LOCAL BOUNTY FOR CREDITS paid at Herr's je14d1w*

Go to Henry Gilbert's Hardware store, opposite the Court House, and see the new Barometer; they foretell the weather accurately from 12 to 48 hours in advance. Every person should have one. je16-2w

THE Union men of Union county have nominated the following ticket: Assembly, Samuel H. Orwig, of Union county; Sheriff, Thomas Church; Commissioner, Michael Kleckner; Auditor, James Aiken; Coroner, Benjamin

WE learn that some of our soldiers have been quite fortunate down in rebeldom. The members of a company of the 45th Pa. regiment found upwards of $3,500 in gold and from the knee to the ankle, and died next silver, buried in deserted farms. One member of the company made a haul of some $300 The discovered treasures were divided among

DRY Goods.—I will, this day, commence to sell off my entire stock of summer dress goods, such as lawns, delaines, challies, alpacas, mozambiques, poil de chevre, poplins, and also a large lot of remnants—they will be sold at and below cost. Call soon.

A HEAVY CONTRACT. - The contract for the whole mail service from Atchison, Kansas, via Salt Lake, to Fulton City, California, has been awarded to John A. Hiestand, one of the proprietors of the Lancaster Examiner, for $750,000 per annum. This is for letter mails only between the Atlantic and Pacific coast, and is the largest contract ever given, out by the Post office Department.

THE OLD FLAG is the title of a campaign journal to be issued in Chambersburg, by Messrs M'Clure & Stoner, of the Franklin Repository. The new paper will be devoted to the Union cause, and will be a valuable accession to the list of loyal papers published in the State. We cheerfully recommend The Old Flag to every friend of the good old Union. See prospectus in our advertising

GONE TO EUROPE. -Mr. Harry H. Davis sailed for Europe to-day from New York, for the purpose of exhibiting his great panorama of the American war to the people beyond the. "big water." He will visit all the principal cities and towns of the Old Country. Harry TELEGRAPH. has the best wishes of numerous friends for unbounded success. A more interesting panorama was never exhibited, and the paintings are the finest ever placed upon canvass.

A TOUGH STORY. -The Mifflinburg Telegraph says that last week, during a thunder storm, the lightning struck a tree standing over a trunk of the tree to the ground, and through man's back and tore a heel off one of his shoes. He was stunned, and his back was burnt some. He walked to his home without assistance and we are informed is doing well.

PRIZE BEEF-Mammoth Steer.-That wellknown stock-raiser, John Noble, Esq., of Carlisle, has sold to Mr. John Baulus, of this city a mammoth steer, weighing three thousand pounds, for the handsome sum of three hundred and fifty dollars. The animal was fed three years by Mr. Noble, and is but one of numerous specimens of cattle fed by that gentleman. The thanks of our citizens are due to Mr. Baulus for his efforts to suply them with a superior quality of meat, and we have no doubt that when this prize beef is displayed at market there will be a great demand for it. Mr. Baulus will exhibit the mammoth steer at his place of business in this city during the next ten days or two weeks, and invites the public to call and see him. At the end o that period the animal will be slaughtered and the beef offered for sale at Mr. Baulus stand in market. je18-d4tw14

POLICE AFFAIRS. - On Friday the police, in a body, made a descent upon a notorious den of iniquity kept by Lizzie Jones, and captured Lavina Wilson, Catharine Rhodes, Anna Wilson, Anna Allen, Jennie Barnitz, Mary Webb and Mary Johnson, besides several men, citizens and strangers. Lavina Wilson and the men arrested, were held in bail to appear as leading politicians, government contractors, witnesses, and the balance of the party were bound over for appearance at court. The gay to be present at the Eutaw House at the hour Lizzie was "not at home," and escaped arrest. The public will rejoice to learn that one of the principal dens of infamy in Harrisburg is likely to be broken up, and it is hoped the named, a large number of the invited guests, officers of the law will continue to pounce upon such institutions until not one shall be Council, assembled in the rotunds of the hotel left within the limits of our city, the reputa-, and sorely taxed the patience of Mr. Bayless, tion of which has suffered seriously on act the clerk, as to what time the presentation count of the numerous houses of ill-fame that have been permitted to exist here.

Two drunks and disorderlies were discharged upon payment of fine and costs.

Harriet Harris, (colored,) found in company with a white man, in the suburbs of the city, was sent to Fort Simmons for ten days,

Ellen Jones, colored, arrested for disorderly conduct, was discharged.

Augustus Snyder, charged with stealing certain articles from Lewis Apple, a butcher, was in. The "press gang" received invitations, committed for court.

Jacob Bingle, for purchasing the above articles, was held to answer at court.

The sell was a decided success.

