TOWN AND COUNTRY.

SANFORD and his inimitable troupe are entertaining the people of Cumberland Valley. Everybody should go to see Sanford, the prince of minstrels.

The Chief Quartermaster of the Cavalry Bureau advertises a sale of a number of condemned "veteran" horses, to take place at Giesboro' Depot, on Friday, 24th inst.

A GRAND PIC-NIC will be held in Haehnlen's Woods, on Wednesday, 29th inst., for the benefit of the St. Peter's Verein. A gay time may be expected among our German friends, and there will doubtless be a large attendance of those in pursuit of pleasure.

A PORTION of Chestnut street was undergoing the process of scrapping this morning, and the filth is being removed. Other streets are sadly in need of a similar cleansing. The health of the city demands that all the streets and alleys should be kept clear of filth.

MARY JANE GIBSON, of the Sixth ward, has been arrested on a charge of keeping a disorderly bawdy house, and bound over for court, by Alderman Cole.

The same officer committed Wm. Warner and two colored boys named Freeman, to answer charges of larceny.

CITY TAXES.—The city council gives notice that the assessment of taxes for the year 1884, has been completed. All persons who pay the same to the City Treasurer, on or before the first day of July, will be entitled to an abatement of five per cent. Tax-payers should make a note of this.

The Great Central Sanitary Fair, in Philadelphia, is to close, finally, on Tuesday next, the 28th inst. On Monday and Tuesday the price of admission will be reduced to twenty-five cents, in order to allow the poorer classes an opportunity to visit the exhibition and contribute toward the good cause.

JOSEPH MOCHMERAN, alias Mortimer, who was arrested on Saturday, on a charge of abducting a young girl from her home, in Lancaster, has given bail for his appearance at the next term of court in that place, and is again at large. Joseph should be more careful in future, as the abduction of young females is a serious matter.

POCKET PICKED.—David Keefe, of Allegheny county, had his pocket relieved of a wallet containing forty odd dollars, this morning about seven o'clock, while in the vicinity of the depot, in this city. Fortunately the thief did not get hold of a pocket book containing a large sum of money, which Mr. K. had in another pocket.

The ladies of the little borough of Neville, in Cumberland county, held a strawberry festival three evenings of last week, for the benefit of the Christian Commission. They realized from the festival the handsome sum of over eleven hundred dollars. Well done, for a town having but a thousand of a population!

ARREST OF A DESERTER.—A deserter from the 20th Pennsylvania Cavalry, named John Hughes, has been arrested, at Newton Hamilton, Moffitt county, by detective officer Franklin. Hughes was a resident of Moffitt county, and Uncle Sam's officers have been looking for him for some time. He has been forwarded to his regiment.

THE SWORD VOTE.—The vote on the great presentation sword, in the Philadelphia fair, stood as follows, yesterday:

Meade	2,446
Hancock	1,404
McClellan	180
Grant	130
Scatterings	65
Total	4,224

SOME of the eastern papers contained an announcement, last evening, that the rebels were invading Cumberland Valley, and that the "one hundred day" men of New Jersey had been ordered to Harrisburg. There was not a word of truth in the report. A dispatch from Gen. Couch's headquarters says the valley was never more quiet than at present. The report was not believed here, although certain copperheads feigned to believe it.

OUR CITIZENS, old and young, great and small, anticipate having a happy time next Tuesday, when Dan Rice's High School will give entertainments, near the cotton factory. A very large company of trained dogs and monkeys, buffaloes, ponies, &c., besides "them mules" that everybody has read about. No doubt there will be a large crowd in attendance. See the advertisement in our columns.

REMEMBER the pic-nic of the Citizen boys, to be given in Hoffman's woods, to-morrow. Take your families and have a day's enjoyment, where improper characters will not molest you. You must, however, secure a ticket of invitation from the committee, in order to gain access to the ground. This you can get upon application. The railroad fare to the grove, and return, is only 25 cents. Trains leave the depot at 8 A. M. and 3 P. M., returning at 7 in the evening.

