

NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, Abraham Lincoln, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Andrew Johnson, OF TENNESSEE.

Don't Forget to be Assessed. Friday next, July 22d, will be last day for assessment to entitle a citizen to vote at the ensuing election on the 2nd day of August.

THE SITUATION.

We continue to receive information concerning the flying rebels who raided with such dire havoc in Maryland and on the borders of Pennsylvania ten days ago.

The Education of Soldiers' Orphans. In appointing Thomas H. Burrowes, late Superintendent of Common Schools of Pennsylvania, a commissioner to prepare a plan and superintend the expenditure of the money devoted by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the education of the orphan children of soldiers, Gov. Curtin has acted wisely and judiciously.

Recruiting in Revolted States. We alluded to the fact, yesterday, that Gov. Curtin was prepared to appoint the agents provided for in the act of Congress, for the purpose of recruiting, to fill quotas of localities in the North, from the people in the revolted States.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Executive of any of the States to send recruiting agents into any of the States declared in rebellion, except the States of Arkansas, Tennessee and Louisiana, to recruit volunteers under any call under the provisions of this act, who shall be credited to the State, and to the respective subdivisions thereof, which may procure the enlistment.

Remarks on this section, the Pittsburg Gazette says that it will be observed that it shall be lawful only for the Executive of any of the States to send recruiting agents into the rebel States. That is to say, no agents can enlist volunteers for any of the States unless appointed by the Governor thereof.

We announced in the TELEGRAPH yesterday, that Gov. Curtin was ready to appoint such agents, and we now urge it upon the attention of the people of Harrisburg, to take the necessary steps for the appointment of a person in every way qualified for the work.

AFFAIRS AT MEMPHIS.

MEMPHIS, July 19. I am indebted to one of Gen. Washburne's staff for the following: On the 5th inst., Gen. Washburne sent out a force of infantry, cavalry and artillery from Lagrange, under Maj. Gen. A. J. Smith and Gen. Mower and Grierson with instruction to move in pursuit of Gen. Forrest and bring him to bay, fight and whip him.

According to official statement for the week ending July 12, just published, the total public debt on that day was $1,795,033,569 34 against $1,792,867,040 51 on the 5th inst. The outstanding amounts, with the interest due respectively thereon, are given below: Debt bearing interest in coin, $864,109,819 62; interest, $52,113,311 67.

It is also stated that the rebel Gen. Faulkner and Col. Forrest were wounded. Gen. Forrest was wounded in the foot, and his horse equipments captured. From other sources I learn that Smith met Forrest near Pontotoc, on Wednesday, the 13th, and fought him on that day, and also on Thursday and Friday, driving him below Tupelo, whipping him badly in five different battles. Our loss is said to be less than 300, while that of the enemy was over 2,000.

Col. Wilkins, of the 9th Minnesota, who commanded a brigade, was killed. The weather here continues very warm. The steamer Mopham leaves for White river to-night, laden to the guards. The steamer Pauline Carroll is reported hard aground below. The steamer Belle of Memphis takes one hundred and six bales of cotton for St. Louis. Good middling cotton is quoted at 146.

Burning of a Government Transport.

Retaliation for the Murder of Union Men.

LOUISVILLE, July 19. The steamer St. Louis, hence to Nashville, laden with government stores, was burned yesterday by guerrillas at Sailor's Rest, on the Cumberland. Four rebel prisoners have been selected from one military prison to be sent to Mitchell's Hill at Clarksville, to be shot in retaliation for the murder of two Union men near there.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Quiet Prevailing Along the Lines.

DESERTION FROM THE REBEL RANKS.

The Rebels Short of Provisions.

WASHINGTON, July 20.

Information received from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, dated July 19th, states that the usual quiet still prevails along the lines, and were it not for the sound of an occasional gun and some picket firing at a few points, one would suppose that no enemy was within miles of us.

A sergeant and his squad came in this morning, and all report that thousands are ready to leave as fast as they find an opportunity. The deserters come principally from Georgia, Florida and Alabama regiments, and an officer of a regiment from the former State is said to have gone to his superior a day or two since and reported that if his company was not soon relieved he would have none to relieve, as they would have all gone over to the enemy.

Burnside's men make the most of the—the enemy taking every opportunity to fire at the colored troops that occupy a portion of his front, and of course the fire is returned with interest, but without much damage on either side. No deserters come in at this part of the line, as they say they have no chance to get through without running the risk of being shot—the negroes being so constantly on the alert, but they are coming in at other points daily in squads.

