HARRISBURG, PA.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 2, 1864.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All advertisements, Business Notices, Marriages, Deaths, &c., to secure insertion in the TELEGRAPH, must invariably be accompanied with the cash.

Advertisements ordered in the regular Evening Edition are inserted in the Morning Edition without extra charge.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Among the strangers in town yesterday, we noticed Senator Lowry and Speaker Johnson.

The annual statement of the treasurer of the Harrisburg Cemetery Association, appears in our columns to-day.

Sudden Change.—Yesterday everybody was complaining of the heat. To-day was uncomfortably cool. Rain fell this forenoon.

We have seen a specimen of the new two-cent piece. It is decidedly the prettiest coin in circulation, and calculated to bring to mind the times when gold was revolving. This new "shiner" is about the size of a three dollar gold piece.

DETENTION OF TRAINS.—The passenger trains of the Northern Central Railroad were detained several hours on Tuesday, by a freight train running off the track this side of York. Several of the cars were broken, and the obstructions prevented the passing of trains. A train due here at 1 p. m., did not arrive until 5.

There will be a tiptop entertainment at Sanford's this evening, when a grand bill will be presented. The Opera House is the old pioneer place of amusement, and is nightly crowded with large and fashionable audiences.

A new play, entitled "The Shoemaker of Highspire," is creating a decided sensation at the Opera House, and is an excellent hit. It will be performed every night this week.

PROMOTION FROM THE RANKS.—We notice with pleasure that George W. Leamy, a private in Co. E, Ninth Penna. Cavalry, has been promoted to second Lieutenant in Co. B, of the same regiment, by the special recommendation of Col. Jordan, for gallant and meritorious action on the field. Lieut. Leamy went into the service of his country early, and has been in many hard fought battles. We congratulate him on his promotion, and the service in having raised to rank a worthy soldier.

THE EFFECT OF A LATE THUNDER STORM.—It was discovered this morning that a telegraphic instrument in use occasionally in the Transportation Department in the State Capitol had been almost entirely destroyed by the effect of a late thunder-gust. Portions of the instrument were entirely melted up, and the messenger who sleeps in the room remembers to have heard an explosion at night, resembling the crack of a pistol, when of course the lightning struck the instrument.

Local matters are extremely dull. All of our citizens were sober yesterday and last night, as there was not a Harrisburger in the lock-up. Business at the Mayor's headquarters was nearly at a stand. Henry Miller, belonging to Elizabethtown, got fuddled, and saw "stars." In default of payment of fine, Henry went from Fort Callender to Fort Simons, and is yet at the latter place.

There was but one case of violation of city ordinance—an individual who opened a fire plug without authority, but being ignorant of the offense, he was discharged upon payment of costs.

BARN DESTROYED BY LIGHTNING.—Höbster's barn (formerly Huber's) in York county, was struck by lightning during a thunder storm on Tuesday evening last, and entirely destroyed, together with several tons of hay, about thirty bushels of wheat, a small quantity of corn and oats, harness, beside some farm implements. The stock was fortunately saved by getting it out of the stable before the fire had made much progress. It is situated between the turnpike and railroad, about seven miles from York. The loss, we understand, is estimated at about $1,000. There is no insurance on the property. A man named Ernsel resides on the farm.

BROCK JAIL.—On Wednesday night six prisoners effected their escape from the jail in Chambersburg. One of them was a negro awaiting trial for murder; and John Helwig, company M, Twenty-second Pennsylvania Cavalry; Wm. Van Dyke, Jacob Van Dyke, and Jacob H. Coons, company B, Fifth New York Artillery, and William Sisson, One Hundred and Twentieth New York volunteers, all arrested by the Provost Marshal as deserters. They had all been locked inside of the jail building in the evening, and when they supposed the Sheriff to be out, they asked for a bucket of water. When the servant girl opened the door to hand in the water, they struck the girl on the arm with a stick and rushed out of the jail and made their escape. The colored man has since returned, but the deserters are still at large.

A MAGNIFICENT SPECIMEN OF PENMANSHIP.—One of the finest and most elegant specimens of penmanship, we remember ever to have seen, is hanging on the walls of the main reception room of the Executive Department. It is in the shape of a "directory" to the portraits of the Governors hanging in the same room, containing the names and the "number" to indicate each portrait, with the date of the painting and the artist who painted each. The execution of this is in a style at once showing the best taste and the greatest ability; and the work reflects great credit upon the gentleman from whose pen it came, Mr. A. C. Mullen, Private Secretary of the Governor. It was the result of a pastime during his leisure hours; but he can truly regard it as a credit to his skill in calligraphy.

