Lange and the second

Address of Gov. Curtin.

The following address to the people of Pennsylvania, by Gov. Curtin, was read by the different pastors in their respective churches yesterday evening. We commend its patriotic sentiments to every lover of his country. Read it carefully and act accordingly:

PENNSYLVANIA EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, HARRISBURG, Pa., July 10, 1864.

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA. I refer to my recent Proclamation calling for troops on the requisition of the President. You are not responding freely. The enemies of our Government are active in deterring you, and efforts have been made to dissuade you from the belief that any considerable force is in your vicinity. and many of our most loyal and patriotic citizens have been thus deceived. Similar efforts were too successfully made last year, at the moment when Lee's army was actually on your border.

Dispatches have been this morning received stablishing the fact that Gen. Wallace, with 10,000 men was yesterday compelled to fall back from Frederick; he is believed to be in retreat towards Baltimore

The communication between this point and Baltimore was cut this morning by the rebels, below Cockeysville. The authorities of the United States at Washington are so impressed with the necessity of immediate effort, that they have, this morning, by telegraph, authorized men to be mustered in by companies, which they had yesterday peremptorily refused.

It is my duty to state to you the fact that your country requires your immediate service, and the safety of your own soil and of our good neighbors in Maryland, may depend on our promptness.

Recollect that the mode of enlisting men is at the discretion of the Government and it is the duty of all to obey its requisitions. It would be disgraceful to you to waste time in objecting to matters of form and detail, or to ofess that you would go if called in some different way. Those who want an excuse for skulking may do so, but all who desire to do their duty to their country will scorn such subterfuges. Turn, therefore, a deaf ear to all mischievous suggestions from any quarter. Do not lend yourselves to a betraval of your country.

Come forward, like men, to aid her. The rebel force will be easily defeated and driven away, if you do your duty; and I pray God so to enlighten you that the honor of the Commonwealth may be maintained. A. G. CURTIN.

Inland Telegraph Company.

We have heretofore alluded to the fact that the vindication of the Managers of the Inland Telegraph Company had been most complete, and that the Secretary of War was satisfied not only of the superior advantages of this corporation, but of the faithfulness and loyalty of those in its charge. The following as I am to do so,) to serve in the Army of the Potomac. A citizen has presented himself to order, issued from the War Department early in June, was promulgated in all the armies of the Union. We now take special pleasure of sire to know whether your order contemplates laying this order before our readers:

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18, 1864.

The order of the war department prohibiting the transmission of military business over the wires of the Independent and Inland Telegraph Companies is hereby revoked. All officers forwarding public business to this department can employ these the same as other lines. By order of the Secretary of War.

THOS. T. ECKERT, Major and Assistant Supt. Military Tele graph. jy9d1w PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

tion.in response thereto, and do hereby call or the freemen of Pennsylvania, of military age, to come promptly forward, as they have here-tofore done, and fill the requisition for this important service.

It is apparent that the enemies of our Government, in desperation, are threatening us with an armed force, in the hope .that the army of General Grant may be withdrawn from before Richmond, and I call upon the citizens of this Commonwealth, capable bearing arms, to come forward without delay, and thus aid our heroic brothers in the great Army of the Republic. Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this fifth day cf July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-ninth.

MAN KILLED. - A man named Robert Welsh

was killed on the Pennsylvania railroad, a short distance below Tyrone station, on Wednesday evening last. He was walking on the west track, and, stepping out of the way of the fast line, was caught by a freight train and instantly killed. His body was frightfully mangled. He resided somewhere in the Allegheny Mountains, had a wife (but no children) and was perhaps fifty years of age.

THE Mariettian says, the refugees from Marvland, Cumberland, Adams, Franklin and York counties are crowding the ferries at Marietta and at Columbia, to get, with their horses and live stock, on this side of the Susquehenna, bringing with them all kinds of tales of the doings and number of the rebels. The "Glatz ferry," opposite Marietta, was worked double-handed during the whole of Thursday night, and droves of horses were hourly seen goingthrough town.

ARRIVAL OF A REBEL PRISONER. - A squad of citizens brought one rebel prisoner and covequarters from the Mount Vernon House to ral deserters and stragglers to this city on Second street, first door above Barr's auction Sunday morning. The rebel prisoner was taken near Millerstown, Adams county, on has way, as he says, to Gettysburg, where he designed to give himself up. He states that he was at Hagerstown and left there early on report all quiet in that neighborhood. The Wednesday morning; after riding some fifteen miles he turned off into a by-road near Middletown and made his escape from the rebel ranks-that he had been in the ranks since the commencement of the war, and that he was perfectly tired of it. He had a sister liventire stock, and all his goods were bought | ing in the State of Indiana, and that he expected to go out there until the war was over, (a letter from the sister was found on his person.) Before he was captured he attempted to sell his horse, which he said was a very fime one, which belonged to him personally, and with that money he intended to go west; he wore a slouch hat, and pair of pants which the Quartermaster had furnished to him from the goods taken at Hagerstown. His coat was PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE AGENTS .- The Postmaster General has ordered the following: On the line from Philadelphia to Harrisburg, Penna., Mr. J. M. Congressional and Representative Conferees were appointed with instructions to support Gen. A. H. Coffroth for Congress and Hon. B. F. Meyers for the Legislature.

