The Episcopal Mission Church, on Ridge Avenue, (of which Rev. A. J. Barrow has recently been chosen pastor,) will be open for divine service on to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

The new building in process of erection by the proprietor of the State Capitol Hotel is assuming immense proportions.

An open market for the purchase of Government horses has been established in this city.

PLACES OF RENDEZVOUS.—An important circular appears in our columns, relative to the places appointed for the one hundred day's men to report for duty.

"ALERT SOCIETIES" are composed of young misses, whose object it is to sew for the soldiers. Many little articles which they can make call down the blessings of the soldiers on their heads.

ADDRESS ON TEMPERANCE.—The distinguished Temperance Orator, Mr. L. L. Allen, of Ohio, will deliver an address in the First Free Baptist Church, to-morrow (Sunday) evening at 6 o'clock.

Robinson, of Harrisburg, will address the citizens of Millersburg and vicinity, in behalf of the United States Christian Commission and its great work of charity among the sick and wounded soldiers of the army of the Union, on Friday evening, July 15th.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—There will be service in the Baptist Church, corner of Second and Pine streets, on to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, and in the evening at 7½. Rev. A. Judson Rowland, of Rochester, N. Y., will occupy the pulpit. The public are invited to attend.

SOW BUCKWHEAT.—The agricultural papers advise farmers to sow buckwheat this month. If buckwheat is sown now, it will enter largely into the consumption of breadstuffs next winter, and the harvest for it will come at a time when farmers will be somewhat relieved from present work.

ADVENTURES OF A REBEL.—His Capture.—On Thursday night an individual visited one of our clothing stores, and made several purchases, paying for the same in specie. When leaving, he remarked that "he would now go across the river." This excited the suspicions of the salesman in the store, who concluded to watch his operations. The stranger was followed to the river bank, and afterwards through a number of streets, until he arrived in the vicinity of the Provost Marshal's office, when the storekeeper secured the assistance of a guard and captured the suspected individual. He was taken before the Provost Marshal, and examined, when he acknowledged that he belonged to the rebel army, and had come here from Hagerstown. A considerable sum of gold was found upon his person. He was then placed under guard for a further hearing, which will probably take place on Monday.

ARREST OF BOUNTY JUMPERS.—Officer Franklin has just returned from a trip to Michigan, which State he visited in pursuit of William and Robert Binghaman, who were deserters from the 184th Penna. Regiment. These men belonged to Snyder county, in this State, and enlisted in the above regiment, here, last spring. After obtaining local and other bounties they left, as they supposed, for parts unknown. Detective Franklin by some means traced the Binghamans to St. Joseph county, Michigan, where, after considerable manœuvring, he found them. They were engaged in farming, and passed by the name of Heater. They were not a little surprised to find themselves confronted by Franklin, who immediately took them in charge, and brought them to this city. One of them had made an engagement for the 4th of July with a young lady, who seemed deeply affected at his sudden departure. They will be forwarded to their regiment. When Franklin gets upon the track of a bounty jumper or deserter, there is but little hope for escape.

AN EXTRAORDINARY COMBINATION.—The arrangement effected between Thayer & Noyes, Circus and Van Amburgh & Co.'s Menagerie, by which these two well known and highly popular companies have united their forces and exhibit in one tent for a single admission fee, results in presenting to the public such an entertainment as is worthy to be seen, and should receive a degree of patronage commensurate with the magnitude of the enterprise, and the liberality with which the Managers of the two establishments are carrying out their plans. The outfit of the double concern is said to be magnificent in the extreme, a gorgeous chariot, new cages and harness, superb horses and splendid trappings combining to produce a most brilliant effect as they move through the country. The enormous elephant "Hannibal," seventy years of age and weighing 15,000 pounds, is attached to the Menagerie and will loom up hugely in the grand procession as it enters town. The collection of living wild animals includes an infinite variety of rare and curious beasts and birds from every part of the globe, presenting a grand exposition of animated nature, which is as instructive as it is interesting. We are assured that the equestrian and gymnastic performances, given in connection with the display of wild beasts, will be of the most dashing character, and from the extent of the troupe and the celebrity of many of the performers, there can be no doubt that this department of the mammoth exhibition will be eminently satisfactory. Dr. J. L. Thayer, who treats his patients with allopathic doses of fun and jollity, officiates as principal humorist, and all persons suffering from the blues, indigestion or chronic meanness, will do well to give his remedies a trial, while those who are well will feel a good deal better after giving him a call. The combination will visit this place on July 22d and 23d.

YORK, Pa., July 8, 1864.

Mr. Editor:—I cannot see why Gov. Curtin does not proclaim martial law, (or something to that effect,) and make us stay here and defend our town. By proclaiming that law here we can raise about 600 or 700 men. But the way that it is now you won't get five men out of the borough. Proclaim martial law, I say. We can get 400 to 500 soldiers out of the U. S. A. Gen. Hospital here, out scouting already. But if you cannot get any of these Companies to come out, why then the rebels will do what they please. There ought to be martial law in all of our counties. That way we can get 8,000 to 10,000 troops. Yours, &c.

