Chipper, and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.