They state that they are very short of provisions, particularly vegetables, and seem glad enough when they get into our lines, strict orders being given that they shall not hold intercourse with our men on the picket, or exchange papers; and one fellow the other day, who came boldly over and brought a paper with him, was caught and made to stand and wave the paper back and forth for an hour as a punishment. An attack from the enemy has been expected for the past two days. Last night, from what the deserters reported, it was looked for as certain, but no demonstration was made.

It has looked like rain all the afternoon, but none has fallen yet and the dust continues, to envelop everything.

ATLANTA NOT CAPTURED.

Its Evacuation by the Enemy Going on.

SHERMAN MOVES OUT TO ATTACK JOHNSTON.

The Capture of Atlanta Hourly Expected.

REBEL COMMUNICATION DESTROYED.

New York, July 19.

A special dispatch from Nashville says the report about Atlanta being occupied by our troops is without foundation. All kinds of rumors are afloat regarding the evacuation of Atlanta. Reports say that during the delay of Gen. Sherman at the river, the enemy has been enabled to get away his valuables, but in opposition to this it is well known that they had been sent weeks ago to Augusta.

The evacuation of Atlanta really began several weeks ago. General Sherman moved out of his works on the south side of the Chattahoochee to attack Johnston's forces if found in front of them, or to occupy the city in the event of a retreat.

Nothing less than the information that he had moved his base here, we hope to-morrow to announce his occupation of Atlanta. It is believed here that during the halt at Chattahoochee, Gen. Sherman completely destroyed all the rebel communications between Atlanta and Richmond, and between Atlanta and Montgomery.

The latest official information from Gen. Sherman, is that his army crossed the Chattahoochee at several different places north of the railroad bridge. The movement was accomplished with such celerity as to take the enemy by surprise, and, therefore, the resistance to his advance was feeble on the part of the rebel cavalry.

Our cavalry was at once sent to operate on the railroad of Decatur, one of the objects being to cut off the communication between Atlanta and Augusta, thus preventing the removal of stores to the latter place, and Johnston from being reinforced. Our main army was within 10 or 12 miles of Atlanta, and all its operations were progressing in the highest degree favorably.

CINCINNATI, July 20. The Commercial this morning has advices from Gen. Sherman's army to the 16th inst. Nearly the whole force had crossed the river and occupied strong positions on the south side. A portion of our troops had advanced two miles towards Atlanta, but encountered nothing but small bodies of cavalry. Gen. Braxton Bragg had arrived at Atlanta, and would, it was supposed, exercise a personal supervision over the movements of the rebel army.

AFFAIRS IN MISSOURI.

Guerrilla Troublesome.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 19. It appears that Col. Ford led two bands of guerrillas, numbering nearly 700, in his rear, who are committing all manner of depredations in the southern part of this county. A large scouting party was sent from here this morning, but has not been heard from. Every train from Preston brings a large number of refugees from Platte, Clay and Ray counties. Many of them stop here, while others go eastward. Guernsey & Co., of this city, have just received 65 pounds of gold dust from Virginia city.

Terrible Accident in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, July 20. A terrible accident occurred at the Blockley Almshouse this morning, caused by the walls of the Female Lunatic Asylum being undermined by workmen. It is reported that thirty to forty of the inmates were killed or wounded. Five bodies have been taken out. SECOND DISPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, July 20.—The latest reliable accounts of the accident at Blockley Almshouse, say that 13 insane women were killed and 20 wounded. There were 229 inmates of the asylum. The accident occurred at quarter of six o'clock this morning. The building was supported by two immense arches, which gave way. The sitting room was filled with children. Sixteen bodies have been already taken out.

THE WORK ON THE FORTIFICATIONS—NEW REBEL BATTERIES.

[Correspondence of the Washington Chronicle.] HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, NEAR PETERSBURG, July 16.

The heat has somewhat abated. Dearth of news continues. I am lingering here in expectation of a fight. Nothing else would detain me in my enfeebled health. The labor bestowed upon our fortifications is enormous. Thousands of men are engaged in the manufacture of gabions, (wicker-worked baskets, to be filled with sand and placed in the embrasure of a redoubt, which at night are placed in position. All this while the rebels are not idle. A new battery opened from their side yesterday p. m. Near Warren's headquarters is a battery of 32s, christened by the cannoniers "The Seven Sisters." One gun is distinguished from the rest by the peculiar, rushing sound of its shells, which resembles the puffs of a locomotive. This piece is dubbed the "Petersburg Express," for that reason, and because it devotes all attention to the aforementioned place.

