HARRISBURG, PA. TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 14, 1864.

FOR THE AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION SOLDIERS' RIGHT TO VOTE.

Election Tuesday, Aug. 2, 1864.

NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,

Abraham Lincoln,

OF ILLINOIS

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Andrew Johnson, OF TENNESSER.

An Explanation.—John H. Berryhill, Esq. President of the Atlantic and Ohio Telegraph company, desires us to say that we did him injustice in stating that we paid him for the dispatches. We had no idea to convey the impression that he received our money personally, but we paid the Atlantic and Ohio Telegraph company, of which he was and is to this day President and chief manager. We have no personal quarrel with Mr. Berryhillor any one connected with that corporation, but we have a great deal more to say about the manner in which they have imposed on the public, taking their money without rendering service therefor, &c., &c. Have patience, gentlemen, you shall all be satisfied.

What the Copperhends are Figuring to

The Copperhead journalists of the country have a hard task before them-one of their own choosing, too, out of which to figure mischief. In the first place, they have set themselves to work to extol the good qualities of John C. Fremont, asserting for him the possession of rare merits as a statesman and glorious advantages as a soldier. Indeed, it is even hinted in the inner circles of Copperheadism, that it would be good policy for the leaders of that faction to forego a nomination for the Presidency, and rally their deluded followers in support of Fremont. As if to tempt these adventurers, Fremont, in his letter accepting the Cleveland nomination, does not vouchsate a word in support of the war to crush rebellion-does not convey a single reproof to those who are engaged in a wicked conspiracy to destroy the Government. Thus far the "Wooly Horse" meets the approval of the Copperheads. But the leaders of that faction cannot harmonize their feelings with those lately entertained by Fremont on the subject of the inevitable African. The fighting qualities of Sambo were first recognized by Fremont. He it was who insisted on the arming and enlisting of negroes, and now, while such sheets as the Tory Organ are acting as the mouth-piece of Fremont, lauding his character and exaggerating his "sufferings" at the hands of the Administration, they find it extremely difficult to reconcile their opinions with those of Fremont on the fighting qualities of the negro. This morning the Tory Organ manufactures a lie to the effect that Lieutenant General Grant does not trust the negro troops, and refuses to use them for any other work but that of the drudgery of the camp. When the conductors of the organ in question lack falsehoods, the rebel-

- Here is the paragraph which the Tory Organ manufactured to create a misapprehension of General Grant's estimation of the fighting qualities of the negro:

"General Grant, it is said, has little confidence in the colored troops, and will not trust them in battle. They are used solely for do-ing guard duty and the menial duties of the

It is a fact well established in the annals of the army that negro troops have fought bravely in all the actions in which they have participated, and that General Grant is too good a soldier and too true a man to depreciate the merits of those honestly fighting for the safety of the Government. What bothers the tories is the success of the negroes. This is what itches these rascals.

ASSISTANT UNITED STATES TERASURER. -A New York exchange states that the visit of Mr. Chase has probably something to do with the selection of an Assistant Treasurer for New York. The position is one where valuable service can be performed, but the officer must work hard for less pay than could be got elsewhere. In the opinion of competent judges, the transfer of Mr. McCollough from the Bank Department at Washington to New York would give Mr. Chase an officer possessing not only his confidence, but one having financial ability of no ordinary character.-He has thus far filled every position to the advantage of his clients, and has all the qualifications necessary to success in this most responsible position.

THE HON. AARON H. CRAGIN, of Lebanon, N. H., who will succeed the Hon. John P. Hale, as United States Senator on the 4th of March next, was first chosen to the House from the Third District of that State in 1855-succeeding a Democrat—and was re-elected in 1857. He retired at the close of his second term. He is, in the prime of life, solid, practical and unassuming, and a devoted Unionist.

NEW YORK, June 11.—A report prevailed on the Stock Board this afternoon that General Lee died in Richmond on Thursday. It sent gold down with a rush to 93½.—Telegraphic Dispatch.

If it had sent the gold speculators down to hell, it would have accomplished a good pur-DOSe.

GUSTAVUS W. SMITH, the former copperhead street commissioner of New York city, now a vagabond traitor in the South, has been made commander of the home forces of made commander of the home forces of ceived a telegraphic answer. The President expects to be able to visit the Pair on Thurs-

The Confederate Plan for Peace.

Some of the Peace Democratic papers are making a great handle of that portion of Jeff. Davis' letter to Governor Vance, in which it is implied that the mission of Vice President Stephens was for the purpose of extending peace propositions. In reference to it we will only copy the following letter:

CONFEDERATE STATES STEAMER TORPEDO, In James River, July 4, 1863.

SIR: As Military Commissioner, I am the bearer of a communication in writing from Jefferson Davis, Commander-in-Chief of the land and naval forces of the Confederate States, to Abraham Lincoln, Commander-inchief of the land and naval forces of the United States. The Hon. Robert Ould, Confederate States agent of exchange, accompanies me as secretary, for the purpose of delivering the communication in person and conferring upon the subject to which it relates. I desire to proceed to Washington in the steamer Torpe do, commanded by Lieut. Hunter Davidson of the Confederate States Navy, no person being on board but the Hon. Mr. Ould, myself, and the boat's officers and crew.

Yours, most respectfully, ALEX. H. STEPHENS. To S. H. Lee, Admiral. Acting Rear Admiral S. H. Lee, Hampton

The request of Alex. H. Stephens is inadmissible. The customary agents and channels are adequate for all needful military communications and conference between the United States forces and the insurgents.

GIDEON WELLS, Sec't of the Navy. We do not find in this any intimation as to proposals for peace. Further, we see no reason, and have even denied the right of a legislative government, to treat with insurgents while they have armed organized armies in the field. If the rebels desire peace, they should have it by returning to their allegiance to the Government and upon no other terms.

A FAVORITE way with the Copperheads this season, in holding Conventions, is to dodge all platforms and adjourn without enunciation of any principles. This has been done at Indianapolis and a few days since in the Maine State Convention. They are waiting for the Chicago Convention to pitch the tune, and say whether it will be Democratic to oppose or to sustain the war. But the party is no more ready to speak out through the Chicago Convention than through its State Conventions; and so it is going to postpone the Chicago Convention till September. Perhaps it won't get ready to tell where it stands until after the election is over.

OLD ABE'S CHOICE.—A gentleman in conversation remarked to President Lincoln on Friday, that nothing could defeat him but Grant's capture of Richmond, to be followed by his nomination at Chicago and acceptance.-"Well," said the President, "I feel very much like the man who said he didn't want to die particularly, but if he had got to die, that was precisely the disease he would like to die of."

A PAIR of rebel shoes taken by one of Crook's command are thus described: The soles and heels of the shoes are of wood, and appear to have been sawed out by machinery. The uppers, which are of very heavy, stiff and badly tanned leather, are nailed upon the wooden soles with large tacks and welts.

"I SHALL not." said the President. "return to slavery any person who is free by the terms of the proclamation, or by any act of Congress." And yet this man, according to Wendell Phillips and his Cleveland friends, is false to freedom.

THE CASE OF SYLVESTER MOWRY. The War Department, in reply to a resolu-tion of the Senate, has transmitted a communication, from which it appears that Sylvester Mowry was arrested, and his silver mine in Arizona seized under Gen. Carleton's order, in June, 1862. He was tried upon the charge of aiding and abetting the rebellion, by a board convened by Gen. Carleton; and having been found an enemy of the United States, was confined at Fort Yuma, in California. His property was placed in the hands of a receiver, under the order confiscating the property of persons aiding the rebellion, issued by Gen. Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific.
