HARRISBURG, PA. MONDAY EVENING, JULY 11, 1864.

FOR THE AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION SOLDIERS' RIGHT TO VOTE

Election Tuesday, Aug. 2, 1864. NATIONAL UNION TICKET

FOR PRESIDENT, Abraham Lincoln;

OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Andrew Johnson, OF TENNESSEE.

THE SITUATION.

No especial news has been received this morning. The city is still crowded with strangers and the cry is "still they come." Most of those now coming in are from Maryland and the counties of Adams and York. A large number of the farmers from the Cumberland Valley have returned to their homes, and are by this time gethering in the harvest. The balance of the government horses and mules formerly stationed at Hagerstown and Chambersburg, passed through here this morning for Union Deposit, where they can be recruited until fit for Government use.

A dispatch published in another column informs us that the damages on the Northern Central railroad are not near so extensive as was at first supposed, two bridges having been burnt and some iron torn up. These damages can be repaired in a very short time.

Dispatches received this afternoon inform us that a squad of rebels ventured within four miles of Baltimore, and destroyed the residence of Gov. Bradford, of Maryland; also, that telegraphic communications between Philadelphia and Baltimore had been cut near Magnolia station, on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, by a small force of the enemy. It is also reported that a passenger train on that road was captured, but the rumor is not confirmed, nor is it known that the road has been cut.

Bounties to Volunteers.

We observe that various cities and counties are offering a bounty of fifty dollars to each volunteer for one hundred days. Philadelphia has already passed an ordinance to that effect, and her agents are now traveling through the adjacent cities and counties enlisting men and paying the bounty. The citizens of Lancaster held a very large meeting on last Sunday evening, and resolved to call on the Commissioners to ask them to offer a similar bounty to her defenders. This is all right and proper, and we hope that a similar move may be made here. Let those who are too old and feeble to shoulder a musket, contribute liberally out of their abundance to sustain the brave defender of his country. By paying these bounties out of the common county fund, you will reach also a class of men who have done very little or nothing at all in support of the war; these men will thus be obliged to pay their due proportion in the shape of taxes. We repeat again, let a meeting at once be held in the Court House to urge the importance of raising our quotas immediately, and let us pay the men who will go liberally.

P. S. Since the above was put in type, a call has been issued for a meeting to be held in Market Square this evening Let there be a general attendance on the part of our citizens. See call in another column.

IMPORTANT MOVEMENT OF TROOPS. -The days agd that there were indications of an immediate movement on Mobile. The troops in the unfortunate expedition under General Banks have sailed from New Orleans for some destination-where, is the question. Sixteen thousand men had left New Orleans prior to the 19th ult., and eight thousand more up to the date of the latest advices. One opinion is that they have gone to reinforce General Grant; another that they have moved to attack Mobile. The sudden landing of twentyfive thousand veterans under General Canby at Mobile, would make a stir among the rebels under Johnston. Should the Louisiana veterans be added to the Army of the Potomac, Grant will the sooner be able to press Lee to extremity. The New Orleans expedition must soon be heard from."

A portion of the above troops, sixteen thousand, arrived at Baltimore a few days since. and we have no doubt are ere this actively engaged against the rebel invaders.

THE OFFICERS OF THE KEARSARGE.—The Kearsarge is now prominent before the public, and a list of her officers may not be uninteresting:

Captain, John A. Winslow. Lieutenant Commander, James S. Thorn-

Surgeon, John M. Brown.

Paymaster, Joseph A. Smith. Engineers—Ohief, William H. Cushman; Second Assistant, Wm. H. Badlam; Third Assistants, Frederick L. Miller, Sidney L. Smith and Henry McConnell.

Boatswain, James C. Walton. Acting Gunner, Franklin A. Graham.

The Kearsarge is only rated third-class in the Navy Register, but henceforth she will munity. But does the Democratic party, as a be rated first-class in the public estimation. Her gallant commander, Captain Winslow, is a North Carolinian by birth. He and his brother officers, and the brave tars under them, will have the thanks of the whole nation, and when they return they will receive such a welcome as scarcely any ship's crew ever before received.

THE DEMAND FOR THE SURRENDER OF SEMMES. -Relative to the demand of Captin Winslow for the surrender of Semmes, the Paris correspondent of the New York Times says that Mr. Dayton has advised Mr. Adams to demand and means to pick up all the officers and men of the Alabama, but the boats of the English yacht ran in and actually stole them away, as if acting upon a prearranged plan, thus constituting it a clear case of intervention. Capt. Semmes and party did not therefore escape. They were stolen away by a party who was indirectly interfering in the fight. There was no wish on the part of Capt. Winslow to see Capt. Semmes drowned. On the contrary. he would have soon taken up Semmes' boat load himself.

