TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 5, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

State of the Thermometer To-day.

ALL persons entitled to pension, or bounty and back-pay, due deceased soldiers, can have any information in regard to it gratis, by calling on Sullivan S. Child, Claim Agent, Harrisburg, Pa. Office in DAILY TELEGRAPH Building, Third street. je30-d1w

DIVIDEND.—The Harrisburg Bridge Company has declared a dividend of three per cent. (free of State tax,) out of the profits of the last six months.

THE SCHOOLS.—The South ward schools have closed, and there will be a vacation of about six weeks, during which time the juveniles will have a fine opportunity to recreate. The North ward schools will not close their present term for some two weeks.

WANTED—A girl able to do good washing and general housework, in a small family.—She must bring good recomendation and the highest wages will be paid. Enquire at this office.

THE City Solicitor gives notice that the viewers appointed by the court to assess the damages to property caused by the opening of Verbeke street, from Fulton to Seventh street, will attend to the duties of their appointment on Wednesday, the 20th inst.

DISTURBING WORSHIP.—Baslin Moore (colored) was arrested on a charge of disturbing public worship at one of the colored churches in this city. He was taken before the Mayor, who held him in $400 bail to answer at court. This should be a warning to all persons who do not know how to conduct themselves when attending church.

FINED FOR BATHING.—Three negroes were before the Mayor yesterday, on a charge of bathing within the city limits in daylight. Their names are Henry Miller, Charles Thompson and Henry Price. They were released upon payment of a fine. Persons disposed to bathe in the streams should remember that they subject themselves to a fine by performing their ablutions in daylight.

AN ERROR IN THE INTERMENT OF A SOLDIER.—We mentioned the fact, on Monday morning, of private Henry Gether having been found dead in the cars, on the train from the West, on Sunday morning, and that his remains were interred in the burial grounds attached to the Dauphin county poor house.—The facts are that Mr. Samuel D. Young, Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railroad a this point, on learning of the death of private Gether, ordered a handsome walnut coffin for the reception of the corpse, with such other attentions which respect dictates as due to the dead, and then, as Mr. Young supposed, made arrangements for placing the remains in the Harrisburg Cemetery, there to await the disposal of the friends of the departed hero. By some accident these generous arrangements were defeated and the hero buried at the alms house cemetery. We make this explanation to show that there was no purpose of disrespect to the glorious dead, but that our most honored and eligible localities are ever open to the reception of the remains of our heroes.

THE REBEL RAID—Excitement, &c.—The rumors put in circulation on Sunday evening, that a large rebel force was moving in this direction from Martinsburg, and that our forces there had fallen back, created considerable excitement here; and a stir among the military caused many to fear that our State was really about to be invaded. The panic of last year was brought vividly to mind, and some persons of weak nerves pictured a repetition of the scenes and deeds of that occasion. Madame Rumor, who appears to have a hundred tongues, stated on Svnday evening that the rebel force was 20,000 strong, and that they had reached Hagerstown and burned it. The majority of our citizens, however, were not alarmed, and many even doubted that the rebels were at Martinsburg.

Yesterday (Monday) the Cumberland Valley trains brought several car loads of negroes, who had skedaddled from Chambersburg and other points, and there was considerable excitement in the vicinity of the depot. Passengers on the train reported that the rebel pickets were at Hagerstown, and that Ewell and his corps were coming. A dispatch dated Chambersburg at eleven o'clock, said the raiders were hourly expected there.

Towards evening, however, a dispatch was received from Gen. Couch, stating that no rebels had crossed the Potomac. The excitement at once abated, everybody breathed freely, and spent the evening in celebrating the "Glorious Fourth" as best they could.

We learn, from reliable sources, that the citizens of Franklin and Cumberland counties were greatly alarmed at the prospect of an invasion at a period when the waving grain was ready for the reaper. Many of the farmers had already commenced removing their stock, but returned to their homes when the true state of affairs was ascertained.

To-day we have had various rumors relative to the whereabouts of the rebel raiders, but none of them are considered reliable. It is not believed that the enemy has crossed the Potomac.

SUBSTITUTE WANTED.—$600 will be paid for an acceptable Substitute, who is not liable to draft. Apply to Sullivan S. Child, TELEGRAPH building. jy5-3t

THE AMENDED ENROLLMENT ACT.—The amendments to the enrollment act will be found on our first page. Many important changes have been made in this law.

BY reference to the Congressional proceedings in our telegraphic columns, it will be seen that Congress has adjourned sine die.

THE regular stated meeting of the Paxton Fire Company will be held at their room this (Tuesday) evening, July 5th, at 8 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present, as business of great importance will be transacted.

MAD DOGS ABOUT.—A child of Barney Campbell, chief-of-police, was severely bitten in the hand, by a mad dog, to-day. The Mayor publishes an important proclamation relative to dogs, in our columns, and it is hoped that every unmuzzled canine will be brought to justice. Look well to your dogs.