JOSEPH MOORE, the murderer of Jordan Marbourg, at Johnstown, has removed to Iowa, taking with him his wife and son.

Attention is directed to an advertisement relative to the appointment of viewers to assess damages caused by the opening of certain streets in this city.

EXAMINE YOUR GRAPE VINES.—On the end of the new wood you will find a leaf or two spun together in a nest, and in this nest you will find a caterpillar, which should be entirely destroyed and the nest taken off, if you wish to have a crop of grapes.

STATE AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society, have resolved to hold their next Annual Fair on the grounds of the Mechanics' Institute, adjoining the Borough of Easton. The fair will be held in the latter part of September next.

R. G. PORTER & Co., receive every Tuesday and Friday, fresh fish, strawberries, cabbage, green peas, radishes, onions, lettuce, rhubarb, confectionery, cocoa nuts, cream nuts, ground-nuts, walnuts, filberts, oranges and lemons. A variety of other goods cheap. Call and examine. Corner of Dagberry alley and Chestnut street.

TARGET PRACTICE.—Quite a stir was created among our citizens last evening, by the firing of cannon at Fort Washington. There was a general running to and fro, all inquiring the cause, and many supposing that Richmond had been captured. The battery in the fort was engaged in target practice. Solid shot and shells flew rapidly for awhile. The target was erected on one of the islands in the river.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The Presbyterian Church, at Slatington, Lehigh county, was struck by lightning on Tuesday night. The fluid passing part way down the conductor, and then entering the slate roof, tore off considerable of the lath and plastering on the ceiling, passed out on the other side. Another portion of the fluid passed down to the ground and crossed over to the parsonage, and being attracted by a piece of steel lying near the basement, forced its way through the slate foundation into the kitchen; and simultaneously attacked the hydrant and range, tearing the lead pipe from the wall and starting the water and wrenching off one of the oven doors, throwing it violently against the wall, apparently passing out at the window. The family escaped—all but the shock, and did not know their narrow escape until the next morning.

THE WORKINGMEN OF WASHINGTON CITY have published a card in the newspapers printed in the Congressional District represented by Hon. Amos Myers, thanking him for the disinterested efforts he made in their behalf, when their claim was before Congress for consideration. The card concludes with this significant language, which we commend to the workingmen of this country:

"Not having any special claim upon him for assistance, we sought, and found in him an earnest and active friend of the mechanics of this city; and believing as we do that the workingmen of the country have the power to place men in positions of honor and profit who will represent their interests, we call upon all persons in his district who make their livelihood by honest toil to sustain Mr. Myers, the fearless friend and advocate of the laboring classes."

SOUNDS.—Early this (Wednesday) morning a man was discovered suspended from a tree by his neck and quite dead. The locality was West Pennsboro' township, near West Hill, between the farms of David Heits and John Greider. The body was first discovered by Mr. Wm. Blosser, who was riding along the road, and noticing the man who seemed a peculiar position, halted him; receiving no response he approached and found that the man was entirely extinct. The suicide was a German of rather respectable appearance, apparently about thirty years old. He had on Tuesday evening called at the residence of Mr. Francis Diller, and procured a piece of rope, for the ostensible purpose of tying up his bundle; with this rope he had hung himself, after, as appearances indicated, two unsuccessful trials. Neither name nor residence has yet been discovered. —Carlisle Herald.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Through sickness our advertising department has been neglected for the last month, which necessarily prevented us from making known to the public the very cheap and desirable dry goods received during that time. We have, however, the pleasure of making known to-day that C. L. Bowman has just returned from Philadelphia with a choice lot of ladies' dress goods, and a full assortment of dry goods, generally. We call attention to Allen's 200 yard coats at 5 cents a yard, or 50 cents per dozen. Also, Shaker bonnets, at 30 cents apiece, at No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets.

GEN. GRANT'S DAUGHTER.—One of the interesting incidents of the exhibition of the St. Louis Sanitary Fair, on Friday afternoon, was the taking of a photographic likeness of a daughter of Lieut. Gen. Grant, who, since the beginning of the Fair, has been personating the character of the old woman in the shoe, in the children's department. She is the General's only daughter, and is eight years of age. She was dressed, as an old woman, with cap and spectacles, and seated in a mammoth shoe, with fair complexion and plump features, she presented a captivating appearance.

