The net proceeds of the concert given in March amounted to $87 15, making a sum total of $187 75, which has cleared the a grain of salt to a soldier, association of all back indebtedness, and places it on a firm footing, which is very encouraging to the members of the association. The publication of this statement has been delayed, owing to the absence of one of the Concert committee.

CAPT. RITTER, Co. F. 184th. Regiment, who we announced in yesterday afternoon's edition as wounded, paid us a visit last evening. The Captain is en route for this home, which the expects to reach this afternoon. He was wounded in the charge on Friday morning last, upon the rebel works at Coal Harbor. His wound is in the left hand, the ball entering near the wrist and coming out at the second knuckle. Lieut. W. D. Williams and Lieut, L. F. Brahm, and seventeen men of his company were also wounded. THE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL gotten up by the ladies of the Free Baptist church, opened last evening. There was a grand display of fruits, cakes, etc., in addition to a beautiful supply of rich, luscious strawberries, and the best quality of ice cream, in the lecture room, while in the other departments there was a large assortment of fancy articles, embracing the useful and the beautiful. There was also a fine selection of photographs and albums, the latter of which would form acceptable presents. A large and elegant portrait of the Pastor, Rev. James Colder in a costly frame, graces the latter department. We would advise all who desire to pass an hour pleasantly to go to the Free Baptist church, this after noon and evening, and patronize the ladies in their laudable efforts to defray the expenses ture for the new house of worship.

Last night large numbers of citizens visited the church, and the place was thronged until a late hour. Rev. Dan. Young delivers his second and last lecture on "the future glory of America as set forth in prophecy," this evening at 8 o'clock, in the Locust street M. E. church. Mr. Y.'s age, eloquence and patriotism make his lectures exceedingly interesting to his hearers. Whether his theory of interpretation be a correct one or not, his sincerity in its promulgation is evident, and it intensifies in his hearers a national feeling and sentiment. Let the old man eloquent have a crowded house. Admission free.

ROBBERIES are of nightly occurrence in our city, and they are of a character that stamp the perpetrators as bold, fearless individuals. Two Fine Building Lots for sale on Penn, In nearly every instance brought to our notice above Broad street. Terms, one-half cash, the thieves have entered bed-chambers and robbed their occupants, rifling clothing, and 'going through" bureau drawers in search of booty, as boldly as if they were examining their own property. It is hoped that something may be done to put an end to these robberies. Let an efficient police force be placed on the streets during the night, whose duty it should be to arrest all suspicious persons traded with the other, who said he would found prowling around at unseasonable hours.

ANOTHER BOLD ROBBERY.—Last night the house of Mr. Harry Thomas, on Market street, was entered by a robber, who proceeded to the room occupied by Mr. T. and family, and stole therefrom a valuable gold watch, and several diamond pins and rings, which had been placed on a stand; then seizing Mr. Thomas clothing, the thief proceeded down atairs to the dining room, struck a light, and rifled the pockets of the clothes, taking some ninety dollars in money and other minor articles. There was a spontaneous movement made by all men and all parties - a movement in which no individual or party can with justice claim any exclusive or overshadowing share of credit; Democrats and Republicans alike joined in the arrangements-Republicans and Democrats vied with each other in doing honor to the heroes-and if ever there was a public demonstration devoid of political bearing or feeling, it was that which attended the reception and the entertainment of the Reserve Corps. Yet in the face of these facts the Tory Organ yesterday claimed that the credit of that reception and entertainment was due to "a Demacratic Mayor and a Democrotic Council." This contemptible lie appeared in those columns of the Tory Organ through which it is usual for those who control that sheet to pour their blackguardism and x their falsehoods and which, when they have effected their purpose, they geneledged to be the gayest of the season. Before the Mayor, -- John Scott, arrested on suspicion of being a pick-pocket, was before his Honor, and committed for further hearing. John arrived here a day or two ago. Yesterday he called at the Adams' Express office for baggage that was forwarded from another place. The way-bill accompanying the baggage stated that Scott was a pick-pocket. Upon leaving the express office he was followed to a hotel and arrested. It is said he gave the name of West at the hotel.

James Hamilton, a vagrant, had a hearing. He had been before the Mayor about a week go, when he gave his name as James Kelly. He was sent out of the city under escort of the police.

George Noell arrived here in search of employment. Not being able to effect an epgagement, and being out of funds, he took odging in one of the market houses—thus violating a city ordinance. For this he was escorted to Fort Callender and furnished with a resting place until this morning, when he was discharged, with orders to leave the city.

Mary Belt, a cofored woman, was found on the street at a very late hour last night. She was arrested, and had a hearing this morning, when she stated that slie was en route for Chambersburg. She was detained until noon today, and then placed on the Cumberland Valley train, with orders to leave the city.

"Can these, things be; and steal upon our Senses Like a Sum ner's dream, wi thout our special wonder." Speculation in the minds of mankind, now as in olders times, progresses without abatement; indeed, through competition in the different departments of business, it would not be strange if it had increased. It is the subject of wonder to the mind of the citizen why there should be a difference in prices for the same kind of goods, at the different dry goods stores of our city; and we will here ask pardon of the reader for not runnishing the many reasons why this wrong exists, and hope that each reader of this article, in canvassing the myster r involved in this subject, will be so enlight ened that their own in terest will point distinctly to the Cheap Dry Goods Store of C. L. Bowman, No. 1, cor. Front and Market sts., in the purchase of their goods. The sterso-typed motto of our house (guided by youth and lenergy) is to sell goods at very small profits, and if we make money it must be through the large amount of goods sold.