THE MERCHANT TAILORS AND CLOTHIERS OF this city have resolved to close their respective places of business at eight o'cleck in the evening, with the exception of Saturdays. This arrangement is to go into effect on Monday, June 20, and to continue until the first of October.

COLORED SUBSTITUTES .- It is said that Provost Marshal General Fry has issued instructions to the various provost marshals that, under existing laws, they can receive or accept colored substitutes for white persons. This decision will naturally cause a great reduction of the rates demanded for white sub-

REVISION OF THE TAX LAWS OF THE STATE. On the 1st day of July next, a committee of the House of Representatives, consisting of Messrs. Reed, Smith, of Chester, Barger, Coleman, Robinson, Bigham and Pershing, will meet in this city for the purpose of preparing a new tax bill, to be submitted to the Legislature at the adjourned session in August.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE. - J. H. Berryhill, we understand, has sold three lots of two acres each, with river front, for $6,100-one to Col. H. C. Alleman, the corner on Reel's lane, for $2.100; another to Geo. H. and Wm. H. Bell, for $2,000; and another to M. G. Einstein, for $2,000, and eight acres and a half, a most beautiful building site, to Eby Byers. These gentlemen intend erecting fine residences. Mr. Berryhill has eight acres left for sale, with new house and barn-a very desirable property. So much for advertising in the

THE MEAT QUESTION .- The meat question; of late, seems to be talked about very much by our exchanges. Housekeepers and others interested in a reduction of the high prices of meat, are discussing that some way be adopted to bring butchers down to reasonable buying terms. They recommend that the best plan mine, near Mifflinburg, and passed down the for all to pursue is to purchase only one-half their usual quantity of meat, and make up for a hole into the mine, where it run down a it by eating other food, quite as nourishing and less expensive. The family physician in many instances has been called upon for an opinion, and decided that animal food of this season of the year was more injurious to the human system than the farinaceous and vegetable food that may be obtained at cheaper

> A SAD ACCIDENT OCCUFFED on the Lebanor Valley rail road on Wednesday evening of last week. A deaf and dumb girl, 8 years of age daught er of Mr. John Hinnershitz, of Spring township, was struck upon the head by the bum per of the engine attached to the Harrisburg A commodation train, on the Lebanon Vidley Branch, about 11 miles west of the S chuylkill bridge, and instantly killed. The fireman noticed her upon the track, and gave warning to the engineer, who endeavored to stop the train, but unsuccessfully, as there is a heavy down grade at that point, and the poor child could not hear the sound of the whistle. She was picked up and carried home by her father, who was in an adjoining field at the time.

A SELL.—The Baltimore Clipper says that a complete sell was gotten off on Thursday night upon the city fathers by some wischievous wag or wags. During the day upwards of one hundred circulars were received by members of the City Counc I, other city officials, chaplains, military officers, &c., inviting them of 9 P. M., to witness the presentation of a magnificent sword, sash, spurs, &c., to Brevet Brig. Gen. W. W. Morris. At the hour above the majority of them members of the City was to take place, and in what room the supper was to be served up, &c., &c. Mr. Bayless informed the questioners that he was ignorant of the affair, and that the General had heard nothing of it. About half past nine o'clock, several of the invited ones arrived at the conclusion that the affair appeared very much like a sell, and it was amusing to see them make their exit from the building. The invited guests were not the only ones taken and were out in force, expecting to fare sump-

SPECIAL NOTICES.

C. A. BANNYART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for houseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

EXTRAORDINARY DISCOVERY. ORIENTAL HYGRO BAROMETER,

Natural Weather Indicator, WITH A BEAUTIFUL THERMOMETER ATTACHED. THIS simple and useful instrument is now offered for sale for the first time in the State of Pa, the undersigned having secured the right of sale in and for the loclowing countes: Dauphin, Cumberland, Adams, Franklin, York and Perry, of Frisber, Cook a Co., agents for the State, and are now prepared to sell the instrument at wholesale and retail. The unstrument will tell with unfailing accuracy the hygrometical condition of the atmosphere, thus fortedling the changs of the weather from 12 to 48 h urs in advance. The acting moving principle is the pistule of a flower, found in yrta, near Damascus, and is so highly sensitive that it is acted upon by the least change of the atmosphere. Persons laminar with natural science know that it cannot raid until the aft is filled with aqueous vapor, which must condense to cause rain to full; this moisture must xist in the atmosphere several hours in advance of the coming storm. No other Barometer manufactured will forestell with accuracy the approach of ain. But this NATURAL HOROSCOPE, the work of NATURE'S OWN HAND, fills up the vöid which man could not accomplish, and points its unerring finger to all changes of the we dier, and has never been known to fail. It is valuable to the Fa mer, the Physician, the Clergyman, the Navigator, the Traveler, the Merchant, and everybody.
