DEATH OF AN EMINENT HARRISBURG LAW-afternoon the fact of the death of John Adams Fisher, one of our oldest citizens, and a distinguished member of the Harrisburg of this city. At a meeting held last evening, thirty-six of the members signified their willingness to go, and it now depends upon the young men of Harrisburg to fill up the company to the required number, and it will be the first to move to Washington. We hope the patriotic young men will not let this opportunity pass, as another offering such manifold inducements may not again occur.-Meetings are held every evening, at the corner of Front and Chestnut streets, where all are invited to come who wish to enroll their names among their country's defenders. -----

AN AMBROTYPE FROM THE WILDERNESS BATTLE FIELD .- An ambrotype was picked up from the side of a dead Pennsylvania soldier, on the battle field in the Wilderness, and has been brought to this city. It contains the likeness of a lady, at whose side is seated a little girl, wearing a black sack; on the lap of the woman is seated a child clothed in white. The dress of the woman is of barred goods, and she had on a large breastpin and a collar, The picture will be left at this office for one week for examination by persons who may think they are its owners. It would be highly prized by the family of the deceased soldier, as it was probably that of his wife and children.

Will our exchanges be kind enough to notice the above in their columns?

DARING BURGLARY .--- One of the most daring burglaries that we have ever recorded occurred last evening, on Front streef, below Washington avenue, in the house of C. O. Zimmerman, Esq. It is supposed that the burglars effected an entrance between twelve and two o'clock, from the rear of the residence. They entered the room of Mr. Zimmerman's father, carried off a watch and twelve dollars in money; thence they entered a room occupied by one of the lady members of the family, where they got six dollars in money. There were many valuables in the parlors and dining room, which the burglars did not seem disposed to appropriate. An ice box in the yard was opened, and a bottle marked "Old Whisky" was uncorked, but its contents being catsup, it is doubtful whether the thieves imbibed. It is supposed that the thieves were frightened by Mr. Zimmerman, himself, who had occasion to rise from his bed about two o'clock, and the noise of his walking to and fro in his room doubtless induced the rascals to decamp. It is more than likely that if these same bold operators visit our friend Conrad, he will be prepared to give them a
