TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A LESSON TO HUSBANDS, at Brant's Hall to-night. Several important notices to the militia of 1863, appear in our columns. "Step up to the Captain's office, and get your pay."

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM, by the entire troupe, at Brant's Hall to-night.

The rain of last night did not materially interfere with the attendance of country people at market this morning. Prices had a downward tendency.

ALLEGORY OF WASHINGTON, at Brant's Hall to-night.

HAIL STORM AND RAIN.—Last evening we had several very heavy rain showers, one of which was accompanied by hail. Thunder and lightning continued to terrify many citizens, during the greater portion of the night.

DRAKE'S ADDRESS TO THE AMERICAN FLAG. Patriots, hear it! Brant's Hall to-night.

FIKE.—The alarm of fire, this morning, was caused by the partial burning of a back-building belonging to the house occupied by Fanny Gish, back of the capitol. The firemen were prompt in extinguishing the flames. The loss is but slight.

ELDER H. L. SOULE, of Shippensburg, Pa., will deliver an address in the Wormleysburg Bethel, near Bridgeport, on Thursday evening, the 26th inst., at the close of which an opportunity will be given to those present to contribute to the cause of the Sanitary Commission. Those who wish to hear an able effort should not fail to be present.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The house of David Miller, in North street, near the Eagle Works, was struck by lightning last evening. The chimney was considerably shattered, and a brick struck a little girl on the head, but did not seriously injure her.

A locust tree on a vacant lot in North street, was also struck.

FEARFUL LIGHTNING.—Last evening the lightning struck near the house of Mr. G. Boon, in Tanner's Alley, passed into the building, where the family were eating supper, passed over the table, tore a net from the head of a little girl and destroyed it—all without injuring any of the family, except slightly stunning two of the children. Their escapes seem almost miraculous.

THE SOLDIER'S RETURN, an allegory of Washington, at Brant's Hall to-night.

THE DRAFT, ON MONDAY NEXT.—The Provost Marshal gives notice that the draft, to fill the quotas of the various sub-districts in the 14th Congressional District, under the late calls for 700,000 men, will commence on Monday next, May 30th, in front of the Court House, in this city. Look out for prize tickets, ye citizens of sub-districts whose quotas have not been filled!

SANFORD'S troupe will give an excellent entertainment at the Opera House, this evening. Don't fail to attend. To-morrow evening Wyman, the Wizard, will appear.

After this evening the Sanford troupe will be absent until Monday evening next, when they will re-appear at the Opera House. On Thursday and Friday evening they will be in Columbia, and on Saturday evening at Lancaster. The people of those places have a rare treat in store for them.

S. C. DUBOIS, the popular manager, will take a benefit at Brant's Hall to-night. Go early and secure seats.

ANOTHER ARRIVAL—Shall They Come?—There has been another arrival at the establishment of Mrs. M. Mayer, No. 13 Market-st., where can now be seen the most beautiful assortment of Millinery Goods ever exhibited in this city.

The new stock consists of an immense variety of Straw, Silk, Chip and other Bonnets and Hats, Flowers, Trimmings, &c., for ladies and misses, all of the very latest styles, and directly imported—thus enabling customers to procure the latest patterns in advance of other establishments. The special attention of the ladies is invited to this new and magnificent stock of goods, as they cannot be surpassed, either in quality or quantity, and will be sold at prices that defy competition. Remember the place, No. 13 Market street, between Second and Front.

RARE ATTRACTION—Last Night of Dubois' Grand Company.—This evening being the last appearance of Dubois' fine troupe in this city, a complimentary benefit has been tendered the gentlemanly manager, who has used every exertion to please our citizens, by presenting some of the very best plays ever produced here. The bill for this occasion consists of the beautiful drama entitled The Soldier's Return, and the amusing piece, A Lesson to Husbands. The National Anthem will also be sung by the entire company, and Drake's Address to the American Flag will be spoken by Mr. Dubois. We hope to see Brant's Hall crowded this evening, as Mr. Dubois is worthy of a substantial benefit. Let all who desire to see fine acting, and splendid pieces go to Brant's Hall this evening. It is positively the last night of the season, and our citizens may never have another opportunity to witness the plays selected for the occasion, or the address to our good old flag.

W. A. ROUSE, Esq., was in town yesterday and paid us a visit. His troupe is now performing at Williamsport, to large and fashionable audiences. He will return here shortly with his troupe.

WANTED—A journeyman coach-maker. One who is accustomed to working on bodies preferred. Apply to R. J. FLEMING, my20-dlw Third street.

POSITIVELY SELLING OFF AT COST TO CHANGE BUSINESS.—The subscriber now offers at retail his entire stock of staple Dry Goods and Fancy articles at cost, consisting of Muslins, all kinds of Dress Goods, Flannels, Calicoes, Shawls, Cloaks, Silk Mantles, Sun Umbrellas, Parasols, and Gents' Furnishing Goods, together with a large lot of Hoisery, Gloves, &c. Dealers will do well to call before purchasing elsewhere. J. KAHNWEILER, Corner of 2d and Walnut streets.