"August 2, 1864."

The people of Pennsylvania, says the Lancaster Express, will very soon vote upon the proposed amendments to the State Constitution, conferring the elective franchise upon the soldiers of the Keystone. This amendment has been approved by a majority of each of the Legislature at two successive sessions, as required by our State Constitution. The voting will be by ballot, as at any ordinary election, the ballots deposited containing the words "For the Amendment" or "Against the Amendment," according as the voter is a loyal man or a traitor.

On the first Tuesday in August the amendment will be submitted to the people for adoption or-no!-we will not say rejection! The people of the Old Keystone can never be so recreant to duty-so lost to all sense of gratitude and justice—as to reject this important amendment and lenger withhold from the soldier the dearest right of the citizen. We trust that every reader of our journal has already determined to cast his vote in the interest of the soldier, and to induce all within the circle of his influence to "go and do like-

Shame upon those false party lights, that essence of demagogueism, which would labor to secure the rejection of this amendment! The loyal men of the State must overwhelm these fellows at the polls in ignominious rout and utter confusion, on the second day of August next. Every Union man must be awake to the importance of his vote, for the balloting on that day will decide whether the voices of our brave boys shall, as an officer expresses it, "be longer smothered." The Copperheads are determined that the soldiers shall be disfranchised if they can effect it. Their searet conclaves, in many parts of the State, are already devising plans to prevent a majority of votes from being cast for the amendment. They are arranging for a quiet but concentrated Copperhead opposition. Of course they dare not come out openly in the canvass-that would insure their failure from the ontsetbut they hope that the Union men will permit the election to go by default, the votes which Copperheadism will be certain to poll sufficing to defeat the measure!

Therefore, let the Union men of every district be on the alert. Let every arrangement be made to foil the amiable designs of these self-styled "friends of the soldier." Arrange tor a full vote and determined victory on that day. Let our soldiers in the field know that the people of the noble Old Reystone State are proud to recognize the citizenship of their sons and brothers, and that they will never connive at the fraud which robs the soldier of his vote!

Copperheadism Unadulterated. There is a newspaper published in Ashland, Ohio, called the "Ashland Union," by Messrs. J. J. Jacobs and J. W. McCord. Jacobs. we happen to know, is a half-fledged lawyer of that town and the writing partner. As a specimen of genuine, simon-pure Copperheadism, this paper excels. We quote from a hundred and forty millions, thirty-six thou-copy before us an extract ridiculing the "Sol-diors' Aid Society." ism, this paper excels. We quote from a diers' Aid Society:"

The Soldiers' Aid Society. The Ashland Times of each week contains an article calling upon the "faithful" to come up and do their work or give their mite to the ause. For the sake of giving notoriety to a Cleveland Herald says: "We mentioned a few few ancient females, for several weeks, Jeff published the beggarly list of names of those who attended. But all to no effect. Neither for the sake of seeing their names in the paper, or upon the numerous calls, would the faithful rally. Soldier Aid Societies are emphatically "played out." And there is reason for it. When the Soldiers were in the field acting the part of Soldiers they received the contributions and sympathy of all our citizens, irrespective of party. The Soldier Aid Societies were well attended and contributions were numerous and large. But the Soldier turned politician and at the behest of their superior officers, attempted to injure those who had befriended them. That changed the home tide, and since then Soldier Aid arrangements, about Ashland especially, have been slim. How can these Soldiers expect the aid and money of the men who they threaten with all kind of harm, and who they attempt to injure in every way they can. For our part, while they act thus, it should be the determination of every Democrat to give them not one cent in any form. We are not obliged to warm the viper into life to turn and bite us. are not bound to give our money to men who are systematically taught to curse us and who learn the lesson so easily. They may fall, fester and rot for aught we care, while they entertain and express the sentiments that we often hear from them.

Of course, there are many honorable exceptions to this. We only refer to the hired dogs that for money or place have sold themselves, and the little principle they may have once had, to the Abolitionists.

This is what we call unadulterated Copperheadism. There is boldness, however, in its avowal, but a gross slander, we are well convinced, on the citizens of the loyal town in which it is uttered. We venture to assert that the people of that town feel grieved and ashamed of the fact that such a whelp as wrote that article is a resident in their com-

Massachusetts Responding to the Call.

Boston, July 11. The late call for five thousand Massachu setts volunteers is being responded to with alaurity. The old Sixth Pioneer regiment of the war is expected to be ready for muster-Mr. Dayton has advised Mr. Adams to demand ing in on Wednesday. Other regiments will his rendition. Capt. Winslow had ample time follow rapidly.

