They have never in any previous campaign been so well supplied, and there was abun-dant provisions constantly going forward. The whole army worships General Grant, and say that he is the only man who has given them a chance to fight.

The belief was universal, both among the troops and the residents of the country in the vicinity of Richmond, that the capital must

There had been no attempted raid on the White House, as reported, and consequently the rumored capture of Fitz Hugh Lee and his cavalry was unfounded.

The White House presents a scene of activity unprecedented even during the McClellan campaign.
Several of the rebel wounded that came up on the steamer Connecticut yesterday morning, say that they have no doubt we will be able to take Richmond, but that we will have to walk over many dead bodies. Several of the rebels on the same steamer and gone back to Richmond, leaving the army under command of General Ewell. A dispatch, Cairo, June 3d, says: It is reported that Forrest intends making a raid on Sherman's rear. General Canby, at Natchez, is organizing his forces for offensive operations.

Among the wounded brought up on the Connecticut were Colonel Ent, 6th Pennsylvania Reserves, and Colonel St. Clair Milholland, 116th: Pennsylvania cavalry, shot in the Gen: Grant's Headquarters, to eight o'clock yesterday (Saturday) morning.

The two armies occupied their relative po-sitions near Mechanicsville, on the north side of the Chickahominy river, on Friday night. About six o'clock the enemy made a precip-itate attack upon Gen. Wilson's cavalry force and a sharp cavalry battle was fought, lasting half an hour, which resulted in driving the enemy a considerable distance back into his entrenchments. The loss on each side is about equal, the exact number is not stated.