NOTE.—Gov. Curtin has no power to proclaim martial law, and we have no doubt that the General commanding this Department will exercise the same power over York that he exercised over Chambersburg whenever he deems it advisable and necessary.

FIVE miners were burned in a mine near Ashland, Pa., last week, by an explosion of fire damp.

A STATED MEETING of the Friendship Fire Company will be held in their hall on Monday evening, at the usual hour.

The express train on the Lebanon Valley Railroad, last week, ran forty-five miles in one hour and forty-five minutes, including seven stoppages.

THE GOOD TIME COMING.—When that period arrives in which men care as much for intellectual food as they do for intoxicating stimulants, the newspapers will become popular, printers grow fat, and editors have a holiday.

MRS. MAGDALENE GREGG, who recently died in Franklin county, was one hundred years and one month old. She counted nine children, thirty-one grand-children, thirty-seven great-grand-children, and six great-grand-children—making a total living posterity of one hundred and three, representing five generations.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY.—A son of Jeremiah Sloaaker was drowned in Green Spring, a few days since. Deceased was but two or three years old. It is supposed he was dipping water with his hat, and fell into the stream headforemost. Mr. John Waggoner, of Newville, was thrown from a wagon, the other day, and sustained serious injury about his head. The recent strawberry festival in Newville netted $820 for the Sanitary Commission.

THE editor of the Reading Daily Times visited the State Capital a few days ago, and speaks as follows of the place and its institutions:

HARRISBURG.—Our readers all know something of the State Capital, and of the character of its people, and have heard of their lack of hospitality, &c. Being the seat of Government, where all the rogues from the State—those that are elected and those who are not, gather together, it is no wonder that the people of such a city should be charged with inhospitality; because hospitality would be thrown away on such, so that charge amounts to nothing. Having paid the city our first visit, we can speak feelingly of the kindness and hospitality of the people of the Capital. The capitol buildings, themselves, not to put them to too severe a test, are a miserable apology, and the people are deceiving themselves in the eyes of the country, by not promptly instituting their representatives to vote the necessary means to build a new capitol. But as often as an appropriation is asked for, the bug-bear of "removal" is brought forward to knock it in the head. The city is old fashioned and by no means handsome; but has some noticeable features—for instance, the markets are most excellent institutions. But Harrisburg prides itself, and very justly, upon the superiority of its hotels. We can speak in favor of the "Jones House" from personal knowledge, and knowing that a good hotel is, in every particular, the proprietor, Mr. Mann, Mr. West, the superintendent, clerks and attendants are all imbued with the importance of the posts they hold, and each one acts as if the entire responsibility and credit of the establishment rested upon himself. This is the secret of keeping a good hotel.

A SHOWMAN IN TROUBLE.—We notice by the Pittsburg papers that the proprietor of the wild-woman got himself into trouble in the Iron City. The showman is doubtless Spaff Himan, who held forth on Third street, in this city, during last winter and spring, and who was compelled to leave here or answer a charge of maintaining a resort for pick-pockets. The Pittsburg Dispatch says:

It appears that the showman, with commendable ambition, determined that his "show" should not be surpassed by any others in the way of attractions, a "wild woman, captured in the swamps of Florida," was announced. A representation of that remarkable specimen of humanity was painted in glaring colors on an immense sheet of canvas, and hung out to the gaze of an admiring crowd. Among those who were attracted by this flaming poster, was Dr. ———, who, with the laudable desire of gaining additional information in relation to the human species, deposited the "small sum of fifteen cents," and "walked in" to see the great "living curiosity." An inspection of the "wild woman," however, did not seem to satisfy the curiosity of the Doctor, and on coming out of the show, he charged the showman with imposing on the public, and demanded his money back. The disgust of the showman can be better imagined than described, and the utter want of appreciation on the part of the Doctor same in for a full share of his indignation. The Doctor then went before Mayor Alexander, and made information against the enterprising showman for obtaining money under false pretences, alleging that the so-called "wild woman" was nothing more than a deformed colored woman, who had been picked up by the showman for the purpose of "making a speculation." The Mayor brought the showman before him, but he was released upon promising to leave the city forthwith. In an hour or two the show had disappeared, and with it the "great expectations" of a "good thing" entertained by the proprietor.

GENERAL LEE'S PERSONAL PROPERTY.—The following are some of the articles belonging to the personal effects of General Lee, which have been condemned by the United States District Court, and are advertised to be sold in Auction, on the 19th instant, by the United States Marshal, viz: Eleven sofa-bottom chairs, four arm red plush set chairs, one brussels carpet, three red plush set sofas, seven large paintings, one extension table, one large painting of Washington, two paintings of Washington's generals on battle-field, four book-cases, cane-bottom chairs, bedsteads, wardrobes, mattresses, stands, center tables, bureaus, sideboards, hair, shuck, and straw mattresses, candlesticks, fancy glass cases, oil paintings, engravings, and almost every variety of ornaments, viz: Boxes of books, carpets, &c., &c.

