Since sending the above amount, thirtytwo dollars ($32) has been added and sent forward.

AN EXCELLENT APPOINTMENT. - Lieut. Peter D. Bricker, of Co. F., 13th Pennsylvania cavalry, has been appointed Assistant Inspector General of the Second Brigade, Second Division, Cavalry Corps, which places him on the staff of the commanding officer. Lieutenant Bricker has numerous friends in this city and elsewhere, who will rejoice to learn of his promotion, as he is a gallant soldier.

CITY ORDINANCES. - In our advertising columns will be found an ordinance "providing for assuming the debt of the Good Will Engine, and for the payment of the same," amounting to $1,559 67; another providing for the payment of expenses incurred in procuring information concerning the quota of the city under the recent calls of the President for 700,000 men; also, two, providing for the construction of sewers in Second street and River alley.

Wounded.—We notice in the list of wounded on the first of June the mame of Walter F. Fahnestock, of this city, Company E, 76th Regiment Pennsylvania volunteers, wounded whilst charging the rebels. He is one of those brave young men who enlisted in defence of our diberties in the commencement of the conflict. We hope his wounds may not prove serious, and that he will soon be able to join his brave comrades to add laurels to those their noble deeds have already crowned them

"DIE ALTEN WASCHFRAU." The old wash coman," is the title of a touchingly beautiful poem on our first page to-day. It is a Two FINE BUILDING LOTS for sale on Penn translation from the German-or rather a paraphrase on a literal translation by one of our most gifted friends, who in his hours of relief from the harrowing duties of official life, devotes himself in communing with and wooing the muse. The poem will repay a perusal.

> Tuz following interesting article is from the pen of a distinguished clergyman of this city, who, a few evenings since, entertained our citizens with an eloquent and graphic description of the manner in which the hospitals in the army, are conducted. The Rev. gentleman having devoted several weeks to alleviating the sufferings of the wounded, and consoling the dying, at the front, "knows whereof he speaks," and we invite special attention to the interesting article below :

A division is divided into three brigades.

First Division — Fifth Corps — Surgeonsin-schief, W. R. DeWitt, Jr., M. D. Each of the brigades of a division has a surgeon in chief, who is appointed on the re-commendation of the surgeon in chief of the division. The surgeons of the various regiments of the brigade are his assistants and make their reports to him.

The 1st brigade, 1st division, is composed of ten regiments, with an average of two sur-geons to a regiment. The 2d brigade, 1st division, has live regiments, two surgeons to each. The 3d brigade, 1st division, has seven regiments, two surgeons to each regiment. Total, 22 regiments in the division and over 40 surgeons. Each regiment has also a hospital steward and a complement of nurses, one nurse to ten or twenty men. Each brigade surgeon has a medical supply wagen or traveling apothe-cary shop, and a certain number of ambulances; also, supply wagons according to the number of men in the brigade. He is pro-Wided with a supply of kettles, blankets, provisions and the various medical and sanitary stores needed. These wagons are required to be kept full of supplies for every emergency. Luring permanent camp the sick are taken care of sin regimental hospitals, but on the eve of a campaign the surgeon in-chief or-ganizes the division hospital and becomes reponsible to the medical director of the corps or all that occurs in his division. He first recommends for appointment a surgeon in charge, who takes the general charge of the hospital and is responsible to the surgeon-in-chief of the division. An assistant surgeon is appointed who is specially charged with the duty of preparing food and shelter for the sick and wounded of the dishelter for the sick and wounded of the division. The entire culinary or kitchen department is under his control. For its support to enforce the single partment is under his control. For its support is under his control. The camp is pitched in the form of a hollow square with surgeons' tents on one side, the hospital tents on another, the kitchen on the third side, and near by if the provest guard and the pioneers, and on the fourth side are arranged the hos-pital wagons. In the centre of the square under a large tent are placed the operating tables where amputations are performed.

In locating a hospital the requisites are—1, pure water; 2, wood; 3, good ground; dry and of even surface; also if possible near a wood where boughs may be obtained for beds. In making beds for the sick and wounded, a layer of pine boughs is first spread on the ground, upon that the gum blankets of the soldier, and then the woolen blankets, using held in cases of doubt.