PARKTON, July 11; Reger, the night operator at Cockeysville, has just arrived from Glen Cove and says the rebels have not burnt the Ashland iron works but they have torn the track up south of Ashland and burnt bridges No. 16 and 18, and it is reported that there is about 2,500 gone over to the Philadelphia and Wilmington railroad. There were several thousand rebels under Gen. Johnson at Cockeysville, yesterday, and their encampment was at Shawan; the repairmen say there were several thousand of them going towards Baltimore.

The foreman of Division No. 5 says he saw a man from Cockeysville, and that the rebals took the instrument at Cockeysville and took Shaffner, (operator) with them on horse back

From Washington.

Washington, July 10.

GBANT'S ARMY. Advices from Grant's headquarters up to yesterday morning, report no important mili-tary operations. On Friday afternoon, how ever, the enemy made a demonstration on the front of Gen. Turner's division of the 18th Army Corps. The attack was promptly re-pulsed. This demonstration was probably made by Lee for the purpose of discovering whether his strategy in the Maryland inva-sion had been successful in inducing Gen. Grant to make detachments from his force. The expiriment cannot be regarded as a very successful one on the part of the enemy. Late Richmond and Petersburg papers are jubilant over the excitement which they imagine rebels are creating in Maryland, Pennsylvania and its vicinity.

According to an official statement the total public debt on the 5th of July was seventeen hundred and ninety two millions, eight him dred and sixty-seven thousand and forty dollars and fifty-seven cents, against seventeen increase of fifty-two millions, eight hundred and thirty thousand, three hundred and fifty one dollars and four cents, for week ending 5th instant. This important difference is mainly caused by requisitions made on the department for money to pay the troops on the first of the month.

NEW YORK, July 11. About one o'clock this morning a fire was discovered on board the steamer John F. Potter, of the Camden and Amboy railroad company, lying at Pier-Mo. 1, North river. The steamer was soon wrapped in flames, and the pier, covered with shed, took fire, and this with its contents, and the steamer, was totally destroyed totally destroyed.

The loss is estimated at $250,000, which is partially insured. Engine No. 38 and two se carriages were on the pier at the time it took fire, and were enfirely consumed. Several firemen and policemen were obliged to jump into the river to save their lives and were picked up by boats receive from a French man of war. Six boat loads of sailors, with their officers, from the French vessel, in the face of the terrific heat, succeeded in saving three steamers at the next pier. These noble men were obliged to jump overboard to save themselves from burning while others somed their shirts and caps in the river for the same pur pose. Phila hotel was slightly damaged.

To Obtain the Removal of the Remains of Soldiers to their Homes.

WASHINGTON, July 11. For the accomplishment of this desire of the friends of soldiers dying in army hospi-tals in this city the Government provides every facility within its power, as it does to secure their decent interment here, when their bodies are not called for by their friends. The course to be pursued by the friends is follows: To be on hand themselves, or by deputy, fully authorized by letter or telegraph message, before the death of the soldier; go to the hospital and secure a record of the death and a request for provision for interment, signed by the surgeon of the hospital, and addressed to Captain Moore, A. Q. M., 134 F. street west, with said memorandum, to proceed to said office before 4 o'clock, P. M., and there obtain an order upon the superintendent of the issuing office for a coffin and hearse, when the body will be transported to any point in or about the city, whither the friends may desire it to be sent, whether to the embalmers, the Rebels Operating on the Philadelphia and express office, railroad depot, steamboat landing, or elsewhere. The coffin should be en-closed in a box, which the friends or their agent should procure and have taken to the hospital, that the coffin may be so enclosed, before its removal from the hospital. The Gov-ford's residence this morning. It is only four symment furnishes said box for officers, but not fords residence this morning. It is only four miles out on Charles street road. A squad of for privates. The cost of the box is about $6.

In all these matters the agent of the State the Governor's family, permitting them to take only a few valuables, and then fired the residence and the furniture was all decreased. tation (from this city to their homes.) of the body, and one person accompanying it; the State of New York furnishes part transportation. The friends of soldiers of other States have to pay all the expenses themselves.

At some of the hospitals the bodies are embalmed, but not gratis, because not at the expense of the Government, except at the Campbell Hospital, in charge of Surgeon A. F. Sheldon, where every one dying at said ospital is embalmed without any expense to the friends of the deceased. At the Armory Square Hospital, the chaplain, Rev. Mr. Jack son, prepares bodies of the patients there or from other hospitals for transportation for $10 each. The charge of regular embalmers is from $15 to $20.

Care should be taken that the bodies are well embalmed, otherwise the railroad will not carry them. They have been compelled to put them off and bury them by the roadside in several instances, on account of the miserable manner in which they were prepared, Unless the friends secure the body before burial at this season, they cannot obtain it, for the Government allows no bodies to be exhumed until October.