Inland Telegraph Company.

We have heretofore alluded to the fact that the vindication of the Managers of the Inland Telegraph Company had been most complete, and that the Secretary of War was satisfied not only of the superior advantages of this corporation, but of the faithfulness and loyalty of those in its charge. The following order, issued from the War Department early in June, was promulgated in all the armies of the Union. We now take special pleasure of laying this order before our readers:

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18, 1864. The order of the war department prohibiting the transmission of military business over the wires of the Independent and Inland Telegraph Companies is hereby revoked. All officers forwarding public business to this department can employ these the same as other lines. By order of the Secretary of War, THOS. T. BOKERT, Major and Assistant Supt. Military Telegraph, jy9dd

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

PENNSYLVANIA SS. A. G. CURTIN.

In the Name and by the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. ANDREW G. CURTIN, GOVERNOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTH.

A PROCLAMATION. It is now ascertained that a large rebel force has been detached from Richmond and is advancing on the north. So large a portion of our army is at remote points, that it becomes necessary to raise immediately a sufficient body to repel them. They are already within the borders of the Commonwealth, and to come always heretofore been ready to answer the call of your country. You will not be less ready to come forward when your own homes and firesides are to be defended against a profligate horde of plunderers. I am authorized by the President of the United States to call for twelve thousand volunteers (in addition to those required by my Proclamation of yesterday) to serve for one hundred days in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Washington and its vicinity. I appeal to the freemen of Pennsylvania to rouse themselves for the necessary effort, and to come promptly to sweep the invaders from her soil.

I refer to the General Order issued from these Headquarters, Pennsylvania Militia, No. 50, dated July 5, 1864, published with this proclamation, for the details of the arrangements. I do most earnestly desire the good and loyal men of the Commonwealth, and especially the veteran soldiers in all her borders, to show themselves worthy of her in this emergency. Her sons have established for themselves, on many a bloody field, a reputation for the martial virtues which they will not now forfeit, when both their well-earned fame and the safety of their homes and families are at stake. Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this 6th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-ninth. By the Governor, ELI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR. PENNSYLVANIA SS. A. G. CURTIN.

In the Name and by the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. ANDREW G. CURTIN, GOVERNOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTH.

A PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS, The President of the United States has, this day, made a call upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for twelve thousand militia volunteers infantry, to serve at Washington and its vicinity, for one hundred days, unless sooner discharged.

I, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the said Commonwealth, do make this, my Proclamation, in response thereto, and do hereby call on the freemen of Pennsylvania, of military age, to come promptly forward, as they have heretofore done, and fill the requisition for this important service.

It is apparent that the enemies of our Government, in desperation, are threatening us with an armed force, in the hope that the army of General Grant may be withdrawn before Richmond, and I call upon the citizens of this Commonwealth, capable of bearing arms, to come forward without delay, and thus aid our heroic brothers in the great Army of the Republic.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this fifth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-ninth. By the Governor, ELI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

HEADQUARTERS PENN'A MILITIA, Harrisburg, July 5, 1864. GENERAL ORDERS, No. 50.

Names of the men, and the dates between which each man was boarded and lodged, must be stated in the accounts rendered.

VI. The troops will be organized according to the general regulations of the service, armed, clothed, paid, transported, subsisted and supplied as other troops in the United States service, and mustered into the service of the United States by regiments, as soon as filled to the minimum strength, the term of service to be reckoned from the date of muster into the United States service.

VII. As a reward for meritorious conduct, and also to secure valuable military experience, appointments of field officers will be made, except under peculiar circumstances, from men who have been in service and have been honorably discharged.

VIII. No bounty will be paid the troops, nor will this service exempt from draft, but if any officer or soldier in this special service should be drafted, he will be credited for the service rendered. By order of A. G. CURTIN, Governor and Commander-in-Chief, A. L. RUSSELL, Adj't Gen. Penn'a.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A DREAM THAT WAS NOT ALL A DREAM.— "Sleep hath its own world; And a wide realm of wild reality; Dreams, in their development, have breath; And tears, and torture, and the touch of joy; They leave a weight upon our waking thoughts. What are they? Creations of the mind. I would recall a vision which I dreamed, Perchance in sleep—

I thought a great panorama was stretched out before me, upon which were the names of all the different kinds of dry goods, with the prices attached. One particular spot upon the canvas seemed to impress my mind so fast, it was where the name of C. L. Bowman's Cheap Dry Goods Store was plain to the vision. Upon waking I repaired to the store, No. 1, Southeast corner of Front and Market streets, where I purchased delaines, muslin, calico, and dry goods generally, much lower than I had dreamed of. Yours, &c., ONE WHOSE DREAM WAS REALITY.

Bannart's Troches. For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa.; to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggists every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen: HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864. C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, colds and croup. I have found them serviceable in time of need, most effectually. Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannart's Troches. W. G. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church. HARRISBURG, Jan. 1, 1864. To C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir: In my habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed. I have found the need of some genuine expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. HAKESTRAW, Pastor of Edge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864. To C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir:—I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HERB
