NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT. Abraham Lincoln. OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. Andrew Johnson,

FOR THE AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION GRANTING THE SOLDIERS' RIGHT TO VOTE Election Tuesday, Aug. 2, 1864.

THE SITUATION.

We have had no telegraphic accounts of the flying rebel raiders, since they crossed Edwards' Ferry on the Potomac. To-day we learn from one of the mail agents running from the south, that a report prevails in Baltimore, to the effect that the rebels were overtaken near Leesburg, Va., where a sharp encounter took place between our cavalry and the rebels. The result of this fight was the capture of one hundred prisoners and eighty wagons heavily laden with plunder. If this report be true, and we have every reliance in the veracity of our informant, the blow is a severe one to the rebels.

THE CONFUSION IN MILITARY AF-FAIRS AT THIS POST.

Imbecility and Ignorance Combined to Thwart the Devotion of the People.

We are not afraid of the truth, either as it relates to our duty to others or ourselves And when the truth is uttered, it should be spoken boldly, distinctly, without fear, favor or affection. Hence, we are impelled still farther to refer to the utter imbecility and ignorance which characterize the actions of those who control the affairs in this Military Department, and particularly at this post. The blunders, the obstinacy, the entangling construction of orders, the utter lack of knowledge of men, and the ridiculous refusal to assume the least responsibility while receiving the liberal pay of the Government, begin to impress the people with the fact that there is a woful want of brain in one quarter and a dangerous lack of honest devotion to the success of the public service in another. So far as the affairs at this post are concerned, any old woman in the State, with sight sufficient to turn the heel of a stocking, or strength enough in her arms to prepare the batter for a baking of slap-jacks, will manage them far more successfully and satisfactorily to the Government, than they are managed by the officer at present in command. We write this frankly, with no desire to detract from the personal merits of Col. Bomford-with no purpose to question his integrity as a man or his honesty as an officer .-But we do insist that he is utterly and palpably unfit for the duties to which he has been assigned-that he has those about him who mislead and mistify him, if not those, too, who impose upon his weakness and timidity as an executive officer, purposely and deliberately to disgrace the Government in the estimation of the people. Let us be well understood on this point. If Col. Bomford is so blind as not to see it, let us expose it to him in open broad daylight, that there are men in his office The Draft to Commence on the 5th of Sepwhose political hatreds and passions now ruß so high, as not to hesitate a moment to damn this Government, if by so doing they could destroy an "Abolition Administration." These are the men who treat our brave volun teers as if they were mercenaries. These are the officers who rebuff the farmers of the State when they march into the State Capital in companies of fifties, sixties, seventies and eighties; who snub the bravest among our brave when the bayonets of the enemy gleam across the borders of the State, simply because the organization of such companies does not come within the strict letter of the order providing for the mustering of troops. Only on Saturday, we understand, Col Bemford refused to muster a company of eighty-two men; and when this refusal became known, scores of men left Harrisburg in disgust for their homes. These men had all abandoned important and necessary work at home, to dera draft for one year to fill such quota, hasten hither to the support and defence or any part thereof which may be unfilled hasten hither to the support and defence of the Government. They did not come to be trifled with by incompetent officers: and we can assure the Government, when the estimates of the damage by the rebel raid into Maryland and along the border of Pennsylvania are made, it will be discovered that the worst injury suffered by the Government and the people, was that inflicted by the incompetency, the indifference, and the freezing hauteur of poppinjays suddenly invested with sub-military authority. The people are not blind to these facts, and we would be recreant to our duty, if we failed to refer to them in terms of independent and unmeamred condemnation.

Another fact in connection with the affairs attending the attempted organization of the Pennsylvania militia for service on the border and in Washington city, if necessary, is that which relates to the blunder of the officer in command of this Department. A call for a thousand cavalrymen was issued. In response companies and squads almost immediately began to report for service, but when they did so, the officers in command of such men were blandly informed that the order had been countermanded and that there were no horses to mount them, and that hence the troops could not be received.

One whole company presented itself ready to be sworn in, but they were turned off and compelled to go home. This is doing great injustice to the men who spend their time and money in raising companies. It would be well for those in command in high places to understand that those who now offer their services to the Government, are men unaccustomed to trifling-men who represent in communities, the resources whence the Govern-ment derives its main strongth.