Go to Henry Gilbert's Hardware store, opposite the Court House, and see the new Barometer; they tell the weather accurately from 12 to 48 hours in advance. Every person should have one. je16-2w

ON THE TRACK.—Destruction of a Wagon.—This forenoon, as a countryman and wife, in a market wagon, were crossing the railroad tracks at the foot of Market street, a train of the Lebanon Valley road passed along in one direction, and a Penn'a R. R. train in the other. The wagon was struck by one of the trains, and demolished. The occupants were thrown out, but sustained no serious injury. The horse escaped unhurt. Persons crossing the track at that point should be extremely careful, as trains are almost constantly passing.

A REMARKABLE CASE.—On the 5th of May, in the first battle of the Wilderness, private Harper, of Pittsburgh, Pa., a member of the 102d Pennsylvania regiment, was wounded by a minie ball, which entered his head a short distance above the right eye, and grazing the base of the brain, lodged in the back of his neck. Some of the tendons of the eye were severed, and the eye dropped out. Several times he was expected to die, but he is now so much relieved as to be able to walk about the hospital. He says he's not hurt any, and can soon join his regiment.

HO, FOR THE BIG OX!—Mr. John Paulus has that mammoth three thousand pound ox on exhibition at his place of business, on Second street, below Mulberry, where the public are invited to call and see him. A box has been fitted up, into which visitors are expected to contribute a small sum—the proceeds to be forwarded to the Sanitary Commission. This is the largest and fattest ever exhibited in Harrisburg. He was fed three years, by Mr. John Noble, of Carlisle. He will remain on exhibition during the next two weeks.

The restaurant of the U. S. Sanitary Fair at Philadelphia is a great institution. Over 34,000 pieces of crockery and glass ware are in use. The average daily consumption of "produce" is enormous, viz: 900 lbs. fresh beef, 150 pairs spring chickens, 600 lbs. fowls, 400 lbs. lobsters, 50,000 oysters, 1,400 loaves of bread, 600 lbs. of butter, 300 quarts of milk, 600 quarts of strawberries, 2,000 quarts ice cream, besides an enormous quantity of hams, tongues, pickles, potatoes, &c. The average daily receipts amount to $6,000. Three hundred and thirty persons are on the pay-roll, and numerous ladies render gratuitous services.

A SIGN OF RETURNING GOOD SENSE.—A few months since, the Evening Bulletin took the lead of the Philadelphia newspapers in decrying, depreciating and denouncing the locality, the business and the people of Harrisburg. Since then a change has been worked in its sentiments and feeling, as the following just and complimentary notice of the U. S. Hotel and its proprietor, friend Hutchison, indicates:

"AN EXCELLENT HOTEL."—Mr. Hutchison, the proprietor of the United States Hotel in Harrisburg, has recently refitted and refurnished his establishment, and has made such other improvements as will conduce to the comfort of his numerous guests. The hotel is located in the immediate vicinity of the depot of the Pennsylvania Central and Lebanon Valley Railroads, and offers superior advantages to the traveler.

The finest Cadet Company now in the city is that under command of Captain Sayford, and one (if encouraged by the citizens) which they may soon be proud of. It is composed of sixty-five Young Men from the ages of sixteen to twenty, and none under five feet in height. They are taking a collection for the benefit of those in the company who are not able to purchase their own uniforms, and we hope our citizens will contribute liberally when called upon. They expect to be completely equipped in a month, and will then make a parade, which we have no doubt will surprise many if not all of our citizens. We learn that the company is to be named after the highest contributor. The following officers have been unanimously elected: Captain, Samuel M. Sayford; 1st Lieut., Jacob Cain; 2nd Lieut., Jacob Horning.

THE PUBLIC GROUNDS.—A great hue and cry has been raised against the Superintendent of Public Grounds, on the allegation that the capital grounds are frequented by hordes of prostitutes, who drive away decent people. Be this as it may, it requires a fine discrimination to discover such women among the well dressed and orderly crowds daily enjoying the shade of the capital grounds—a discrimination which only those who are familiar with such characters can exercise. We pass through those grounds daily several times, and have yet to see the first ill-behaved woman within that enclosure. The Superintendent takes special pains to preserve order—an order which is never broken unless it is by the false fastidiousness of those who, like the writer of the paragraph in question, is odorous with the pitch he has so often touched, and he therefore imagines in his own stench that everybody else "stinks."

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before the Mayor.—Peter Egbert, drunk and disorderly, was committed to prison for five days.

Frederick Reigle, of the 87th Pennsylvania, drunk and disorderly, was handed over to the Provost Marshal.