COAL OIL FOR WOUNDS .- An assistant surgeon writing from Gettysburg says that what water is to a wound in an inflamed state, coal oil is in a supporating state-it dispels flies. expels vermin, sweetens the wound, and promotes a healthy granulation. He states that he has seen two patients whose wounds have been dressed with it asleep before he was through with the third. This is a remedy easily applied in our hospitals. If it serves to keep away flies, it will add materially to the comfort of the wounded as well as their cure.

THE CROPS. -A Union county paper says: "Farmers have commenced making hay. The grass crop in Union county is very good. Wheat is poor generally, and will not yield more than a half crop. The severe winter killed it in many places, while fields which recently promised to yield abundantly are now found to be defective, having been drowned during the wet weather in May. Oats looks promising, but is suffering for the want of rain. Corn is very late. Hay and harvest hands are very scarce." SUBSTITUTES .- The question has been fre-

THE NINTH RESERVES MOVING !-- At a meeting of the members of the Ninth Pennsylvania Reserves, held in Pittsburg, on Saturday morning it was resolved as follows: "That each member present constitute himself a committee of one, to go to work at once, and raise as many men as possible, and organize them into companies for State and National defence, pursuant to the Governor's call, dated July 5th and 6th."

THE BIG TENT.-Efforts are now being made to organize a company of one hundred day men by Messrs. Mitchell, Kemball and Sayford. The first named was in the three vears' service, in the 28th Pennsylvania regiment, under Gen. Geary; the second was Sergeant Major of the 127th Pennsylvania regiment. Their experience in the army will be of immense value to the members of the company. They are recruiting at the Big Tent. For particulars see advertisement.

BEFORE THE MAYOR .- Two men, who gave the names of George Williams and James Scallion, were arrested at the depot, where they were loitering, as suspicious characters. They stated that they were hotel waiters from the West, and were on a pleasure excursion. They were discharged on condition that they would leave the city by the first train.

Thomas Reed and Samuel Brightbill, armested for fast riding on the streets, were fined $6 15 each, and discharged.

A number of vagrants arrested were escorted out of the city by the police, with instructions to show their faces here no more. William Lane, colored, drunk and disorand entered upon the present expedition.

Hunter from Lynchburg, but that they received reinforcements from Richmond.

LIEUT. WM. H. HINEY. -The death of Lieut. Hiney, announced to-day, has cast a gloom over a large circle of friends. When our flag was struck by the traitorous foe at Charleston he was among the first to respond to the calls of his country, serving as private in the Fifth Pennsylvania regiment during the three months campaign. When the Fifth returned he entered the Fiftieth (Col. B. C. Christ's) regiment as sergeant in company C, re-volunteering at the expiration of three years' service. He was never absent from his regiment on furlough, or otherwise, for one hour during his three terms of service. He was in every contest in which his regiment has been engaged-in Virginia, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee and Mississippi, (at Vicksburg,) always signalizing himself for gallantry and indomitable bravery. At the second Bull Run disaster his brother was shot down by his side. Shortly after the battle of Antietam he was commission.ed a Second Lieutenant, by Governor Curtin for gallant and meritorious conduct, and on the re-enlistment of the regiment in February last, he was promoted to a First Lieutenancy. His sword was ever wielded with horitor to his country and himself. Amid all the dangers and vicissitudes of the camp and the field he had escaped unscathed, until the hattles at the Chickahominy before Richmond, when, on the first of June, while engaged in a hand to hand encounter with superior formes, he received the wound that proved fatal. He was removed to Washington from the White House on the minth of June, suffering int, unsely, and in so critical a condition that it was impossible to move him further. On Saturday morning at two o'clock his spirit fle.d. The body, which has been embalmed, will be interred at Mount Kalma cemetery to-morrow ' afternoon. His life was nobly spent in the service of freedom. He has fought his last ba'tle, and is now mustered into the service of his Lord and Master, "where the tramp of cavalry and the shock of armies, the neighing of chargers William Daley, drunk and disorderly, was and the blast of bugles shall be heard no

SOMETHING TO WEAR .- The high prices of all kinds of dry goods have become a serious consideration, and it is natural and important for every one to seek the best avenues through which they can be obtained at reasonable prices. It is not strange then that the new store of Brandt & Bowman, corner of Second and Walnut streets, (in the room lately occupied by Joseph Kahnwiler,) should attract the attention of those in want of dry goods. PENNSYLVANIA SS.

GOVEENOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTH. A PROCLAMATION.

It is now ascertained that a large rebel force has been detached from Richmond and is advancing on the north. So large a portion of our army is at remote points, that it be-comes necessary to raise immediately a sufficient body to repel them. They are al-ready within the borders of the Common-wealth. You have always heretofore been ready to answer the call of your country. You will not be less ready to come forward when your own homes and firesides are to be defended against a profligate horde of plunderers. I am authorized by the President of the United States to call for twelve thousand volunteers (in addition to those required by my Proclamation of yesterday) to serve for one hundred days in Penn-sylvania, Maryland and Washington and its vicinity. I appeal to the freemen of Pennsylvania to rouse themselves for the necessar effort, and to come promptly to sweep the invaders from her soil.

I refer to the General Order issued from these Headquarters, Pennsylvania Militia, No. 50, dated July 5, 1864, published with this proclamation, for the details of the arrangements. I do most earnestly desire the good and loyal men of the Commonwealth, and especially the veteran soldiers in all her borders. to show themselves worthy of her in this emergency.

Her sons have established for themselves, on many a bloody field, a reputation for the martial virtues which they will not now forfeit, when both their well-earned fame and the safety of their homes and families are at stake. Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this 6th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-ninth.
