TOWN AND COUNTRY

THE regular stated meeting of the Citizens' Fire Engine and Hose Company will be held this (Monday) evening, at 7½ o'clock.

A STATED MEETING of the Good Will Fire Company will be held in their hall this evening, at seven o'clock. Punctual attendance is requested.

JUDGE APPOINTED .- Hon. Alexander King, of Bedford, has been appointed President Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial district, in place of Judge Nill, deceased.

Col. McCandless, of the 2nd regiment Pennsylvania Reserves, has accepted an invitation to be present with his regiment at Sanford's Opera House, this evening.

THE Seventh Pennsylvania Reserves, who marched forth to battle, in 1861, with a thousand men, returned to-day with but little over fifty. The regiment lost nineteen-twentieths of its members.

WE have heard of but two or three cases of pocket-picking to-day, and the sums taken were trifling. The people are learning the advantage to be gained by carrying but little money when the streets are crowded.

DECLINATION. -The name of Wm. Jennings having appeared among the list of names as a candidate for manager of the Harrisburg Cemetery, we are requested to withdraw the same as he feels that he is not eligible for the

WE learn that the 1st, 2d, 7th and 9th regiments of the Pennsylvania Reserves, will proceed to Philadelphia to-morrow morning, to be mustered out of the service. The balance of the regiments will be mustered out here.

A HEAVY shower of rain came upon us suddenly this afternoon, and, for a time, water ling of hail of about the size of cherries. The dust has disappeared from our streets, and gave place to a fine article of mud.

THE reception of the veteran soldiers occupied the attention of everybody to-day, and will account for the lack of reading matter on this page. Elsewhere will be found a full account of the ceremonies, &c., connected with the reception.

Robinson, who has spent several weeks in the hospitals at Fredericksburg and elsewhere; ministering to the wants of the wounded and dying soldiers, has returned to this city. At the request of our citizens, Mr. R. will give an account of what he saw and did, in the N. S. Presbyterian Church, on Wednesnay evening. The public will do well to attend and hear an interesting address.

BAPTISM, -- Yesterday afternoon Rev. D. A. L. Laverty, of the Fourth Street Bethel, immersed two persons in the river, near North street. Several thousand persons were present to witness the impressive ceremonies. As a general thing, excellent order was preserved, yet, as in every assemblage, there were a few unprincipled persons, who having neither respect for God or man, exhibited evidence of a want of sense, by a continual conversation and ill-timed remarks.

DROWNED .- It is with deep regret that we announce the loss of one of the brave Reserves -and a Harrisburger-while en route for home. James Allen, of company D, Twelfth Reserve regiment, fell overboard, when on a boat on the Pamunky river, and was drowned before assistance could be rendered. We are informed that a number of his lady-friends had prepared boquets for him, which they would present him as the procession passed a certain point, but James was not there to receive tokens of friendship such as were showered upon his companions. He was drowned on Friday last.

FUNERAL OF A UNION VOLUNTEER. - The funeral of Daniel G. Garmon, a soldier of the Army of the Potomac, took place on Friday morning, from the residence of his father, Mr. Jacob Garmon, residing in the vicinity of this city, and was attended by a very large concourse of relatives and friends.

Mr. Garmon entered the service of his country, at the age of eighteen years, having first enlisted for nine months. During Gen. Lee's invasion of Pennsylvania, he spent two months with the State militia, where he performed important services under Gen. Couch. Under the recent calls of the President he enlisted for three years, and was sent on to the Army of the Potomac, where he participated in the sanguinary battles of the first eight ted in the sanguinary battles of the first eight to the voice, and are certainly of great benedays struggle between the armies of Gen, fit to all public speakers.

DIED-On Sunday morning last, John Shanklin, aged 64 years. Mr. S. was one of our oldest residents, well known and esteemed by this community. He held a position in the Branch Bank of Pennsylvania for many years, and afterwards for about twenty years in the Harrisburg Bank, continuing in the service of the latter till his death. His funeral will take place from his late residence on State street, at four o'clock on Tuesday

ELLEN WAS SITTING ON A CHAIR WITH HER HEAD UPON HER HAND.—The attitude or position of Ellen, as seen by a casual observer, would have conveyed the impression that she was in deep sorrow. Perhaps a mother's death, a sister, or dear friend, or a still greater death, a sister, or dear friend, or a still greater distress—the intelligence receiv dof his having been killed in battle; him to whom she had plighted her affections, and in the helplessness of young love; who, it seemed to her, all of her earthly happiness depended upon.

Moral.—Fair reader, mine is a pleasing tasl Morat.—Fair feat, the property that surrounds Ellen. She, with several friends, had been shopping on Saturday last, and, in looking over the large and beautiful assort ment of dress goods, at the cheap dry goods store of C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets, was unable to decide. She had so placed herself upon the chair for the purpose of determining which and how many of the beautiful pieces she would purchase dresses from.

[COMMUNICATED]
LIEUT. J. H. KNIPE, A. D. C. to Brig. Gen
Knipe, was mortally wounded at Resaca, Ga.,
the 16th of May, and died Tuesday, the 17th

Lieut. Knipe was born in Berkeley county, Va., in 1838 or 9, and was educated by his own exertions, in the city of Richmond; for the mercantile profession. He early made a profession of the religion of Christ and connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church. in which connection he remained to the close of his short but patriotic life.

At the breaking out of the rebellion he came North with an uncle, who was in business in Richmond at the time, and by whom he was employed. After the battle of Antie-tam, he enlisted in the 46th Regiment Penns sylvania volunteers, under the command of Col. Knipe. Upon the promotion of the Col-onel to the merited position of Brigadier General for brave and patriotic service to the country, young Mr. Knipe was placed upon his staff as A. D. C., with the rank of Lieutenant. In the various reports of the General he has mentioned the services of his cousin as distinguished by promptness and courage. He fell bravely as a soldier, in the discharge of the necessary, but dangerous duties of his profession.

The General, in a letter to Mrs. Knipe, says "I called on Sabbath evening after the battle to see the Lieutenant; he is mortally wounded, but expresses himself as entirely resigned to his position." His body was forwarded by the Christian Commission to this place; where ne was buried. Lieut. Knipe was an affectionate and obedi ent son, whose broken hearted father, in the entson, whose broken hearted father, in the enguage of David, says "My son, would God I had died for thee." Born and raised in Virginia, he remained unseduced by the terrible heresy of State sovereignty, and lived and died a true American.

He had requested, in the event of his death to be buried in Pennsylvania—to sleep on soil uncontaminated by the feet of slaves. Soon we hope that Virginia will be free soil—that the entire country, from lake to gulf, from ocean to ocean, will be redeemed from the fell in torrents. There was also a fair sprink- pollution of slavery, and that all our brave soldiers, no matter where buried, will await the trumpet of the resurrection, beneath the hallowed ground of universal freedom.

Lieut. Knipe died for the future. Exposing his life at Chancellorsville and Gettysburg, he lived to fall in Georgia, when the approbation of Heaven giving us victory after victory, fore-tokens the glorious triumph of our arms in the fall of Richmond and Atlanta, and in the crushing out of an insurrection conceived in sin and born in iniquity, whose corner stone of human slavery shall be ground to dust between the upper and nether millstone of a RETURNED FROM THE ARMY. HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVAET—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Trockes, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness anthroat troubles, and in comparison with there throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.
Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches.

W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARBISBURG, Jan., 1,64.
To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expecto rant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing th effectiveness of the delivery of public ac-

dresses. Yours, &c.,
JNO. WALKER JACKSON. Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNYART-Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.
