TOWN AND COUNTRY.

ATTENTION, DOUGHERTY'S BATTERY!—The members of the Battery are requested to meet at the Captain's office, corner Third and Market, this evening, at 6 o'clock, to receive their pay.

WANTED.—A journeyman coach-maker. One who is accustomed to working on bodies preferred. Apply to R. J. FLEMING, may20-d1w Third street.

We have had another supply of rain to-day, which commenced falling this morning, and continued during the forenoon.

The Cumberland County Agricultural Society has decided to hold a Fair on the grounds at Carlisle, on the 12th, 13th and 14th of October next.

A LAD named Montgomery, living at Mapleton, Huntingdon county, jumped off a railroad train when in motion, fell under the wheels, and had both arms cut off.

DEPARTED.—The various one-horse shows that were in operation here during the past few months. When the soldiers left, the monkey-showmen found their "occupation gone."

In addition to the list of places struck by lightning, noticed yesterday, we learn that two or three horses were killed on farms adjacent to the city during the storm of Tuesday evening.

COL. THOMAS E. ROSE, of the Seventy-seventh Pennsylvania regiment, having recovered from the effects of his imprisonment in rebeldom, has gone to the front to rejoin his regiment.

THE "Curtin School House," in Philadelphia, was dedicated on Tuesday afternoon, with imposing ceremonies. His Excellency, Governor Curtin, delivered a very interesting address on the occasion.

OUR READERS are again reminded that Rev. H. L. Soule, of Shippensburg, will deliver an address in the Wornleysburg Bethel, this evening. Those who attend will hear an unusually interesting and eloquent discourse.

IT has been rumored that quite a number of the officers of the Fifty-fifth Pennsylvania regiment were killed in battle. Intelligence from Richmond, however, announces that Colonel White, Lieutenant Colonel Bennett, Adjutant Gotshall, Captain Metzgar and Captain Fox are prisoners, together with Lieutenant O'Connell, whom Lieutenant Crozre reported as wounded.

OUR CITY AND THE DRAFT.—Although a sufficient number of volunteers have been furnished by this city, at large, to clear it from the draft, under the past calls for men, we learn that the sub-districts composed of the Fifth and Sixth wards, are still somewhat "short" in their quotas. If such is the case, and a draft is made to fill the quotas of those wards, there must be a surplus from other portions of the city, which will doubtless be credited on a future draft should any be made.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Thursday morning an old man named Rodger, and his son, from Philadelphia, were passing through a railroad cut three miles east of Altoona, when they met a westward bound train and stepped over to the eastward track out of the way. It appears that a train was also approaching from the west, which they did not perceive, and both were struck by the engine and thrown from the track. The old man was instantly killed, and the boy considerably cut about the face, but not dangerously injured. They were in very destitute circumstances, begging their bread as they traveled.

REV. J. WALKER JACKSON delivered his interesting and eloquent address on "Andrew Jackson," at Millington, on Friday evening last, for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission. According to the Junata Sentinel, the copperheads were not pleased with the lecturer or the lecture. How could they be? Rev. J. Walker Jackson is a Christian and Andrew Jackson was a patriot. How then could Tories and infidels be enamored of such men? The Sentinel, in describing the effect of the lecture, says the copperheads fairly wilted; and when he spoke of Vallandigham as a traitor, they got as mad as hornets; and when he contrasted Jimmy Buchanan with Jackson, their indignation knew no bounds.

HARRISBURGERS WOUNDED IN GEORGIA.—By the following extract from a letter received from Mr. Alex. W. Bergstresser, it will be seen that some of our Harrisburg soldiers have participated in some hard fighting in Georgia. Messrs. Lundy and Barringer belong to the 18th Regulars, and Mr. Bergstresser to the 79th Pennsylvania Volunteers:—

RESACA, GA., May 17, 1864. COL. HAMBRIGHT WOUNDED.—We arrived here yesterday. We have had some hard fighting, and have whipped the rebels badly. There was some very hard fighting at this place, and the rebels were driven off in such a hurry that they left their dead lying on the field, and our regiment has been left here to bury them and gather up the arms and ammunition left lying around. We captured eight splendid cannon and lots of small arms and ammunition, besides about six hundred prisoners. Elias Lundy is safe, but James Barringer was hit with a rifle ball in the left hand; his fore finger is off and his hand pretty badly crippled. Our whole army is marching on towards Home and Atlanta, and I expect there will be more hard fighting.