—We have already written plainly on this subject. We do so again, but only with selesire to serve the best interests of the Union and the Commonwealth. It is not only the cause of the Union which suffers by these neglects, but it is the reputation of Pennsylvania as an enterprising, loyal and valiant State, that is impaired. The men who place our good old Commonwealth in such a position, have no interest in common with us in her gldry. Gen. Couch and Col. Bomford are both strangers to our people they do not and it seems to us, never will understand our fighting men. Hence, in justice to Pennsylvanis—in justice to the cause we all love so dearly-in justice to the endurance and the valor of our people, we appeal to those who can remedy the evils of which we complain at once to detail other officers for command at this post and in this Department. The reputations of the officers themselves are involved in this change. The honor of Pennsylvania is at stake in the promptness with which we are relieved of these difficulties. All that we ask are men to command us who know our people-soldiers who are not fearful of assuming a responsi bility. Pennsylvania has such men in the Will the President see that they are detailed for duty within the State, and thus relieve Gen. Couch and Col. Bomford from a service that must be embarrassing to both?

THE COPPERHEAD ORGANS are very anxious o find supporters for Ereemont, and particuarly to have it understood that he has a large number of Republican journals in his interest A paragraph on this subject is going the rounds of the copperhead press, which makes the following statement:

"Among Republican journals which support Fremont for President, we notice the New York Nation, New York Illustrated News, Wilke's Spirit of the Times, Albany Statesman, Davenport Democrat, Kansas City Point, West-liche Post and Neue Zeit of St. Louis, and, it is stated twenty-six out of thirty-two German Republican papers in the West.

To expose the falsehood of this entire state ment, we need only remind the intelligent reader, that the New York Nation was started as a distinctive Freemont organ, without regard to Republican principles, before the late Baltimore nominations were made—that the New York Illustrated News has neither reputation, circulation or influence as a journal, but like all other newspapers of its class, is ever in the market for the highest bidderthat Wilke's Spiril of the Times is the old organ of "the sports" of the country and that Wilkes himself has always been a blatant Demcrat, of the school of "fancies" controlled ately by Fernando Wood. So much for a portion of this statement. The remainder of the paragraph was manuscrared from the whole cloth, by some restless copperhead scribe, who concluded that he had not enough to do while lying for his own friends, and there fore undertook to lie for the enemies of the Government.

That Stronghold in Danger of Capture by the Yankees. The Situation at Petersburg.

THE LATE REBEL RAID. Exaggerated Accounts.

BALTIMORE, July 18-11.35 A. M. The following dispatch has been received from Fort Monroe, dated yesterday:
Among the prisoners recently captured in ront of Petersburg, is Jesse Segar, nephew of Hon. James Segar, of this district.

By a contraband who has just escaped and rrived within our lines, we have obtained the daily Richmond Dispatch of the 15th, which tontains the following dispatches:

ATLANTA, GA., July 12.—The enemy are in position on the opposite side of the river.
There is some firing between the sharpshooters, with occasional artillery firing by the enemy, without damage. A small force is re-ported on the south side of the river, 8 miles above the railroad bridge. They keep close to the ford. The Governor arrived here last evening, and is urging forward everything for the defence of Atlanta. His proclamation calling upon every one between the again of 16 and 45, to report at Atlanta, receives the approval of all classes.

Atlanta, July 13.—The enemy are massing

Sherman's headquarters are near Vining's tation. Skirmishing across the river continues near the bridge. Everything is quiet The Atlanta Confederacy has the following

We shall not attempt to lull to a fancied security our readers by declarations that Atlanta is not in imminent danger and peril. Its capture, however, cannot be considered a foregone conclusion. If Gen. Johnston canno! make a successful battle or hold the enemy in check along the Chattahoochie, he cannot nywhere below it, and the only temporary check would in that event be the capture of Atlanta for conquest. We kave no doubt the Federal Government would be satisfied with the capture of Allanta, and garrison and fortify it as a base for future operations.

NEW YORK, July 18. A private letter from Morganzia, June 30th,

A private letter from Morganzia, June 30th, states that General Canby is very actively engaged in perfecting the arrangements for the military operations in the vicinity of Morganzia and the Red river.

General Ullman, with a large portion of his forces, had reached Morganzia, where he had been placed in command of all the colored troops.

The fortifications at Morganzia are most formidable, and commands range of some six miles of the Mississippi river, which at this point makes a bend for some distance. The position is deemed of the utmost importance, being equi-distant from Port Hudson and the the west bank of the Atchafayala, nine miles in the rear of Morganzia. The corps being organized near Morganzia is to be under the ommand of Major General Reynolds, and it is expected that the movements for the disodgment of the rebel army on Atchafalaya will soon commence. Gen. M'Neil is at Port Hudson, in command of the garrison left by Gen. Ullman. The guerrillas are somewhat active between Port Hudson and Vicksburg, but not in such orce as they were a month ago.

Our gunboats, during the high water, easily prevented the crossing of the Atchafalaya river by the rebels, but during the low stage of the river their crossing will be prevented by the land forces of General Ullman, encamped on the east bank. A large Union force is being collected near Morganzia, amply sufficient for offensive or lefensive purposes. No offensive movement has been made ur to the 30th ult., by the robels, but the activity infused into the department by Major eneral Canby, indicates active operations not far distant.
