HARRIŠBURG, PA.

SATURDAY EVENING. JUNE 18, 1864.

FOR THE AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION GRANTING THE SOLDIERS' RIGHT TO VOTE.

Election Tuesday, Aug. 2, 1864.

NATIONAL UNION TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT,

Abraham Lincoln.

OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Andrew Johnson,

OF TENNESSEE Appointment of Archbishop of New York.

BISHOP M'CLOSKEY, OF ALBANY, THE SUCCESSFUI CANDIDATE-SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

The Right Revered Bishop M'Closkey, of Albany, has, we hear from that city, received the official announcement from Rome of his appointment to the Archiepiscopate of New York. He will soon, it is understood, enter upon the discharge of his new duties.

The Most Rev. John M'Closkey, D. D., was born in Brooklyn in 1807, and is consequently in the fifty-seventh year of his age. In early life he was sent to Mount St. Mary's College, near Emmitsburg, Maryland, where he displayed a special aptitude for oratory and disoussion, and always held a prominent place in his class. Having finished his collegiate education and graduated with high honors, Dr. M'Closkey entered the Theological Seminary, and after a thorough course of study was raised to the priesthood at about the age of twenty-seven years.

He was shortly afterwards attached to the diocese of New York, (comprising New York and a part of New Jersey,) under the Right Rev. John Dubois, the predecessor of Archbishop Hughes, when for a time he acted as curate, but was subsequently promoted to the pastorate of St. Joseph's Church, in Sixth avenue, now in charge of Rev. Thomas Farrell. In consequence of the increased number of the Catholics in this diocese it was deemed advisable in 1842 to appoint an assistant bishop to assist Bishop Hughes, who had been raised to the Episcopal See, in the a lministration of its affairs. Dr. M'Closkey was called to assume the duties and responsibilities of the coadjutorship; and on the 10th of March, 1844, he was consecrated in St. Patrick's Cathedral, by the late Archbishop Hughes.

In 1846, on the recommendation of the council of this province, the Papal See decided to subdivide the diocese of New York. creating as suffragan sees the dioceses of Albany, Buffalo, Brooklyn and Newark. Dr. M'Cleskey was transferred to the former see, and performed his duties with singular ability. His excellent practical discourses and his carming oratory produced the best effect not only in his own church, but among the members of other denominations, whose frequent visits to the Cathedral attested their interest as well as their confidence in the Catholic Bishop. The reputation of Archbishop M'-Closkey gives an excellent promise of usefulness in the enlarged sphere he has been called to fill.

President Lincoln's Acceptance of the Nomination.

The committee appointed to wait upon President Lincoln to inform him, officially, of his nomination, discharged their duties a few days after the Convention adjourned. Mr. Lincoln was, of course, gratified, but said he did not so much regard it a personal compliment as an evidence of the people's concurrence in his measures to preserve the nation's life, and he presumed they felt as the man did who was upset when crossing a river; he seized the tail of one horse, which bore him along, when some one advised him to let go and take hold of the other animal, but he said it was no time for a man in danger of drowning to be swapping horses!

So thought the people when, in the war of 1812, they re-elected James Madison over an abler and better man-De Witt Clinton, of

On the average, we know of no fitter man for President than Mr. Lincoln, who has been tried, and who understands all sides of the complicated enigma better than any man ever could. Intuitively, he seems to know just when and how to move. We believe it to be the determination of the people and the will of God. that, as the Secessionists went out under Abraham Lincoln, so they must come back under Abraham Lincoln!

- Andrew Johnson.

Andrew Johnson took strong ground early in the great struggle, and has steadfastly held it ever since, in favor of the Government against secession and treason. In his speech against Breckinridge in the extra session of 1861, he said:

"Traitors are got to be so numerous now that I suppose treason has got to be respectable; but, God being willing, whether traitors be many or few, as I have hitherto waged war against traitors and treason, and in behalf of the Government which was constructed by our fathers, I intend to continue it to the

In the Senate of the United States, on being asked by Joe Lane, of Oregon, what he would do with the rebels, Senator Johnson replied in the following strictly orthodox lan-

"The distinguished Senator from Oregon, asks me what I would do with the rebels, were I President of the United States? I will tell the Senator. I would have them arrest d, i would have them tried, and if found guilty, by the ETERNAL GOD I would have them exe-

Concerning Gov. Johnson's present sentipolicy of writing a radical letter of acceptance he said that was wholly unnecessary. His reply was sure to be radical enough to satisfy the most radical. To another the President is said to have remarked: "Don't be concerned, sir, when Andy Johnson was last here he said, if the as necessary to carry on the war for think aris, he was for carry-

ARRIVAL OF THE FULTON ----

An Engagement Between Our Forts and the Rebel Batteries.