Wm. O'Tool and John Adams, for the same offence, were sent to Fort Simons for forty-eight hours.

Lizzie Lutz, a notorious strumpet, was sent to prison, to await a further hearing.

A young man was arrested to-day, as a suspicious character. It appears that he was on a "spree," and, seeing the police, he started to run. This led to his arrest, on the above charge. He was committed for a further hearing.

A resident of Ridge Avenue was fined $5 and costs, for maintaining an offensive manure-pile on his premises.

The U. S. Senate has, by a majority of three, refused to strike the $300 commutation clause from the enrollment bill.

Mrs. STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS was in Harrisburg yesterday, intending to spend a few weeks in visiting the rural portions of Pennsylvania, as a guest of the family of General Cameron. Last evening, however, she received a telegraphic dispatch from Washington city, announcing the melancholy fact that her only brother, an officer in one of the District of Columbia regiments, had been mortally wounded. The distinguished lady took the cars this morning, hastening to return home—perhaps, alas! to weep over a dead brother, but let us hope that she may arrive in time to contribute to his recovery and restoration to an army of which he is so gallant an ornament.

DAX GOODS.—I will, this day, commence to sell off my entire stock of summer dress goods, such as lawns, delaines, challies, alpaca, muskambiques, poil de chevre, poplins, and also a large lot of remnants—they will be sold at and below cost. Call soon.

GRADUATES IN MOURNING.—The Round Table this week has an admirable article on the subject of mourning habiliments, especially those by which lady mourners express the different degrees of their sorrow, and of which means of proclaiming ours, our sex are deprived. The writer says, in a fine vein of bitter irony:

We men have no such opportunity to express a sense of our bereavement in an elaborate way. Our tailors uniform us in funeral black, our chapeaux encircle our hats with crape, and there an end. A widower cannot advertise the freshness or staleness of his sad condition by his clothes. It is impossible to judge of the state of his feelings from his hue. In fact the taste of mankind in this country runs so generally to black that it is only now and then that affliction finds one of us in motley. In nine cases out of ten, all we require to put us in full mourning is a weed round the beaver. Cannot this be remedied? Why should there not be sorrow stores for the stupider sex? Is there any just reason why lonely men should not be put through a course of French greys and paces and lavender, as well as women? Do not our grades become fine by degrees, and beautifully less in the same way as those of the queens of creation? Certainly they do. Then let the progress of the sequence be made manifest in our coats, and vests, and pantaloons.

Let us have the gradations of faded melancholy denoted by our hat enclosures, so that the public, and more particularly the anglo-saxon portion of large numbers, and we are getting along with our tribulations. How can the fair creatures know, under present circumstances, whether an unfortunate widower has just been plunged into inconsolability, or is emerging from it in a lively and approachable frame of mind?

Who can say how many, many male mourners of nearly fifty years' standing may have missed eligible offers this blessed leap-year, on account of the forbidding character of their sable suits and love-repelling hat bands? We submit to society the propriety of a sliding scale of funeral habiliments for men. Nothing can succeed in this world without advertising, not even grief. Who will take a store on Broadway and open a dry-goods tribulation shop for bereaved masculinity?

SNOW ALL THE YEAR.—It is said that snow lies all the year in elevated places or at the base of large mountains in Mexico. This seems strange, but perhaps like many mysteries that cloud the mind, if properly explained, would be clear and tangible. In our country the snow melts away from the influence of the sun, and to speak figuratively dry goods are melting away rapidly through the inducement of low prices, at the cheap store of C. L. Bowman, No. 1, cor. of Front and Market streets.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Bannart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. BANNART & CO., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed, sold by druggists every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1884.
C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness, throat trouble, and in connection with them, all can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly,
T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannart's Troches.

W. C. CATTELL,
Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 1, 1884.
To C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that what has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSON,
Pastor of the Loonist St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c.,
G. G. KAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1884.

To C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir:—I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers.

Pure Vegetable Medicine.

ONE of the very best Vegetable Medicines is now offered to the citizens and strangers of this city. It is a pure vegetable medicine, and is the only one of its kind that can be taken without the least pain. Old and young, male and female, all can take of it. As to the truth of this statement, we testify, it has been well tried for the last ten years. It is prepared only and sold by Mrs. L. Ball, No. 27, south Pine street, Harrisburg, Pa. je28
