An Abominable Practice, and one which is a source of much annoyance, is the habit which some men have of smoking foul pipes and stinking cigars in the midst of the throngs attending market. There is no way to abate the nuisance except to appeal to the gentility of the smokers. Will they stop it?

Attention, First City Troop.—Complimentary Supper.—A grand supper will be given by the First City Troop of Harrisburg, on Wednesday evening, June 1st, at the States Union Hotel, as a testimonial to the proprietors, Joseph Stone, Esq., in return for the many kindnesses extended by him to the company. Countersfeit Fifty Cent Notes.—A counterfeit of the splitting paper fifty cent currency has made its appearance. The best part of the affair is the bronzing. Otherwise the tinting is pale and the execution clumsy. An examination will be certain to prevent their circulation. They probably came from Troy, New York. To counterfeit the old issue successfully is not nearly so busy a matter as to counterfeit the late edition of splitting paper.

Ice Wanted.—Wanted to purchase, a well filled Ice house. Enquire at the Jones House. my28-3t

The Draft does not seem to attract as much attention this season, as it did last year. Yesterday there was scarcely more than a score of spectators present at any one time. The small number of persons to be drafted has something to do with the slim attendance. Scarcely any of our citizens attended this draft, as their names were not inserted in the magic wheel.

Among the numerous deaths that have occurred on the battlefield, we notice that of Lieut. Daniel H. Shriver, of Co. I, 11th Pennsylvania Cavalry, who was well known here, as he was on recruiting service in our city the first three months of this year. On the 14th inst., while gallantly leading a charge at Flat Creek Bridge, Va., he fell, mortally wounded. He had command of his company at the time. Lieut. Shriver enlisted in 1861 in the first company that was mustered into the three months' service; at the end of that time he entered the 11th Pa. Cavalry, was afterwards wounded, captured by the rebels, imprisoned, paroled, exchanged and rejoined his regiment, nobly discharging his duty until fatally wounded on the 14th inst. Deceased was also well known in York and Cumberland counties.

Senorita Isabel Salado, universally admitted by both Press and Public to be the greatest living performer in Magical Illusions, whose wonderful feats have caused the greatest sensation of the age, will give a grand entertainment at Brant's Hall on Wednesday evening, June 1st, 1864.

ILLNESS OF THE AUDITOR GENERAL.—Hon. Isaac Stenker, Auditor General of this State, is dangerously ill, in this city. It is said that his recovery is extremely doubtful. His friends have been sent for.

ACCIDENT.—This afternoon, a young man, named McGonigal, a clerk in King's hardware store, had one of his fingers shot off, by the accidental discharge of a pistol, which he was exhibiting to a soldier.

The Ninth Pennsylvania Cavalry regiment was expected to leave for the army in the Southwest to-day. These brave veterans have been home on furlough after nobly serving their country on numerous battle-fields.

Go to Sanford's Opera House to-night. You can there see the best show in the city, at the low price of a quarter. All the new songs of the day, the best burlesques, and the best performers in the country, are the attractions. There is a splendid programme for this evening's entertainment.

ATTENTION, GOOD TEMPLARS.—A regular meeting of Washington Lodge, No. 1, I. O. G. T., will be held on Thursday evening, June 2nd, at their Hall, on Market street and Liberty alley, at 8 o'clock, p. m. Punctual attendance is requested, as business of importance will be transacted.

A Case of Precocious Depravity occurred at Pittsburgh a few days ago. A little boy about six years old, becoming enraged at a playmate, his junior by two years, settled punched his eye out with a rusty nail, and not content with this the young demon was deliberately proceeding to put out the other eye, when the little victim's screams brought it assistance. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the offender, but his parents spirited him off to the country before the officers had time to secure him.

The Heat of the Fire.—In the city of New York it is stated that a number of the butchers have closed their establishments for want of business—many people, from the enormous prices demanded, have stopped buying meat. One thing is certainly true, and can be applied everywhere, that we all eat too much meat and too little vegetables and soup. The amount could be reduced one-half, not only without inconvenience, but with positive advantage to our general health—and why shall we not commence the reform at once? The price of all meats would speedily come down. It is the demand, being so much greater than the supply, that causes prices to go up, and any measure that will make the demand less will equalize the supply and reduce the price.