N. B. To any person wishing the entire stock, together with the stand, extra inducements will be offered. my23-3t

SUPREME COURT—Middle District—May 25, 1864.—Court convened at 9 o'clock. Present, Woodward, Chief Justice; Justices Thompson, Strong, Read and Agnew. Bell, Johnston, Jack & Co. vs. Wilson.—Centre. Argued. Calvin and Hoy for plaintiff in error; Hale and M'Allister for defendant in error.

Henry vs. Brothers. Millin. Argued. Reed for plaintiff in error; Elder and Woods for defendant in error. Welke vs. Auerdt. Blair. Submitted. Miller's appeal. Huntingdon. Argued.—Wilson for appellant; Speer for appellees. Judgment of non. pros.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania vs. Capp. Clinton. Argued. Orvis for plaintiff in error; Mayer for defendant in error. Duffy et al. vs. Presbyterian Church of Bellefonte. Centre. Argued. M'Manus for plaintiff in error; Blanchard for defendant in error.

Adjoined till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before the Mayor.—A number of persons were before His Honor since our report yesterday.

Several persons, for violating the city ordinances, by throwing off into the alleys, were fined. James Collins, for keeping a filthy hog-pen within the city limits, had to pay a fine of $5 and costs.

Jacob Lehr was fined $3 and costs for using spring scales in market. A. Wolf and E. Shuman, for hitching their horses in the Market Square, were fined.

[We are pleased to notice, that the Mayor is determined to prevent the violation of the city ordinances—especially that relating to the throwing of off into the streets and alleys. Hot weather is at hand, and unless proper care is taken to prevent the deposit of filth in the city, sickness must ensue.]

Julia Wilson, drunk and disorderly, was sent to prison for 48 hours. Julia had a muss with the police who arrested her, and pitched into them in a manner that was calculated to put to flight anybody but a city "star."

Thomas Hopkins, drunk and disorderly, also went to jail for 48 hours. Thomas Keeshan, J. J. Dolan, Jas. Hedge and Ralph Eastwood, drunks and disorderly, were handed over to the Provost Marshal. Eastwood was also charged with destruction.

John B. Menz and Isaac Sell, charged with conspiracy to defraud Capt. Reichenbach, were committed for a further hearing.

A CHARNEL HOUSE UN-URNED.—The Philadelphia North American gives the following: One of the ghastliest sights that the eye could behold is to be seen in Carpenter street, between Eleventh and Twelfth. Many years ago, before the pauper dead were interred in the suburbs of the Twenty-fourth ward, the Potter's field of Philadelphia was a lot of ground bounded by Eleventh and Twelfth, Carpenter and Washington streets. The place was filled with bodies in a short time by the last visitation of cholera upon the city.

Up to that time only paupers were interred in the common, but when the mortality by cholera became frightful, and grave diggers were engaged in interring only the wealthiest of the people, there were scores of bodies laid in the public burial ground whose relatives, probably, under other circumstances, would have been hurried at the bare idea.

The end of the lot that was first filled is now being excavated for building purposes. Three cellars have been dug to the depth of seven feet, the whole course of which was cut through masses of coffins with their ghastly contents. The work should have been done in winter time, for a foul, sickening stench arises from the remains that infects the surrounding atmosphere. So repulsive is the digger's task that very high wages are exacted for performing it, and most of those who were applied to perform it peremptorily declined.

There is a tavern building upon the site of the field, whose owner was compelled to excavate his own cellar. Not a man could be found who would undertake the work. Many of the bodies disinterred were in remarkable preservation. We saw a coffin opened there the other day, containing the body of a woman so natural in appearance as to cause an involuntary exclamation from those gathered around it. There were no other ceremonies upon it than a single undergarment, probably worn during the last sickness. There was no mold upon it; and on it in indelible ink, was yet legible a female name.

Strange to say, a jar of the coffin by one of the rude laborers shook into impalpable powder—causing to disappear like a dissolving vial, what five minutes before looked like a slumbering being. The coffin in which this was contained was of walnut, singularly sound and clean. People who saw it pronounce that the dead body must have been a victim to cholera, hastily interred, for it was in the centre of many others, made rudely of unplaned pine, that the coffin was exhumed.

Case after case of skulls, skeletons and bones have been hauled away, and cart-loads of broken coffins have been appropriated for fuel by the poor people of the neighborhood. In the sides of the cellars may be seen the tiers of coffins, and deep as has been dug the bottom tier has not been reached. The lot, extending nearly from Eleventh to Twelfth street, is said to be equally full of human remains. Some boys whom we watched yesterday scraped the soil from a coffin lid in the bottom of one of the cellars, and taking out the skull used it as a ball. The sight is not pleasant. The odor is fetid. People living opposite will be only too glad when the work of exhumation is completed.

ATTENTION, DOUGHERTY'S BATTALION.—The men will meet at the office of the Captain, at 7 o'clock, P. M., Thursday, May 26th, 1864, to receive their pay. Punctual attendance is requested. By order of JAMES D. DOUGHERTY, Captain Commanding. O. D. FORSTER, O. S.

