TOWN AND COUNTRY.

FOUND !--- This morning, on Market street, a considerable sum of money, which the owner can have by proving property and paying charges for advertising, D. D. DOMER. mv21-3t*

FOUND, this morning, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, a small Diary, containing valuable papers. The owner can have the same by proving property, paying charges, and calling my21-1tat THIS OFFICE.

THE Union Prayer Meeting will be held this (Saturday) evening, in the German Reformed Church, at a quarter of 8 o'clock.

THE powder mill of Reuben Kline, near Treverton, was blown up last week. Happily no one was about the mill at the time of the accident.

RETURNED TO DUTY .- Mr. F. P. Hill is a his post and is running his old train on the Central Railroad of New Jersey, having made his first trip on Wednesday morning.

It will be seen by reference to our telegraphic news, that the author of the bogus Proclamation has been arrested and confessed the crime. As we predicted, the whole affair originated in New York, and was gotten up for speculation in gold and stocks.

WOUNDED .--- We learn that Mr. Adam Fisher, a member of the late Capt. Waterbury's company, (55th Pa. Reg.,) and whose parents reside in Paxton street, this city, was wounded in Gen. Butler's recent engagement, by a bullet passing through one of his arms. Mr. F. is now at Point Lookout.

WE would remind our readers that the picnic of the Eintracht Singing Association will take place on Monday, in Haehnlen's Woods. A band of music will be in attendance, and a gay time is anticipated. Omnibuses will run from Koenig's building, in Chestnut street, to convey persons to the grove. The price of twenty-five cents.

BE CAUTIOUS, LADIES.-The leading papers throughout the country teem with advertisements from soldiers and naval officers who desire to open correspondence with young ladies, "with the view to matrimony." We would caution the ladies against corresponding with strangers. Much evil has already resulted from such correspondence, in numerous instances causing the ruin of thoughtless misses, as many a brothel can testify.

CIRCUS .-- We see by flaming posters stuck up against the stables and fences, that a circus will soon visit this place. At this period, if not at all other times, these entertainments ought to be regarded as nuisances. When thousands of our wounded soldiers demand our charity and attention, and every spardollar should be devoted to aiding the efforts of the Sanitary and Christian Commissions, it is positively criminal to waste money on these traveling mountebanks. WOOLLEN MILL DESTROYED. --- Yesterday morning, at five o'clock, as Mr. Brumbach went to open his woollen mill, situated about three miles from Reading, he discovered that it was' on fire. The fire, it seems, was small at the fined, and discharged. time, and in attempting to put it out he was severely burned. As soon as the air got to the fire it blazed up, and soon the building was all in a blaze. The entire mill, with all its out houses, was burnt, involving a loss of hetween $55,000 and $60,000, on which there was but little insurance. The fire originated from the boilers. PRESENTATION OF A TESTIMONIAL TO CAPT. JOHN KAY CLEMENT.-We alluded yesterday to a magnificent testimonial of a service of silver, gotten up for presentation to the Provost Marshal of the Fourteenth District. Last evening the ceremony took place in the spacious dining-room of the Jones House. The presentation speech was made by Colonel A. J. Herr, in his usual felicitous and eloquent style, and responded to by Capt. Clement in a manner at once appropriate to the occasion, and to his friends, the donors. After the speeches, the company present sat down to a sumptuous collation, during the enjoyment of which many good things were uttered in their appearance at Court. mutual compliment of those present.

POTATOES .-- A fine lot just received and for ale by John Wallower, at Reading railroad lepot. my19-3t* depot. THE warm weather of the past two or three lays has dried up the mud on the streets, and the sprinkler was around, yesterday. The grass and grain are growing rapidly, in the country, and there is every evidence of an abundant harvest.

MAN AND WIFE POISONED. - A few days ago John Gibboney and his wife, residents of Hendricksburg, Luzerne county, were both poisoned, by taking strychnine in mistake for quinine. They lived but a few hours after swallowing the fatal drug, leaving five little children, the eldest only ten years, and the youngest a babe of ten months.

VALUABLE PROPERTY.-We direct attention to the valuable piece of ground offered for sale by John H. Berryhill, Esq. It is located immediately above the city limits, with a fine front on the river Susquehanna, and suited for a fine country residence, An enterprising individual would make a small fortune by purchasing the whole and then dividing it into building lots.

MARKET. The "Dutch Fair" was attended by a great crowd this morning. There was a full supply of all seasonable produce, which commanded high rates at the opening of market, but by six o'clock prices had "dwindled" considerably. Butter for which 45 to 50 cents was asked at  $4\frac{1}{2}$  o'clock, was sold at 25, an hour later. There was an abundant supply of fresh fish, at moderate figures. Large quantities of vegetables, greens, &c., were offered at reduced prices.

DEAD BODY FOUND .- On the 12th inst., the body of a man was found among some drift wood, on the shore of North Branch of the Susquehanna, about five miles above Sunbury. The man , was well dressed, about six feet high, black hair, and heavy black whiskers. Among the articles found on his person, were bills dated "Lackawaxon, Dec. 25th, Samuel Foster bought of J. M. Williams, &c.; Lackawaxon, Dec. 27th, Samuel Foster bought of J. M. Williams, &c." He was dressed in dark tickets has been fixed at the small sum of cassimere pants, with satinett everalls, satinett vest, black satinett coat, woolen shirt and check shirt with black buttons.

