TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A NATIONAL bank has been started at Glen Rock, York county, Pa.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Harrisburg Bank, on the 5th of July, for the consideration of important questions.

A son of John K. Gardner, aged about 11 years, was killed on last Saturday below Newport, by being struck by a passing locomotive on the Pennsylvania railroad.

Some of our streets are sadly in need of a scraping. In many places filth has accumulated to a considerable degree, and may cause disease among the citizens.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—During a thunder storm on Tuesday night of last week, Mr. Geo. Yeagy, residing near Petersburg, Adams county, Pa., was struck by lightning and almost instantly killed.

The time for receiving plans and proposals for the erection of the extension of the Capitol buildings will close on the 15th inst. The Governor and other State officers have the matter in charge. See advertisement.

ORDINANCES.—In our advertising columns will be found several ordinances passed by the city council, relative to the opening, grading and curbing of certain portions of Chestnut, Forster, Filbert and Briggs streets, and Primrose alley.

ANOTHER PICNIC.—The Arbeiter-Frankens-Unterstützungs-Verein and Stenben-Verein will hold a grand picnic in Hagelhorn's woods on Thursday, the 9th inst. Extensive preparations are being made to render the occasion pleasant.

MR. FRANK WOOD, the celebrated jig dancer and talented performer, will take a benefit at Canterbury Music Hall, this evening. The bill of the evening comprises a great variety of pieces calculated to amuse the spectator. There will be a full house.

DETENTION OF TRAINS.—An accident occurred to the boiler of the engine attached to the Cumberland Valley train going to Chambersburg, yesterday afternoon, causing a detention to the train coming down the road. I did not reach here until near six o'clock.

KILLAN-COOPER RAILROAD.—On Monday last, Daniel Miller, a middle-aged man, hailing from the neighborhood of Swamp Churches, Montgomery county, was instantly killed at Pottstown, by being struck by the cow-catcher of a locomotive.

THE APPLE CRAB.—Judging from the appearance of the orchards, a good apple crop may be expected this year. The continued rain may have injured the fruit somewhat, but still a fair yield is looked for. The cherry trees, generally, also appear well filled with fruit.

LEWIS JOS. S. SHULTZ, of Newmangtown, Lebanon county, a member of Co. C, 17th Cavalry, was killed in a fight, and buried on the south side of the Chickomahon, within four miles of Richmond, during Sheridan's late grand raid from Meade's army to Butler's. He was a young man of high qualities.

ROBBERY.—Some daring thief stole some $500 from Wm. B. Linn, in Landisburg, on Tuesday night. The thief went into Mr. Linn's bedroom during the night, and abstracted the money from his pockets whilst he was asleep. The money consisted of $500 United States coupon bonds and other change.

Books are shortly to be opened for receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of the Millersburg and Rausch Gap Railroad Company, which body was incorporated by the Legislature at its last session. The books will be opened in Gettysburg on the 23d inst.; at Berryburg on the 27th; at Millersburg on the 30th; at the Jones House, in this city, on the 5th of July—to remain at each place three days.

A Miserable Boon.—Last evening, as the clerks and "local" were engaged in the counting-room with their regular business, and while several persons were present waiting to learn the import of the telegraphic dispatches usually received at that hour, a gentleman who entered the room found upon the floor thereof a superbly arranged bouquet of buds and open flowers, rich in their fresh perfume and glowing with their matchless colors. The mystery now is, who placed that bouquet on the floor of the counting-room? Was the offering to the clerk, "locals," or the "devil"? Who called its fresh flowers and bound its tender twigs together? These are questions which trouble us hugely. The fact that there was a gallant soldier present at the time, as famous for his amours as he is distinguished for his ardent valor, and the fact that we have nothing to boast of in "good looks" ourselves, has excited our suspicion. Was that bouquet intended for that soldier? If it was, we will feel slighted—if it was not, we must confess to being delighted. At all events, we have the bouquet on our table, to relieve the odor arising from piles of newspapers reeking with oil and lamp-black. Still, the possession of the flowers does not enlighten us as to who conveyed the bouquet to the floor of the counting-room. Are we to be enlightened? Echo answers, are we!

The following gentlemen will be voted for at the election for Managers of the Harrisburg Cemetery Association, on Monday next: For President—Hamilton Alricks. Managers—William H. Cleckner, John A. Small, Rudolph F. Kalker, William Jennings, Henry Gilbert. j2-d3t

A STATED MEETING of the Hope Fire Company will be held in their hall, this evening, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

THE SHOEMAKERS OF HIGHSPIRE will appear at Sandford's to-night. The whole star troupe will take part in the entertainment, and will furnish the best entertainment in the city. Go to Sandford's.

FUNERAL OF CAPT. WATERBURY.—The funeral of Captain Waterbury took place yesterday afternoon, and was attended by a large concourse of citizens, besides the Order of Free Masons and a company of artillerymen.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Mr. Joseph Clark, dispatcher in the yard of the Pennsylvania railroad, at Altoona, fell under a train of cars which he was coupling yesterday morning, and had one of his legs crushed to such an extent that it is feared amputation will have to be resorted to.