ATTENTION, MILITIA.—All members of the Marion Guards, Pennsylvania militia, Capt. E. B. Sanno, desiring pay for services in the emergency of September, 1862, will meet at the Tarke House to-day (Wednesday) May 25th, to sign pay rolls. By order. E. B. SANNO, Capt. Comd'g.

Colonel and Major White, of Pennsylvania. [From the Richmond Examiner, May 18.] We stated yesterday that Major White, the Pennsylvania State Senator, had escaped from the Libby with Colonel Stright. He is now in the Salisbury Confederate States penitentiary. He is informed that his brother, Colonel White, of Pennsylvania, one of the prisoners taken in the battle of the Bluff, has been registered at the Hotel de Libby, and is anxious for an interview with him.

We have reports from several private letters that Colonel Dick White was killed in battle, his body having been pierced by seven bullets. We hope that the rebel news may prove correct, and that the brothers White may soon be exchanged.

HAIR DYE!! HAIR DYE!! Batchelor's Celebrated Hair Dye IS THE BEST IN THE WORLD. The only Hair Dye that is perfect—changes Red, Rusty or Gray Hair instantly to a Glossy Black or Natural Brown without injuring the Hair or staining the Skin, leaving the Hair soft and beautiful, imparts fresh vitality, frequently restoring its pristine color, and recites the ill effects of bad dyes. The genuine is signed WILLIAM A. BATCHELOR. All others are mere imitations, and should be avoided. Sold by all Druggists, & Factory—81 BARKLEY ST., N. Y.

Bannart's Troches. For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat-Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen, Feb. 8th, 1864. C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually. Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannart's Troches. W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864. To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some good expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches. I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in giving pleasure in recommending the value of my muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HERR

A PHYSIOLOGICAL view of MARRIAGE, containing nearly 300 pages, and 130 fine plates and Engravings of the Anatomy of the Sexual Organs in the Male and Female. It is a most interesting and instructive work, and one that every man and woman should possess. Sent free of post, or by mail, by addressing Dr. LA. GROLL, No. 81 Maiden Lane Albany, N. Y. mar1-dawm

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE INLAND TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

The wires of the Inland Telegraph Company are once more placed at the control of the managers by order of the Government, and business will to-day be resumed on all the line, and messages again forwarded with the dispatch and faithfulness which have heretofore characterized the transactions of this company. In making this announcement the managers deem it due to themselves, as well as to the Government, that they should state that the restrictions lately placed upon them were dictated by what was believed at the time to be a consideration of public safety. It was the conviction of this necessity that induced the managers to rest quietly until their operations thus created could be removed. They were unwilling while the arrest of their operations continued to say a word, fearful that the agitation of the transaction might impair the impartiality of the Government, and do it injustice at an hour when its reputation should appear unassailed before the world; but the time has now arrived when the facts of the case can be safely laid before the public, and the full vindication of the Inland Telegraph Company made known for the gratification of its friends and the confusion of its enemies.

There is now no doubt in the public mind that the Government was greatly imposed upon, and induced to interfere to close up the Inland Telegraph Office through information furnished by individuals who were the jealous rivals and bitter opponents of said company. The Government itself seems to have been suspicious of this fact by the noble manner in which those in authority now seek to repair an unintentional injury, in the recognition of those prominent in the control of this line.

Hereafter, the Inland Telegraph company, as heretofore, will devote itself sedulously to the service of the public, and in doing this the company will never forget that they owe a paramount duty to contributing to the success of the government. Profoundly impressed with the peril which surrounds that government, and deeply sympathizing with its efforts to re-establish its authority and carry peace to all the States, this company feel that it would be better to have their wires cut than to see the Government destroyed. They are therefore resolved to do their utmost to aid the Government in its efforts to suppress the rebellion, and in the complete success of the Government. By this hope we have been guided in the past, and by it we are determined to be controlled in the future.

With this explanation the managers of the Inland Telegraph Company solicit a renewal of the immense patronage temporarily interrupted by the action of the Government to discover the perpetrators of a base fraud; perpetrators who had no connection with the business of this line, either as employees in its service, or patrons seeking its conveniences.

Dr. J. P. KELLER'S Dental Preparations. GRANULAR DENTIFRICE! AMERICAN TOOTH WASH! THESE elegant preparations combine the most desirable chemical and astrigent qualities. They tender the Gums hard and healthy; neutralize the acid secretions of the mouth, thereby removing the cause of decay. By their detersive properties they preserve the natural color of the Teeth, without in the least degree injuring the enamel, which they impart to the teeth a fragrant and peculiarly aromatic and pleasant taste. In fact they are THE BEST ARTICLES in use for the purposes named, as a fair trial will fully convince you. The best and most abundant proof of their extensive sale in this community during the last 14 years; and which will be readily testified to by many who have repeatedly used the Preparation to all their troubles, and its usefulness. They are warranted to be free from those destructive acids which so frequently contaminate many of the preparations of the present day. Prepared and sold in the best rooms of the Proprietor, corner of Second and Walnut streets. JOHN P. KELLER, English Dentist, &c. For sale also by the principal Druggists of the city. my21-dif