In the 1st division hospital of the 5th corps, with which I was permitted to spend several days on the march from Spottsylvania C. H. to the present position of the army, south of the Pamunky river, I was most highly gratified and even astonished with the order and success of its management. Everything seemed to be complete. The wounded were attended to with the greatest dispatch. The supplies, medical, sanitary and culinary, were abundant, and provided upon the shortest notice. The order of the hospital camp was most admirable. There was a full complement of surgeons, of stewards, of nurses and of chaplains, always in readiness to attend to the wounded. In a march within half an hour after the train stopped all the sick and wound-ed would be supplied with beef tea or some other nourishing food. In case of a battle, I was assured by the surgeon that if two hundred wounded were brought in their arrange ments were so complete, that by eleven or twelve o'clock in the evening of the battle all the amputations would be performed, the wounds dressed, the wounded fed and put away to rest, and the camp quietid for a night's sleep. I looked on with admiration and thankfulness as I beheld the corps of surgeons in charge of this lat division hospital, with their assistant on the state of the corps of the late of the corps of surgeons in charge of this lat division hospital, with their assistant on the state of the corps of the late of the corps of the late of the la with their assistant surgeons, chaplains, ards and nurses, taking such rapid, considerate and successful care of the wounded men that were brought in from the field of battle. The surgeons-in-chief and in charge, Drs. DeWitt and Thomas, whose tent I was permitted to share most of the time, seem to be most admirably fitted for their responsible po-sition; and to be unwearied in attention to their duties. They are supported by as gentle-manly and able a body of surgeons as it has ever been my privilege to meet. Most of the operations performed in the way of amputa-tions, which I witnessed; were by Dr. Kerr, of Allegheny city, and were performed with a eadiness and skill, and, withal, with a tender regard to the poor sufferer, such as elicited my admiration and deep respect. There are doubtless cases of negligence and gross inat-tention to duty in most of our army hospitals, and, as a consequence, unnecessary suffering and death among our wounded and brave deis an authenticated fact that fenders; but it never in the history of wars has so noble a nedical and sanitary record been given to the world as in connection with the armies of the republic. Never before has the ratio of mor tality been reduced to anything like that which is furnished by our armies. Never before were armies so cared for, nor wounded and sick men, and the dead so attended as they

To the Public: Having been requested by, a friend, to define my position on the question at issue on certain national interests that agitate the public mind, at this important period in the history of our afflicted country, and being a candidate for nomination by the Republicans or Loyalists of the land and home of the free and the brave, (for he that will not fight or work at his country's call is only fit to be a slave, I give the following:

The first and most important question is the amendment to the Constitution. In the midst one a revolution there is no necessity of making a Constitution. The public mind being too much excited for calm discussion, it may bring the civilians and soldiers in collision at the polls. Suppose there would be several regiments discharged from service and be in the city, and the grog shops all open on elec-tion day, what do you suppose would be the consequence? And I firmly believe the best interests of our common country demand it as the duty of every General to drive all politicians seeking votes to sustain their posi-tion of trust and profit out of the army, and no State Legislature has any right to interfere with the army of the United States. Conrect or make laws for the executive power to faring, &c., &c. He is to be ready with these than warning.

A surgeon is also appointed a recorder of the division, whose dairs it is a least of the country debates in Country debates of freedom and slavery in the territories, are isufficient to satisfy every reflecting mind that the laborer is worthy of his hire, and governments were formed for the benefit of the poor and oppressed, whether it be of conscience or estate, as the man destitute of sympathy is worse than an infidel.

The third question to be answered, and pershaps the most important of them all, is, what to do with scoundrels who are plundering the public treasury in contracts and disbursing r paymaster's department. We are satisfie that there is a combination or association of individuals in this city and neighborhood who held seeret meetings to enrich themselves at the expense of others. Contractors, paymas-ters, etc., are useful and necessary, but fraud should be severely punished. They are part of the army and are subject to martial law, and they that defraud the Government in these times are worse than deserters. They are entitled to a fair trial, and, when convicted, should be shot or sent to the Dry Tortugas to pile stones on islands for more Sumters. FOSIAH ESPY.

IMPORTANT ARREST.—On Tuesday morning last two assistant U. S. marshals arrived in Carlisle, and at once arrested Mr. Isaac Liv-Oarlisie, and at once arrested Mr. Leeds, his ingston, clothing merchant, Mr. Leeds, his cutter, and a lad, Askew, his salesman.

The charge against these parties is that they have aided and abetted desertion from the U. S. army, by selling newly enlisted volunteers full suits of citizens' clothing, knowing they were to be used as disguises, and taking from them the United States clothing worn at the time of exchange. The evidence by which these charges are expected to be sustained was collected by Colonel Henderson, Provost Marshal, and forwarded to Philadelphia, where a thorough examination will be made.

Bannvart's Troches. For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa-, to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen: HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864. C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, cough and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Froches.
W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

Harrisburg, Jan., 1,64.
To C. A. Bannvart—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed I have found the need of some gentle expecte rant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too trequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public ac dresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSON.
Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.
Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Bidge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: —I have ound your Troches to be invaluable in reieving hoarseness and in strengthening the nuscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great bene-fit to all public speakers. A. J. HERR