When the rebels unmasked their battery yesterday afternoon, the "Petersburg Express" sent a message in that direction, causing considerable commotion. One of their magazines was exploded, and, together with the terrible noise and smoke, must have disabled many rebels. Everything is now quiet from that point. All along the line there is the usual amount of cannonading daily, and, I might add, nightly, as usual.

We are all much amused with the account of rebel depredations published in the newspapers. Circumstances which you look upon as terrible enormities, are here committed every day. They have not treated you with anything like the severity they receive at our hands.

AFFAIRS NEAR PETERSBURG.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—A letter from near Petersburg, dated July 17th, says a majority of the people of Petersburg have gone to Richmond. The weather is cool, and more pleasant than usual. Mortar and cannon practice is as sharp and intermittent in its character as ever. But few men are injured daily. Our hospitals are in excellent condition. THE PANIC AT RICHMOND—REMOVAL OF REBEL ARCHIVES.

The New York Post says: "We understand from private sources that in anticipation of the capture of Richmond by the Federal forces under General Grant, the rebel authorities have caused all the archives of the Jeff Davis Government to be removed to Goldsboro, North Carolina."

MISSOURI.

ROUTE OF GUERRILLAS.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 19. Colonel Ford telegraphs to headquarters here that he has killed, in all, forty guerrillas, captured 200 stand of arms, much ammunition and many horses, and that his force is still pursuing the guerrilla force. THE GUERRILLAS IN MISSOURI. ST. LOUIS, July 19.—The Democrat's special St. Joseph dispatch says: The city and country are wild with rumors. It is reported that Colonel Ford attacked Thornton's guerrillas at Arnoldsville on Sunday. Fighting was kept up all day, but with what result is unknown. Another body of guerrillas, from three hundred to six hundred strong, are encamped on Gordon's farm, Platte county. Official information states that two hundred of the New York militia, of Platte and Clay counties, had joined Thornton's guerrillas. A collision occurred in Cluson county, but its extent is not known. Governor Hall has commissioned a copperhead to command the militia of Andrews county, and trouble is anticipated. The people are constantly flocking into St. Joseph's from the surrounding counties, and many are leaving for other points. The grain is left unharvested, and much suffering is anticipated in many localities.

The Maryland Convention and the Raid.

REBEL SYMPATHIZERS TO INDEMNIFY FOR REBEL SPOLIATIONS.—THANKS TO BERRAEL DAY. BALTIMORE, July 19, 1864. The State Constitutional Convention today passed the following, by a vote of 33 yeas to 17 nays: Ordered, That this Convention, representing the people of Maryland, hereby respectfully request the President of the United States and the commanders of military departments in which Maryland is included, as an act of justice and propriety, to assess upon sympathizers with the rebellion, resident in this State, the total amount of all losses and spoliations sustained by loyal citizens of the United States resident in this State by reason of the recent rebel raid, to compensate loyal sufferers. The following was also adopted: Ordered, That the thanks of this Convention—representing, as it does, the people of Maryland—are hereby tendered to the old citizen and patriot of Baltimore county, Ishmael Day, for his heroic and gallant act in shooting down the traitor who dared to pull down the country's flag, which he had raised as an evidence of his loyalty and patriotism, which act of daring heroism meets the approbation of the heart and conscience of every loyal citizen of Maryland.

North Carolina.

A SUCCESSFUL EXPEDITION.

WASHINGTON, July 19. The Navy Department has received dispatches from Admiral Lee, enclosing a communication from Commander Macomb, of the United States steamer Shamrock, dated July 13, in which the latter reports that on the 13th he sent Lieutenant Commander English with the Ceres and Whitehead to ascend the Suppernoning river, in co-operation with a detachment of 80 men, under command of Lt. Col. Clarke, to burn the bridge at Columbia, to prevent the rebels from transporting supplies to their army at Plymouth, North Carolina. The expedition was entirely successful, effectually destroying the bridge and disabling a large grist mill. No opposition was encountered.

Sinking of a Steamer.

SANDY HOOK, July 20. The steambost Nere, from New York to Santa Martha, was sunk in the gulf stream on the 15th, in a gale. Her crew left her in boats, one of which, containing 13 persons, was picked up by the surveying schooner Bailey, and was landed here to-day. The other boat, containing the captain, mate, clerk and nine sailors and two coal passers, has not been heard from since the disaster.
