OCAL NEWS .- We will be greatly obliged, ome of our friends in the various boroughs townships will furnish us with items of il news. Events and occurrences of interoften transpire which the editor of a paper rs nothing about, and unless some one in neighborhood apprises him of it, he may all time remain in ignorance of what has irred. If promptly notified of everything ig on in the county, he could make a much readable and interesting paper.

FORE ALDERMAN KLINE. - Yesterday an idual who gave his name as W. Hopkins enby, was taken before Alderman Kline, a charge of passing notes of a broken nk. It appears that he purchased from a n named Henry Quigley, of Cumberland ley, one or more horses, for which he paid Q. two hundred and sixty dollars in bills the Allegheny County Bank of Maryland. igley, upon learning that the bank was ten, pursued Lazenby, captured him, and k him before the Alderman. Upon his rson were found notes of the above-named nk, amounting to $258, and a small sum Government funds. Lazenby was commitd to prison, for court, to answer the charge passing worthless money.

THE LUTHERAN PIC-NIC .- It is with no orary feelings of pleasure that we contemte the happy time the Lutherans will have spending a day in social, friendly, Chrisn intercourse, away from the dust and heat d the contaminating influences of the city, the pleasant and beautiful vicinity of old erry, with which is associated so much of early history of the first settlers, and here the young, with their gay and innocent arts, can truly enjoy themselves amid the edom, the beauty and the life invigorating of the country. The assemblage will no bt be very large, as the Lutherans number eral churches and Sunday schools, and it I be an interesting sight to see so many of r family, as it were, meeting together as iends, with warm and sincere brotherly love ad affection one to another. Such scenes on irth reminds us of Heaven, where all pride ad distinctions fade away, and where inexessible love overflows in every heart.

Another Daring Robbery.-It seems as ough Harrisburg is nowinfested by the most pert thieves that ever plied their vocation thin the limits of the city. We have chroned a number of the most daring feats comtted here recently, by the thieves, and yet lost every day we hear of new instances ere private residences have been robbed. night the House of Mr. Jacob Ziegler, Second street, between Mulberry and second street, bearing, who assed in by way of the yard in the rear of e dwelling. DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN HARRISBURGERS.-We announced, under our obituary head yesterday, the death of Mr. John Care, a wellknown citizen of Harrisburg, and at one time treasurer of Dauphin county. He was clerk in the Commissary department at the time of living, a man of irreproachable character and blameless demeanor.

Mr. Henry Frisch, another well-known citizen, died last night, very suddenly. He was the Union. We now take special pleasure of an enterprising and prompt business man, laying this order before our readers: whose loss will be sadly felt by a large circle of friends, and interests with whom and which he was identified.

EXCELLENT SUMMER DRINES.—Corn Drink. -To five gallons of cold water, add one quart of sound corn and two quarts of molasses.-Put into a keg. Shake well, and in two or three days it will be fit for use. Bung tight. It may be flavored with essence of spruce or lemon. The corn will last to make five or six brewings. It is a cheap and simple beer, and is called very good.

Ginger Beer. - Take of ginger bruised or sliced, one and a half ounces; cream of tartar, one ounce; loaf sugar, one pound; one lemon, sliced; put them into a pan, and pour six quarts of boiling water upon them. When nearly cold, put in a little yeast, and stir it festivities of the occasion. We learn for about a minute. Let it stand till next day, then strain and bottle it. It is fit to drink in three days, but will not keep good longer than a fortnight. The corks should be tied down, and the bottles placed upright in a cool place.

Fine Mead. -Beat to strong froth the whites of three eggs, mix them with six gallons of water; sixteen quarts of strained honey, and the yellow rind of two dozen large lemons, pared very thin. Boil all together during three quarters of an hour, skimming it well. Then put it into a tub, and when lukewarm add three tablespoonfulls of the best fresh yeast. Cover it, and leave it to ferment. When it has done working, transfer it to a barrel, with the kemon peel in the bottom. Let it stand six months, then bottle it.

DISINFECTING AGENTS. -Either of the following will answer the purpose, while they cost but a trifle:

1. One pint of the liquor of chloride of zinc in one pailful of water, and one pound of chloride of lime in another pailful of water. that can be used, and when thrown upon decayed vegetable matter of any description, will effectually destroy all offensive odors.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

PENNSYLVANIA 88. A. G. CURTIN. In the Name and by the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. ANDREW G. CURTIN, GOVERNOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTS.

A PROCLAMATION It is now ascertained that a large rebel force has been detached from Richmond and is advancing on the north. So large a portion of our army is at remote points, that it be-comes necessary to raise immediately a sufficient body to repel them. They are already within the borders of the Commonwealth. You have always heretofore been ready to answer the call of your country. You will not be less ready to come forward when your own homes and firesides are to be defended against a profligate horde of plunderers. I am authorized by the President of the United States to call for twelve thousand volunteers (in addition to those required by my Proclamation of yesterday) to serve for one hundred days in Penn-sylvania, Maryland and Washington and its

I refer to the General Order issued from these Headquarters, Pennsylvania Militia, No. 50, dated July 5, 1864, published with this proclamation, for the details of the arrangements. I do most earnestly desire the good and loyal men of the Commonwealth, and especially the veteran soldiers in all her borders, to show themselves worthy of her in this emergency.

Her sons have established for themselves, on many a bloody field, a reputation for the martial virtues which they will not now forfeit, when both their well-earned fame and the safety of their homes and families are at

A. G. CURTIN. In the Name and by the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

ANDREW G. CURTIN. GOVERNOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTH. A PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS, The President of the United tates has, this day, made a call upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for twelve thousand militia vo unteer infantry, to serve at Washington and its vicinity, for one hundred days, unless sooner discharged: I, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the said Commonwealth, do make this, my Proclamaion, in response thereto, and do hereby call on th. 3 freemen of Pennsylvania, of military age, to come promptly forward, as they have here tofore done, and fill the requisition for this imports at service.

It is a parent that the enemies of our Governmen t, in desperation, are threatening as with an armed force, in the hope that the army of a speral Grant may be withdrawn from before Richmond, and I call upon the citizens of this Commonwealth, capable of bearing arms, to wome forward without delay. and thus aid our Neroic brothers in the great

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A DREAM THAT WAS NOT ALL A DREAM.-Sleep hath its own world: And a wide realm of wild reality;

Dreams, in their development, have breath, And tears, and torture, and the touch of joy; They leave a weight upon our waking thoughts. What are they? Creations of the n ind. I would recall a vision which I dreamed, Perchance in sleep-'

I thought a great panorama was stretched out before me, upon which were the names of all the different kinds of dry goods, with the prices attached. One particular spot upon the canvas seemed to impress my mind most: it was where the name of C. L. Bowman's Cheap Dry Goods Store was plain to the vision. Upon waking I repaired to the store, No. 1, Southeast, corner of Front and Market streets, where I purchased delaines, muslin calico, and dry goods generally, much lower than I had dreamed of.

HARRIEBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVAET—Dear Sir: I have used

Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually,

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,

To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in place where the vocal organs are very much taxed. I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing th disctiveness of the delivery of public ac dresses. Yours, &c., JNO. WALKER JACKSON.

Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church. To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sir: Having use your Troches, I am free to say they are the best? I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, do G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church. DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864. To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: — I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great bene-at to all public speakers. A. J. HERR COLGATE'S HONEY SOAP.