The paymaster assigned to the performance of that duty, paid off a large number of the militia of 1862, to-day, in our city.

The rumor that Lieutenant Wm. Brickrider and Sergeant Dock, of Cumberland county, had died in a rebel prison, was, we are pleased to learn, incorrect.

ATTENTION is invited to the advertisement of a sale of valuable property, at the corner of Chestnut street and Dewberry alley. Here is a fine opportunity for profitable investment.

COMMENDABLE.—We learn that William S. Shaffer, H. A. Ross and A. Hummel, three of our citizens who were out with the militia in September, 1862, on receiving their pay this morning from the paymaster, at once handed it over to the U. S. Christian Commission.

WASHINGTON LODGE, No. 1, Independent Order of Good Templars, the oldest and best Lodge in Pennsylvania, will meet this evening in their Hall, fourth story, next to the Court House. Come early. Important business.

THE SALE OF HERR'S HOTEL.—The sale of the splendid property known as Herr's Hotel, was made this morning, to Mr. Harry Thomas, for the sum of forty thousand dollars. The house and its location are the best in the city, for business, and no doubt the new proprietor will place it under such auspices as to render it one of his most profitable investments.

LIABILITIES OF TELEGRAPH COMPANIES.—A case of great interest to telegraph companies and the public was decided a few days ago in the New York court of common pleas. A firm telegraphed to their agents in New York to sell five hundred shares of Southern Michigan stock at the morning board, and buy five hundred Hudson in the afternoon. The word "Hudson" was omitted in the dispatch, and five hundred Southern Michigan were bought. The result was a heavy loss to the parties who gave the order, and this loss was directly due to the mistake in the transmission of the dispatch. The result was a verdict in favor of the claimants, thus establishing the principle that telegraph companies are responsible, like other common carriers, for the accuracy with which they transmit the messages entrusted to them.

WYMAN IS HERE.—The original world-renowned Wyman has arrived here, and will appear every evening this week, at Sanford's Hall, in a bill of extraordinary attractiveness. As a magician or ventriloquist, Wyman has few (if any) equals. He performs the most astonishing feats ever witnessed. We would advise all who desire to pass an evening pleasantly, in a state of bewilderment, at the most mysterious transformations and romantic illusions, to go to Wyman's entertainments, where the acts and mysteries of the ancient magicians, astrologers, sorcerers and jugglers, will be illustrated to perfection. There will be a grand matinee on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Wyman will occupy the Opera House three days, as Sanford's troupe will return next Monday.

Prof. Weber's Orchestra has been engaged, and will be in attendance at each entertainment given by Wyman.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before the Mayor.—There were two cases of violation of city ordinances before his Honor, viz:

John Power, for keeping a filthy hog-pen was fined $3, upon the payment of which, and costs, he was discharged.

William O'Donnell built a hog-pen against the premises of his neighbor. The Mayor released William on condition that he would pay the costs and remove the hog-pen.

Other cases were disposed of, as follows: Florence Smith, drunk and disorderly, was committed to the lock-up. While there he became so disorderly and noisy that he was sent to prison.

William A. Thomas and John H. Dean, "drunks and disorderlies," paid fine and costs, and were discharged.

A. Wilson, a vagrant, was furnished with lodging, and discharged this morning.

Andrew Stotzman was found hugging a tree at the corner of Third and Walnut streets. Andrew being unable to relinquish his hold, the officers kindly took him in charge and committed him to the lock-up until he became sober. Upon a hearing, it was discovered that Stotzman was a professional beggar and revolver. As is the case with nine-tenths of the travelers of his class, he was going to Carlisle. Upon payment of fine and costs, he was permitted to resume his journey, and crossed the river, en route for home.