ARE WE TO CELEBRATE THE FOURTH?—This inquiry begins to be agitated by a few, but we do not learn that any definite move has yet been made for celebrating the coming Anniversary of our National Independence in this place. We think it highly important that the day be commemorated by a regular and well-attended celebration, and we hope the initiatory steps will be taken, and an appropriate program of the order of the day be early sent forth to notify the citizens of the surrounding towns that we are wide awake with patriotism and love of country, and are determined to try, and infuse into the minds of the citizens of this region of country more zeal for the principles which gave birth to the day we desire to commemorate. Within a few days we hope to have such additional cheering news of Grant's campaign upon Richmond; as will redoubt the enthusiasm of the day we celebrate.

THE OFFERING OF AN HONORED HARRISBURGER MATRON TO THE SANITARY FAIR.—Among the many valuable and elegant articles manufactured by the ladies of Harrisburg for contribution to the Sanitary Fair to be opened in Philadelphia this coming week, none have attracted more attention in the circle where it has been exhibited for examination than the specimen of "worsed" work, by Mrs. Simon Cameron. It is a shawl of large size, (we have not learned its dimensions) manufactured from the finest material, of various colors, beautifully blended, and with a bordering of the most elaborate description, which viewed as a specimen of domestic manufacture, speaks highly of the skill of the class of matrons to which Mrs. C. belongs—a class which has given to the country its noblest sons and most virtuous daughters, and which, alas, for all that is dear to the Republic, is slowly but surely passing from our midst. Mrs. Cameron sends her specimen of "worsed" work to this Fair, not so much for its intrinsic value, as an example to those useful women to devote themselves to those useful pursuits out of which the Republic derives its strength and its honor. It must look for the influence to spring from "worsed" greatness and secure its property in the future on a firm basis. We venture to predict that the shawl to which we allude will attract marked attention at the Philadelphia

THE REMAINS OF CAPT. I. G. WATERBURY.—It having perplexed many good people to understand how the remains of the late Capt. Waterbury were secured for removal to this city, we deem it only proper to state that by the appeals of Gen. Cameron, his removal was effected. Deeply sympathizing with the afflicted widow of the deceased, and responding to a general desire in this city to have the remains brought home, Gen. Cameron made a personal appeal to Maj. Gen. Butler, asking that the son of the deceased should be detailed to remove the body of Capt. W. to Harrisburg.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Quite a number of disorderly prostitutes which visited this city, have appeared before the Mayor, quite recently. This morning the following cases were disposed of:

Catherine Stockton, arrested for disorderly conduct, had a hearing, and was recommitted to the lockup.

Mary Lowen, drunk and disorderly, was sent out of the city, under police guard.

Ann Moore and Mary Johnson (both colored) were very disorderly, and went to jail for ten days.

Crawford Grey and L. Colwell, soldiers, were arrested for receiving a prisoner from the police. They were handed over to the Provost Marshal, A. P. Coates, E. L. Hoover and Wm. R. Haines, drunks, were sent to the same office.

G. H. Smith and Wm. Adams, suspicious characters, were sent out of the city.

Violations of City Ordinances.—David Shank, for selling marketing before the ringing of the bell, was fined $1 and costs.

An individual who had a filthy hog pen on his premises, paid $2 and costs.

Three men arrested for fast driving on the streets, were each fined $5 and costs.

AN APPEAL FOR A GLASS OF COLD WATER.—For eighty years the pump in Walnut street, midway between Third and Fourth, has refreshed many a weary pedestrian, has given health to the "frisky circle" and "cooled the throats of the youngsters" on the street. It is now proposed to remove this great public accommodation. The proprietor of the ground upon which it stands has made a splendid improvement, and designs opening a first class lager beer saloon. He alleges that the pump is in his way, and he has, of course, a "legal right" to remove it, but in so doing he will incur an odium which no single man should be willing to create for himself, because that pump is absolutely essential for the health of the whole neighborhood in its surroundings. The water is superior—indeed, it has been pronounced by physicians of a quality highly productive of health, and in the neighborhood where it stands, absolutely necessary for the healthfulness of the school children studying in that vicinity. It would be impossible to supply those children with water,—indeed, ice water, would induce sickness at once, if used as the children now use the water from the "Julia Stoner" pump. Hence the appeal in favor of the school children should attract the attention of our readers.

JUNE.—Most beautiful with cloudless sun and moon, Thou visitest our earth, O sweet delicious June! How read the roses on the emerald trees! How bright the leaves of every wind that creeps! Along the vales or 'neath the azure deep! But mark that pallid form! why dim her eye! 'Neath such a bright-blue, cloudless, glorious sky? Dear woman, would you conquer, try dire jills! Unto the Columbian turn. While June's great glories burn, That tells you of the mighty Hercules Pill!
