HARRISBURG, PA.
MONDAY EVENING, JULY 18, 1864

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—A good stout man to learn Power Press work. Must be able to write a good hand. Apply at this office.

CASSELL, surgeon to the Board of Enactment of the Ninth District, died in Lebanon Tuesday.

PUBLIC sale of two hundred condemned mules will take place in this city, on Thursday next, at ten o'clock. Here is a rare opportunity for bargains, as many of these horses will soon be fit for road and farm use.

BRAYED, yesterday, from Pine street, a young black and tan slut, ears trimmed. Put on a muzzle and brass collar. Information of its whereabouts will be rewarded at this office.

The river is said to be lower at present than it has been at any time within the last year or three years. Rain is wanted. The drying crops are sadly in need of it. The water is several inches deep on the public lands.

STATE GUARDS.—Four men are yet wanted for the above fine company, commended for the gallant Captain Ross. Apply at the recruiting office. The company is already in camp. A better officer than Capt. R. cannot be found.

We learn that the ladies of the various churches here have formed an organization known as the Ladies' Christian Commission, whose object will be to aid the U. S. Christian Commission in its noble work. Our citizens will be called upon, and an opportunity afforded all to become members by paying one dollar.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF HOTEL FURNITURE.—The entire stock of furniture, etc., in use at Herr's Hotel, is to be sold by public sale, commencing on Tuesday of next week, and to continue from day to day until all is sold. There is a fine opportunity for those in want of furniture, bedding, etc., to obtain a supply.

A. K. FARMSTEAD, United States Collector for this district, publishes an advertisement in another column, which will be found of interest to all who are subject to the payment of United States taxes. Those who fail to attend at the time specified, will be compelled to pay a penalty of ten per cent.

THE CAMERON GUARDS.—This company, which is nearly full, is in camp. A few more are wanted. The officers are Capt. J. D. Steiner and Lieut. J. W. Woodburn and J. G. Keiser—all of whom have been in active service in the field, and were good soldiers. The headquarters for recruiting are at Camp Curtin and at the Ellsworth House, Market street.

Horses are wanted by the Government. An open market has been established here for the purchase of animals suitable for cavalry and other service, for which cash will be paid by the quartermaster.

ONE THOUSAND CAVALRY HORSES are also wanted immediately, the purchase of which has been ordered by Gen. Couch. For these cash will also be paid.

A FINE REGIMENT.—We have long since concluded not to notice the departure of the many noble patriots who have passed through here since the war, but we were forcibly struck with the fine appearance of the 37th Wisconsin regiment, which passed through here to-day for the front. A large American eagle was the pet bird of the soldiers, and 45 native Indians accompanied the regiment as private soldiers, determined to defend their native country to the last.

THE PULPIT ON PATRIOTISM.—Yesterday morning we had the pleasure of listening to one of the most fearless, eloquent and logical discourses that has ever emanated from the pulpit of Pennsylvania. It was delivered in the Locust Street Methodist Episcopal Church, by Rev. J. Walker Jackson. His theme was Patriotism—his inspiration that portion of the sacred writings wherein is so mournfully described the sadness and the devotion of the children of Israel, while they were held as captives by their Babylonian conquerors.

"If I forget thee, O Jerusalem! may my right hand forget her cunning, and my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth!" were the words of the text selected by the Reverend Mr. Jackson, from which he preached a sermon his hearers will never forget, and for which his loyal countrymen can never repay him. He proved the duty of the Christian and that of the patriot to be one and the same thing. Israel's sons, in the height of their glory, were taught this lesson, and when they forgot their country, so, also, were they made forgetful of their God. He vindicated the blessings of the country in which we live, by exhibiting the sufferings of those countries in which others dwell. He portrayed the freedom of the press, the liberty of speech, and the untrammeled privileges of the pulpit under our Constitution and laws, to be such as could not be improved by any change in our Government, and led of all by that change which the slave-holding traitors seek to accomplish in this land. We will not attempt further to sketch Rev. Jackson's sermon. Suffice it to write that it made a deep impression upon the minds of his hearers and is to-day the subject of conversation and approval throughout the State Capital.

DARING ROBBERY.—On the night of the 12th inst., the house of Noah Hertzler, of Port Royal, Juniata county, was entered by burglars. They succeeded in getting into Mr. H.'s bed-room, from which they took a safe, then proceeded to his store, opened the safe, and robbed it of from $350 to $500 in money, about $100 of which was in silver and gold, and some $50 in sheets of postage currency. They also stole a promissory note for $950 88, dated July 9th, payable four months after date, at the Harrisburg Bank; this was signed by W. S. Wilson & Co., of Highspire, and payable to Hertzler, Patterson & Manger. Also, a note dated at Clearfield, June 22d, by Stacy W. Thompson, in favor of Noah Hertzler, for $516 85, attached to which was an order on Leonard Manger; also three County Relief Notes, of Juniata county, Nos. 676, 668 and 726, the first for $7, payable to Amanda Summers, and the other for $6 each, payable to Martha J. Barkly. The public are cautioned against purchasing or trading for any of the above notes. It is hoped that the robbers may be detected.