HAD HIS FINGER a wounded Virginia rebel and a wounded Pennsylvania, occupying adjoining beds, had a good-humored verbal tilt, as follows:

"Say, reb, where are you from?" "I'm from Virginia, the best State in America." "That's where old Lloyd came from, the old rebel." "Where are you from, Yank?" "I'm from Pennsylvania." "Well, you needn't talk about old Lloyd coming from Virginia, as long as old Buchanan came from Pennsylvania." "Don't you wish you hadn't said anything?" "Yank!"

Harrisburg Cemetery Association.—Mr. Editor:—Allow me to present the name of John B. Simon as a proper person to be elected one of the managers of the Harrisburg Cemetery Association. It has always been customary to have all the Christian denominations of the city represented in the board, and we deem it due to the three different Lutheran congregations that they should have a voice in the management of this beautiful spot. Mr. Simon would certainly be a proper person to represent them, and we hope that he may receive the unanimous support of the lot holders.

The Capitol Park is a cool resort. So is the Banjo Saloon, corner of Second and Pine streets.

TWO FINE BUILDING LOTS for sale on Penn. above Broad street. Terms, one-half cash. Inquire of D. Wyeth, at Wyeth & Creamer's, South Second street.

MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—The regular monthly payment for families for soldiers, will be made on Friday afternoon, June 3rd, at the Sheriff's office in the Court House, between the hours of four and six.

The following gentlemen will be Voted at the election for Managers of the Harrisburg Cemetery Association, on Monday next:

For President—Hamilton Althicks.

Managers—William H. Cleckner, John A. Small, Randolph F. Kelker, William Jennings, Henry Gilbert.

ANOTHER SPY CAPTURED.—The Chambersburg Repossitor gives the following account of the capture of another rebel spy:

"On Sunday last, Mr. Jacob M. Funk, of Mergersburg, who has been devoting his attention recently to the arrest of deserters, met a man on the South Mountain whose appearance was suspicious. He recognized him, and upon questioning the person he was convinced that the stranger was a spy. He at once arrested him and brought him to Capt. Eyster at this place, after an examination, committed him to prison.

"The prisoner gives his name as 'Mordant Winchester, of Frederick, Md., and has papers and memoranda on his person, showing that to be his name. He had about him a quantity of gold, some rebel money, and his papers clearly establish the fact, he admits that he left Richmond about one month ago. Among other papers in his possession is one issued by a rebel officer in Richmond, stating that Mr. Mordant Winchester, 'having given evidence of his nationality, is allowed certain privileges, but they cannot be identified. He is quite an intelligent man, evidently well educated, and is a native of Maryland. He is very stably clad, and his clothing is filthy. It is very evident that he has been out on a tour of observation for some weeks, and that he was trying to find his way back to Virginia. He admits that he has been dealing in the rebel lines—speculating as he says, and alleges when arrested, he was on his way to Philadelphia, by way of the mountains so far out of his route, is difficult of explanation.

"It is believed that the same man was in this place last summer before the invasion, and perhaps with the rebel army."

AN AFFECTING SCENE.—Mr. and Mrs. Rodish, residents of the State of Michigan, who had two sons—Horace and Coradin—in the Seventh Michigan Regiment, came to Washington a day or two since in search of Horace, whom they learned had been wounded at the battle at the Wilderness, and had been brought to this city. Finding he had been in hospital, they Tuesday evening visited the Sixth street wharf. A few moments afterwards the steamer Jefferson steamed up to the dock, and standing on the bow of the boat was the looked for son, badly wounded—his right arm having been shot off above the elbow.

As soon as the plank was thrown from the boat to the wharf, Mrs. Bowdish sprang on board the steamer, and throwing her arms around her son's neck, burst into a flood of tears, with her head bent upon his shoulder. For a few seconds there was an affecting silence, with the eyes of the mother looking into the face of her son. Then she said, "Horace, where is your brother Coradin?" "Horace, pointing to a rough wooden box by his side, replied, 'There, mother, there is Coradin.' The afflicted mother threw herself upon her deceased son's coffin, sobbing aloud in an agony of grief, while the father and wounded son stood by with bowed heads. The scene was truly a heart-rending one, and it can be readily imagined that it described. Many of the bystanders were compelled to turn aside, while silent tears could be seen stealing down the cheeks of all. Several kind-hearted ladies present did all in their power to comfort the afflicted mother, but it was long before she could be induced to leave the side of her deceased son.