Mr. Editor:—I see several gentlemen mentioned as suitable persons to fill the office of managers of the Cemetery association. I would suggest the following: For President—Wm. H. Kepner. Managers—Henry Gilbert, N. S. Presbyterian; J. B. Simon, Lutheran; J. J. Clyde, Methodist; J. A. Smith, O. S. Presbyterian; R. F. Kalker, German Reformed.

EXPLOSION AND LOSS OF LIFE.—On Wednesday night about 11 o'clock, Engine No. 249, attached to the express freight train coming east, on the Pennsylvania railroad, exploded, when near Newton Hamilton. Mr. Saml. Saylor, the engineer, was instantly killed, and the fireman, Charles Hallman, was so seriously injured that he died at three o'clock yesterday morning. The unfortunate man resided at Altoona. Saylor leaves a wife and four children; Hallman was unmarried.

STATE FAIR.—The next exhibition of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will be held at Easton, in the beautiful park fitted up by the spirited citizens of the neighborhood. The enclosure is the largest of the kind in the State, and in its accommodations spacious and elegant. The days fixed for the exhibition are Tuesday, September 27th, to Friday, the 30th (four days). The premiums offered are extremely liberal. Catalogues can be had after the 1st of July next, by addressing A. B. Longaker, Secretary, Norristown, Penna.

THE THIRTEENTH Pennsylvania Cavalry suffered severely in the fight of the 23d ult.—The following is the list as far as received, of killed and wounded: Killed—Wm. Matthews, K; Sergeant Felix Burns, H; Thos. Guiley, H; Corporal J. F. Croll, A; Wm. M. Shaffrey, E; Abram Moore, E.

Wounded—L. F. Y. McDonald, D; Capt. P. Kane, E; W. E. M. Shaffrey, E; O. Orth, B; Henry Erno, D; G. W. Oiler, D; W. B. Maxwell, D; H. Ragen, F; Chas. Moss, H; W. H. Stephens, D; Corp. John Langhlin, F; John M. Phee, A; H. Shellenberger, I; Francis Hilton, M; Sargt. J. Floyd, M; Corp. John Black, E; A. Brechbill, D.

AN AGED CHRISTIAN.—The Rev. Daniel Young, in his eighty-second year, and for sixty-one years a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, whose autobiography, published by the Methodist Book Concern, is one of the most interesting contributions to that kind of literature, is now in Harrisburg, and will preach in the Locust St. M. E. Church.

Mr. Young has been one of the first men in his church, and is yet possessed of wonderful intellectual strength and physical vigor. He was born in 1783, at the close of the war of the Revolution, and hopes to live to witness the close of the great struggle for the maintenance of the principles of self government upon which that struggle was founded. The congregation worshipping at the Locust St. Church may expect on Sabbath morning a very spiritual and intellectual discourse from the lips of a man of commanding and venerable appearance—a relic of the past.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Catharine Hueston, Annie Nolen, Minnie Castle and Lizzie Smith, a party of notorious street-walkers and prostitutes, were up on a charge of keeping a disorderly bawdy house. His Honor gave them a ticket of admission to the county prison.

John Gering, a drunk and disorderly soldier, was escorted to the Provost Marshal's headquarters.

Daniel M. Curtin, who made his second appearance on a charge of drunkenness, was sent to prison for five days, with notice that the next offence would send him over for thirty days.

Henrietta Fry, a colored woman, made her fourth appearance at the Mayor's office, on a charge of drunkenness. She went to Fort Simons for 30 days.

John Harney, drunk and disorderly, was discharged upon payment of costs.

A countryman, for using steelyards at the Bridge Market, was fined $3 and costs. The bridge market is under the supervision of the market master, and subject to the laws governing the regular city market. Market men should remember this.

I. O. O. F.—The condition of the Patriarchal Branch of this Order in Pennsylvania, for the year ending April 1, 1884, is shown by the report of the Grand Scribe to be as follows: Number of encampments, 79; number of initiations, during the year, 338; number of rejections during the year, 7; number admitted by card during the year, 19; number withdrawing card during the year, 25; number of reinstatements during the year, 28; number of suspensions during the year, 207; number of expulsions during the year, 4; number of deaths during the year, 86.

Grays Patent Molded Collars. Are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a collar, but are Molded and shaped to fit the neck, having a perfect curve free from angles or breaks, which is obtained by our patented process, which also secures another advantage possessed by no other collar—viz. Spines for Cravat in the Turn-down style, the cravat is drawn in PERFECTLY SMOOTH AND FREE FROM PUCKERS, making this collar, for ease, neatness, and durability, unequalled.

They are made in Turn-down style in sizes from 12 to 17, and in Garotte from 15 to 17 inches, and packed in neat blue boxes of 100 each; also, in smaller ones of 10 each—the latter a very handy package for travelers, army and navy officers.

EVERY COLLAR is stamped: "Gray's Patent Molded Collar." Sold by all retail dealers in Men's Furnishing Goods. The Trade supplied by: J. VAN DEUSEN, BREMER & CO., CHESTNUT ST., Philadelphia.