A MAMMOTH ENTERPRISE.—By our advertising columns it will be seen that the two well known establishments, Thayer & Noyes' Circus and Van Amburgh & Co.'s Menagerie have effected an arrangement by which they will both travel together the present season, and exhibit in one mammoth tent for a single price of admission, forming a combination of attractions which cannot fail to draw out immense throngs of visitors wherever they may go. The Menagerie is said to include an unusually fine collection of living beasts and birds from all parts of the world, many of which have been imported within the last year, while all are in the best condition. Among other rare zoological features this collection can boast of the largest lion in the country, a white Polar bear, fresh from the Arctic ocean, a superb ostrich, a South American hippopotamus, and monster elephant "Hannibal," the largest quadruped on exhibition in either Europe or America. The Circus performances which are given at each exhibition, without extra charge, will consist of every variety of dashing horsemanship and extraordinary athletic feats, introducing one of the largest and most talented troupes ever brought together in this country. A stand of horses, ponies and mules, unrivalled for extent, beauty and thorough training, completes the list of attractions included in this truly colossal combination, which is to exhibit here on Friday and Saturday, July 22d and 23d. Those who enjoy a hearty laugh will have their cases attended to by Dr. J. L. Thayer, the inimitable humorist, who will enliven the scenes of the circle by his quaint drolleries, and also introduce his wonderful comic mules. Mons. Davis, a pupil of the great Van Amburgh, will manipulate the lions and tigers.

RUNAWAY.—Severe Injury of Two Persons.—Last evening Chestnut street from River to Dewberry alley, and from thence to Walnut street was the scene of a most intense and terrific excitement. It appears that Messrs. George Ensinger and Samuel Shriver, were driving leisurely along Chestnut street, and when in the vicinity of River alley, Captain Thomas A. Martin attempted to pass them. In order to accomplish this Capt. Martin drove close in to the gutter, the wheels rattling, noisily over the rough stones of the same, frightened Mr. Ensinger's animal, which immediately plunged forward to run and as he did so Mr. Ensinger called to Capt. Martin to stop, in order that his animal should not impel the other, driven by Ensinger, to run away. Needless of this warning Capt. Martin still endeavored to pass and as Ensinger attempted to stop the horse driven by himself, he was thrown over the dasher, breaking his wrist, and receiving other severe bodily injuries. In the meantime Mr. Shriver also did what he could to stop the animal but he too was thrown from the vehicle and received a horrible wound on the forehead. The last we heard of Mr. Shriver it was scarcely expected that he would live. The horse proceeded at a furious rate down Chestnut street, and when he reached the corner of Third and Chestnut attempted to run on to the sidewalk but fell, crushing the buggy against a post. The horse soon regained his footing and dashed on, turning into Dewberry alley, through which he tore to Walnut street, where he was finally stopped. The carriage was a perfect wreck.

After fairly considering the evidence of those in the neighborhood where Mr. Ensinger's horse was frightened, and making all allowance for the exaggeration which generally attends a statement made in the midst of an excitement, we are satisfied that the sole and only cause of the runaway, and hence, too, the responsibility of the injuries to Messrs. Ensinger and Shriver, as well as the damage done to the vehicle are entirely due to the recklessness, if not criminal, carelessness attending Capt. Martin's driving. Capt. M. has been fined several times by the Mayor for the same conduct. He has been expostulated with by friends as to his carelessness in this respect, but all to no avail, and now he has the satisfaction of adding to his reputation, as a fast driver, the fact of having injured two men most seriously. Had this runaway occurred on any other evening except Sunday there is no doubt that many children would have been killed, and even as it was the prompt action of the parents along the street and the alley through which the running horse passed, alone saved the lives of children.

The injured men owe it to themselves, and the authorities owe it to the safety of the people of Harrisburg, to make a prompt and a lasting example of Capt. Martin, for this act of willful and criminal indifference for the lives of the people. If he is not arrested this morning and bound over for this offence, Mayor Kuntz and his police are not the men we take them to be.

The wounded men were taken to Dr. Anthony's office, who promptly administered to their relief, after which they were taken to their homes by their friends.

P. S.—Before going to press, this afternoon, we are informed that Mr. Shriver is improving, and is in a fair way for a speedy recovery.

WANTED.—A local editor, for the Tory Organ.

BEFORE THE MAYOR.—A large number of drunks were before the Mayor since our last report, some of whom were discharged, others fined, and the balance handed to the military authorities.

The picnic to be held by the Lutheran congregations and Sunday Schools of this city, will be given at Derry, on Wednesday. Tickets can be procured of the persons named in our advertising columns. This will be a grand picnic, and the attendance will doubtless be very large. See advertisement.

In our telegraphic columns will be found a very interesting article, written by President Lincoln, in which the author informs the public that he desires the services of five hundred thousand men, to each of whom will be presented a new suit of clothes, a gun and numerous little articles of convenience to soldiers.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.
O. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: I have used Bannart's Bronchial Troches, Wisner's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. To O. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some good expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses.

Yours, etc. JOHN WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To O. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, etc. G. G. SPEKSTRAY, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.
