HARRISBURG, PA.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 20, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—A good stout boy to learn Power Press work. Must be able to write a good hand. Apply at this office.

Second Ward Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the citizens of the Second ward this evening, at the Second Ward House, to make arrangements to fill the quota under the late call for volunteers.

BLACKBERRIES appear to be unusually plenty. They were sold at from four to ten cents per quart, this morning.

SMALL SWINDLING.—Ten-cent notes altered into fifties by the pasting process, are in circulation. They can be detected very easily.

The city of Reading offers $300 local bounty for volunteers under the late call of the President.

THE CURTIN FENCIBLES have been mustered into the service, with Capt. A. J. Dintinger, and Lieut. S. M. Mitchell and S. M. Sayford, as officers.

THE annual statement of the city finances will be found in our columns to-day. The table contains a full exhibit of the receipts and expenditures for the year ending in March last, and will be of interest to our citizens generally.

THE NEW CALL.—The call of the President for 500,000 more troops will probably meet with a more prompt response than the former calls.

THE CROPS.—The crops in this neighborhood have all been harvested, and yielded very well.

LUTHERAN PIC-NIC.—The committee of arrangements for the Lutheran picnic have secured the use of cars for the proposed excursion to Derry.

GRAND UNION PIC-NIC.—A grand Union Picnic will be held in Haehnel's grove, on Thursday next, the 21st inst.

OMNIBUSES will run from the corner of Third and Market streets and from the Washington House, corner of Sixth and Walnut, during the day.

LEON B. H. OBER, attached to the 21st Pennsylvania cavalry, and late "local" of the Lancaster Evening Express, has been compelled, by ill health, to resign his position in the army.

CONFERRAL MANNERS.—A Soldier's Wife Turned Out of the House.—The Pottsville Mirror's Journal gives the following instance of Copperhead hospitality to the soldiers and their families.

ON Tuesday last a man named Clemens Ackerman, who owns a house on Sanderson street, in which the wife of Mr. William Hoffman, a soldier of the 7th Pennsylvania Cavalry, resides, threw her furniture out, because she was in arrears to him for rent.

THE publishers of the Pittsburg dailies have raised their price of subscription to $10 per year, or 25 cents per week.

FOURTH WARD MEETING.—An adjourned meeting of the citizens of the Fourth ward will be held at the Hope Engine House, this evening, at 7 o'clock.

A large meeting was held last evening, at the Hope Engine House, for the purpose of making arrangements for filling the quota of the Fourth ward.

A large number of our country exchanges have issued but half-sheets the past two or three weeks, and we would not be surprised to see many of them suspend operations entirely, ere long.

PROMOTION OF A CENTRE COUNTY MAN, FOR GALLANT SERVICE IN THE FIELD.—We were pleased to learn, at the Adjutant General's office, that Private P. Hutchison McCoy, of the 184th Reg., P. V., has been commissioned as a Second Lieutenant of Company B, for gallant service in the field.

FROM OLD MOTHER CUMBERLAND.—A full company of one hundred days' men arrived here to-day, from Mechanicsburg.

NOTICE.—To Soldiers Discharged on Account of Wounds Received in line of Duty.—The undersigned is prepared to collect the $100 Bounty due all such soldiers.

THE CAMERON GUARDS.—This company, which is nearly full, is in camp. A few more men are wanted. The officers are Capt. J. D. Stulliff and Lieut. J. W. Woodburn and J. G. Keener.

RECRUITS WANTED.—Dr. H. W. Miles, formerly captain in the 84th P. V., has received authority to recruit a company for one hundred days' service.

OFFICER FRANKLIN captured and brought to this city, yesterday, four deserters, three of whom belonged to the 20th Pennsylvania cavalry, and were found at their homes in this county.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before the Mayor.—Orsamus Kessler, arrested for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

MUSTERED IN.—The First City Zouaves were mustered into the one hundred days' service, yesterday. The ranks are full.

VIOLATIONS OF CITY ORDINANCES.—Absalom Blessing, a countryman, was before the Mayor, this morning, on a charge of violating section 8 of the market ordinance.

SAEUAL BOYER, another countryman, was selling "at large," for which he was arrested. It appears that he recently rented a stand, but subsequently let it to another person.

W. A. ROUSE, Esq., the well known manager, in which he informs us that he has engaged a number of star performers, many of whom are brilliant planets in the theatrical world.