THE CAUSE OF THAT RUSH.—It was but a few days ago, when Market street was thronging with ladies that swayed to and fro, with eyes so bright and longing.

With wonder everybody gazed Upon these waving masses, But everybody looked amazed At the running of all classes.

"Miss Annie, please," called out Miss Kate, "What's going on with Mary?" "Pray don't keep me, or I'll be late, Indeed, I must not tarry."

Miss Kate felt rather queer at that Cool answer of Miss Annie, And would have took her by the hat, If she had not espied Mrs. Granny.

To her she walked and asked her quick, With eyes spreading flame and fire, "Where to Mrs. Granny, so fine and slic'ly?" "I'm going to Mrs. Mayer's."

"For she's just received the latest styles of Bonnets, Feathers, Head-dresses, And fancy goods that really smile In everybody's faces."

And there Miss Kate went with the rest, And bought her hat and dress, And ever since there she finds the best Millinery goods at Mrs. MAYER'S, Market street, between Second and Front, Boger's old stand. may 26-3t.

TO UNION NEWSPAPERS.—We observe that nearly all the Union Newspapers of Pennsylvania, have the name of Hon. Charles F. Road, nominee for Presidential Elector for this Congressional District, printed erroneously on their front pages. His name should be spelled R. BOGOT, not Road.—Montrose-Republican.

GENERAL KNIPE.—By the following, from a lengthy account of the battle of Sunday, 15th inst., in General Sherman's department, it will be seen that the gallant Harrisburger, Gen. Knipe, was severely wounded.—He made a noble charge on the enemy, and in the attack received the rebel fire. The numerous friends of the General will regret to hear of his injuries he has sustained, and will hope for his speedy recovery:—

General Williams, who had been posted on the left of Wood's brigade, in anticipation of the rebel flank movement, on hearing the musketry on his right, had ordered General Knipe, who commanded the brigade on the right of his line, to go to Wood's assistance. Knipe moved off with alacrity, and, crossing the hill from the east, fell upon the rebel flank before they had any warning of his approach. Leading his men in person, he charged directly into the rebel column, the beyond doing the work of execution when time was insufficient for loading, and, without halting his column, fairly pushed the rebel force down the hill with his bayonets, occasionally firing a volley to expedite the rout. This was one of the most gallant deeds of the campaign. The rebels were largely superior in number to both Knipe and Wood combined; but the audacity and determination of Knipe's attack defied resistance. The face of the hill was strewn all over with rebel dead and wounded, their brigades were crowded one upon another, and, in inextricable confusion, they were routed and driven from the attack. General Knipe was not content with a simple rout, but, following closely on the heels of the fleeing foe, he cut them down at every step. The chase was continued, in this manner until the enemy was driven into their reserves, concealed in the dense timber, and the attacking party was himself attacked.

Obstinately refusing to give way, the gallant Knipe stood with his little brigade and contended with a force probably ten times greater than his own. Returning volley for volley, he maintained his advanced position, and would doubtless have continued to do so until reinforcements reached him had he not fallen severely wounded. His brave men bore him to the rear, and the column steadily fell back to their original position.

Though of short duration, it is seldom that a more desperate fight is witnessed than the one I have attempted to describe so briefly. Its character can be judged from the casualties it entailed. The rebel loss in this manner was not less than a thousand men. Our own loss was heavy. These brave men fought with heroism and bravery almost unparalleled. Of General Knipe's staff every officer was either killed or wounded. Lieutenant Knipe, a nephew of the General, was literally shot to pieces.

But, though compelled to fall back, the brigade brought off some trophies in the form of the battle flags of the Thirty-eighth and Fifty-eighth Alabama regiments. They also took a number of prisoners.

Bannart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergyman:—

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864. C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, cough and cold. I have found them serving in your name, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannart's Troches.

W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 1864. To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that that was best supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from the too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.

JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with some throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c. G. BAKERSTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE. HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864. To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HERR