CREDIT.-The local column of a newspaper from "time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary," has been regarded as a kind of credit mobelier upon which local editors may draw at sight, so long as they confine themselves to accidents by fire, flood and field, or the moloch of steam, but we beg to remind our sprightly neighbors of the Lancaster Evening Express, and ye local of the Elmira Press, that it is unprofessional to take from the local columns of the Ielegraph an article on the "rain and its cause," and make an editorial of it, without giving us a shade of credit. If such things are to be done with mere casual sojourners, are generally few, and impunity, there is little use in elaborating ideas. We can stand anything ordinary, but

Look to Your Interest ! Economy being the order of the day. we advise all who need HATS, CAPS or STRAW Goods, to purchase at Zollinger's old established stand, No. 13 Market Square, opposite Harrisburg Bank, as everybody admits (who examines) that they have the Largest, Latest and Best stock of goods in their line, at the lowest prices in the city. Attention, Militia of 1862!

The Susquehanna Mounted Rangers will meet for pay, at J. D. Hoffman's Franklin House, in Harrisburg, on Thursday, May 26, at 9 o'clock, A. M., when a prompt attendance of all the members is required.

H. W. HOFFMAN, Late Capt. Commanding. my21-3td

THE Carlisle militia of 1862, were paid off on Thursday last, by Paymaster Stryker.

ELDER BUSH.-One of our exchange news papers says insects never touch the elder bush. The leaves of the elder, scattered over cucumbers, cabbages, squashes and other plants subject to the ravages of insects effectually shield them. The plum and other fruits may be saved by placing on the branches and through them, bunches of elder leaves. It is said that ants will not come about where elder leaves are scattered. This is easily tried, and if successful, is of great, importance.

THE SANITARY COMMISSION is occasionally opposed on the ground that it is not able to afford that Christian relief to the soldier so essential to the man who is in momentary danger of being hurried before the judgment seat of God. To show that this charge is unsustained by facts, and that the contrary is the truth, we make the following extract from a letter describing the departure of Sanitary Commission boats from Washington city :

Two Sanitary Commission boats have just left here, one loaded with horses and wagons for the field, the other with good Samaritans, that is relief agents for the field, about 70 in number. Among them are Dr. Douglass, Chief Inspector; Dr. Steiner, Chief of Relief Corps; Mr. Fay, Mayor of Chelsea; Mrs. Husbands and Miss Gibson. They go with abundance of supplies to Aquia Creek, where they expect to go across the country to Fredericksburg. This auxiliary relief corps is largely com-posed of clergymen, and of theological stu-dents from Princeton, and the two theological seminaries at New York, who have volunteered their services for the emergency. The supplies sent by these four boats are in addition to that now in the field with the army, which are largely beyond precedent. The public may rest assured that nothing for the relief of the wounded which large means, perfect or-ganization and untiring energy can secure, will be neglected by the commission.

R. M. LEWIS, General Superintendent.

THE editor of the Lewisburg Chronicle, who has had a fair opportunity to become acquainted with the citizens of Harrisburg, and is competent to judge in the matter, closes a letter to his paper in the following language: And this evening I complete my duties for the session, and closed another winter in Har-risburg, "The Hill" is, now clothed in its gayest hues, and affords delightful walks for the officials and the citizens. With the break-ing up of the Legislature, however, the depar-ture of nearly all connected therewilk aloop ture of nearly all connected therewith close the benefits of the associations formed during the season, and I feel somewhat lonely—anx-ions for "home." The residents known to the some of them not the most desirable. Persons oft judge harshly of Harrisburg because they happen to come in contact with so many of her vilest, most repulsive, exorbitant, unprincipled men and women. But outside of that class (who, the citizens say, subsist principally upon the necessities, follies and vices of the Legislators and their visitors,) are as large a class of as refined and virtuous people as in any other places of its size. If these are slow to make the acquaint ance of utter strangers who only come for a few weeks at a time, it is because too many of the latter, in times past, have proved to be unworthy of the best society and of social confidence and attention. My observation is that there is an improvement in the mora standing of men sent to Harrisburg by the people of the State—but thoughtful, reputable, private citizens cannot know how to discriminate at once, and thus they become necess rily somewhat cantious of extending extra civilities. It has always been my good lot to find a few of the excellent of the earth, whose ind a lew of the excellent of the earth, whose attentions I have enjoyed, whose confidence. I have shared, and in whose welfare I have a sincere interest. Some are young, others more aged; some are old friends, others new; but, somehow, the human heart has a won derful faculty for enlarging her treasure corner of cherished memories, even though the hands be not filled with means to carry out all good wishes, and there be not power or op<sub>7</sub>. portunity always to put in words what the mind feels. "Time but the impression deeper makes, As streams their channels deeper wear. So, farewell to all dear ones in private life-all honored ones in public! May we soon meet again, in health, with family ties unbroken, and with our country's Flag, waving in Peace o'er our Father's Heritage, and not a Rebel arm upraised against the Country's Life and the World's Hope.

GRANULAB DENTIFRICE! GRANULAB DENTIFRICE! AMERICAN TOOTH WASH! THESE elegant proparations combine the most desirable cleansing and astringent qualities. They ronder the Gums hard and healthy : neutralize the acid secretions of the mouth, (thereby removing the prime cause of decay.) By their detersive properties they preserve the natural color of the Teeth, without in the least degree injuring the ename!, while they impart to the breath a fragrance peculiarly aromatic and pleasant.— In fact they are THE BEST ARTICLES in use for the pur-poses named, as a fair trial will fully demonstrate, and as has been abundantly proved by their extensive sale in this community during the last 14 years; and which will be readily testified to by many who have repeatedly urged the Proprietor to still further extend their sale and usefulness. They are warranted to be free from those destructive acids which so frequently contaminate many of the preparations of the present day. Prepared and sold at the Denial Rooms of the Proprietor; corner of Second and Walnut streets. JOHN P. KELLER, . For sale also by the principal Druggists of the city.