A Rebel Steamer Sunk.

NEW YORK, June 18. The United States steamer transport, Fulton Capt. Norton, from Port Royal, June 15, arrived at a very early hour this morning.
On Tuesday, the 7th inst., the rebels opened a heavy fire from their works on Sullivan's and James Islands, directing it to both our land and aval batteries. Our men gave them a handsome shower of shells in return. The rebels finally ceased firing. No damage was sustained by us.

At night the guns at Fort Putnam were opened on a rebel steamer, discovered on her vay from Charleston to Sumter, ladened, it is thought, with troops and supplies. One of the shots disabled her, causing her to run aground. At daylight our gunners completely

Murderous Copperhead Outrage. Our city was in a great state of excitement yesterday on account of a shooting case which occurred early in the morning in the machine department of the Reading Railroad Company's workshops, on the corner of Seventh and Chestnut streets. One of the workmen, named Henry A. Connard, deliberately drew a pistol and shot a fellow machinist, named Thos. Gabriel, the ball taking effect in the ab domen. The wound was at once pronounced mortal by the physicians. Mr. Gabriel, who suffers greatly, was still living last evening, but was not expected to survive many hours He resides with his family, consisting of wife and three chileren, in Eighth street be ow Franklin. He is a most estimable and inoffensive man - a member of St. Barnaha (Episcopal) Church, and is universally respected by all who know him.

The circumstances connected with this murderous outrage, as we learn from reliable authority, were as follows: Connard has been working in the shop for some time, and is a son-in-law of Mr. Bellemere, one of the fore men in the lathe department. On last Wednesday, in the course of a political argument with another workman, named Joseph Fair, would rather figut for the rebel cause than for the Union," or words to that effect. Connard denied having used the language imputed to him, whereupon Fair went before an alderman and made affidavit in support of the truth of his charge. On Thursday Connard brought suit against Fair for slander, and the latter was arrested, but gave bail for his appearance at court.

The treasonable language said to have been uttered by Connard, backed as it was by an affidavit, caused a great excitement among the amids in the workshop. They held an indig-nation meeting, we are told, on Thursday evening, and resolved that Connard should work no longer in the shop. Connard, being apprised of this, came armed next morning, and entered the shop before 7 o'clock, the usual time for commencing work.

It was just at this juncture that Mr. Gabriel, who happened also to be one of the first to who happened also to be one of the first to enter the shop, approached Connard in a triendly way, and with the air of a man giving advice, said in substance, "My triend, you had better leave the shop. There is a mob coming to put you out of it, and you had better go peaceably;" while giving this advice he had his hand lightly on Connard's shoulder but as is alleged without Connard's shoulder, but, as, is alleged, without the slightest intention of offering violence. Connard seems, however, to have regarded the touch on the shoulder in the light of an insult, and drew his pistol and fired it at Gabriel with the effect we have already stated. After the shooting, Connard and one or two of his friends were pretty severely handled by the excited workmen, and it was only by great effort that the men were restrained from lynching Connard on the spot.

He was arrested and taken before the Mayor, and committed to prison, to be tried for the offence. Connard is about 28 years of age, and his family reside in Seventh street, below Pine. He formerly kept a lager-beer saloon He came to Reading a year or two ago, and hails, we believe, from the Western and Northwestern part of his State.

We refrain from adding to the excitement by commenting on this bold outrage. The criminal is in the hands of the law, and it is to be hoped he will be properly dealt with.

P. S.—Mr. Gabriel died about nine o'clock last evening. - Reading Journal of to-day.