SURGEON JAMES E. WILSON, formerly contract surgeon at this post, and now surgeon of the 184th regiment P. V., died suddenly, at the Brady House, this morning. We forbear to enter into the painful details of his untimely end, as we are unwilling to add to the already poignant grief which has overwhelmed his stricken family and friends. He was a native of Centre county, and a physician of considerable experience and fine abilities. His remains will doubtless be removed hence for interment in that county.

DRUNKS.—Mercy J. Keeler and Simon Felix were before the Mayor, yesterday, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. They were discharged, upon payment of fine and costs.

Ida Berry, a notorious colored nymph, whose name is familiar in police circles, was arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and sent to Fort Simmons for 30 days. After being placed in the lock up, yesterday, Ida kept up a continuous yelling and screaming, greatly to the annoyance of the neighborhood. It was with considerable difficulty that she was quieted. Perhaps that was her method of celebrating the Fourth of July.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad yesterday, which resulted in the destruction of a locomotive and a number of cars, and the injury of two persons, as the first freight train, which left here about eight o'clock, reached a point about a mile this side of Middletown. Workmen were engaged in repairing the track, and were in the act of putting down a new rail as the train dashed along. A red flag which had been placed on the road as a signal, was not observed by the engineer until too late to avoid an accident. The locomotive and eight cars ran off the track. Five of the latter, and the locomotive (No. 235) were rendered complete wrecks. The latter were laden with flour and tobacco.

So great was the speed at which the train was running, that two trees, (one of them a foot in diameter,) which were struck by the locomotive, were pulled up by the roots as though they had been weeds. The following persons were wounded:

Samuel Kurtz, the engineer, (who resides in Lancaster) received a contusion in the forehead.

Michael M'Coyne, a Scotchman, who was stealing his passage on the train, had one of his legs broken. Having no home, he was sent to the alms house.

The train was in charge of A. C. Barr, (conductor,) of Lancaster.

"THE GLORIOUS FOUTH."—The Fourth of July passed by without any general demonstration on the part of our citizens. Its arrival was not announced by the peals of bells and the thunder of cannon, as in days gone by. By the removal of Capt. Bates' Battery we were deprived of the anticipated national salute. At an early hour, however, the boys engaged in the amusement of exploding fire crackers, firing pistols, etc.,—sport which is only allowed them once a year. Many of our business houses were closed, and the stars and stripes were liberally displayed throughout the city. Labor was suspended in the various shops, and the workmen permitted to enjoy our national holiday as best they could. The streets were thronged with men, women and children from morning until night. Many of our citizens spent the day in the country in social parties, or in gunning, fishing, &c.

The pic-nics in Hoffman's and Haehnlen's groves attracted a large number of persons, who could conceive of no more pleasant manner of whiling away the hours of a hot summer day. The hackmen were busy conveying visitors to and from the pic-nics, and doubtless made the National Sabbath a day of profit We learn that the proceeds of the pic-nics were quite large, and doubtless resulted in a handsome surplus above expenses.

The old soldiers held their usual dinner on the Island, and were joined by the juvenile Zouaves and a number of citizens. These old veterans are always prompt to celebrate the anniversary of our Independence. Their ranks are gradually lessening. Each year leaves their number less, and the whitened locks of the survivors remind us that ere many years pass by, the "Old Soldiers of 1812" will be among "the things that were."

In the evening there was a mass of human beings along Market street, from Front to the depot, and the other streets of the city wore a lively appearance. It seemed as though everybody was enjoying the evening of the Fourth. There was a liberal display of fire works all along the streets, and the noise caused by the explosion of all sorts of crackers, rockets, etc., was almost deafening. By midnight the streets were deserted, and the city had resumed its wonted quiet.

Thus has another Fourth of July passed away. When the next occurs may the people all over the land have occasion to rejoice, and the day be celebrated everywhere!

NO EXCUSE FOR EXPLOSIONS.

ASHCROFT'S LOW WATER DETECTOR

IS AN INFALLIBLE PROTECTION against explosion or burning of the flues or boiler, as nothing can prevent it (if not tampered with) from giving immediate notice of lack of water in the boiler, in season to put on a supply without drawing the fires. Want of water is the great source of so many sad catastrophes which have recently occurred.

We warrant this instrument to be a perfect insurance against such contingencies. Price $50.

Full instructions as to the mode of application as well as reference to most of the prominent manufacturers and iron masters of the State using them, sent on application to D. C. MEADE & CO.,

LIQUID RENNET.

LIQUID RENNET yields with milk the most luscious of all deserts for the table; the lightest and most grateful diet for invalids and children. Milk contains every element of the bodily constitution; when coagulated with rennet it is always light and easy of digestion, and supports the system with the least possible excitement. When still greater nutritive power is desired, cream and sugar may be added. A teaspoonful converts a quart of milk into a firm curd. Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail by S. A. KUNKEL,
