DYSPEPSIA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSPEPSIA.

I, ELIZABETH BRANSON, of Brandywine, Del., formerly of Old Chester, Del., do certify that, for one year and a half I suffered everything but death from that awful disease called Dyspepsia.

My whole system was prostrated with weakness and nervous debility. I could not digest any food, and even a cracker or the smallest amount of food, it would return just as I swallowed it; I became so costive in my bowels that I would not have a passage in less than four and often eight days; under this immense suffering, my mind seemed entirely to give way. I had a dreadful horror and evil forebodings. I thought everybody hated me, and I hated everybody; I could not bear my husband nor my own children, everything appeared to be horror-stricken to me; I had no ambition to do anything; I lost all my love of family and home; I would ramble and wander from place to place, but could not content myself; I felt that I was doomed to hell, and that there was no heaven for me, and was often tempted to commit suicide, so near was my whole nervous system destroyed, and also my mind from that awful complaint, Dyspepsia, that my friends thought best to have me placed in Dr. Kirkbride's hospital, West Philadelphia; I remained there nine weeks, and thought I was a little better, but in a few days my dreadful complaint was raging as before. Hearing of the wonderful cures performed by Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and his treatment for Dyspepsia, my husband and I bought a box, and I commenced to take them. He said he had no doubt he could cure me. So in three days after I called and placed myself under the Doctor's treatment, and in two weeks I began to digest my food, and felt that my disease was fast giving way, and I continued to recover for about three months, and at the present time I enjoy perfect health of body and mind, and I most sincerely return my thanks to a merciful God and Dr. Wishart, and to his great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial that saved me from an Insane Asylum and premature grave.

I am now suffering with Dyspepsia, and at liberty to call on me or write, and I am willing to do all the good I can for suffering humanity.

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA!

Dr. WISHART-I have been a constant sufferer with Dyspepsia for the last eighteen years, during which time I had no rest, no enjoyment, with which my life was a mere torment. The symptoms were more aggravated than at others, and then it seemed it would be a great relief to me. I had at all times an unpleasant feeling in my chest, and lately my suffering increased so much that I became almost unable for business of any kind; my mind was continually filled with gloomy thoughts and forebodings, and if I attempted to change their current by any means, it would result in a violent headache, and a feeling of sickness would occur at the stomach, and I had no rest, no enjoyment, with which my life was a mere torment.
