

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

The work of piking Market street is progressing, and has reached a point half-way between Third and Second streets.

We learn that dry goods have taken another "rise," and will probably go still higher. Our people will soon have to adopt the Georgia uniform.

The borough authorities of Altoona are paying $200 bounty for one year's service, instead of $100, as stated in our paper of yesterday.

Mrs. Mayer offers for sale a variety of goods for the ladies, at less than the present wholesale prices. See particulars in our advertising columns.

A COMMITTEE from Silver Spring township, Cumberland county, is now at the Farmer's Hotel, offering liberal bounties for volunteers. See advertisement.

SOLOMON STOFFER, an employee in Gardner & Co.'s foundry, in Carlisle, had one of his legs broken, on Saturday last, by the falling of an end-gate of a coal-car upon the limb.

The receipt of proposals for furnishing the Government with two hundred tons of hay, at this point, will close, at Capt. Reichenbach's office, on Saturday, at noon. Farmers should make a note of this.

On Tuesday next the election on the amendments to the State Constitution will be held. It is hoped that every patriot will do his duty on that day, and stand up for the rights of our noble soldiers who are battling for the Union and the Constitution. Those brave men should have a right to vote.

FOR ONE YEAR!—A company for one year's service is being recruited by Cap. John T. Morgan, an officer who has had experience in the field, and who is fully competent to command a company. He was in Col. Jennings' regiment of nine months' men, and proved himself a gallant soldier. Headquarters at White Hall Hotel, in this city, and at West Fairview.

Our "One Hundred Days" boys are stationed at Camp Mankin, three miles from Baltimore, near Governor Bradford's residence. They reached Baltimore early on Monday morning, and remained there until Tuesday morning, when they were forwarded to their present quarters.

Col. Fisher has command of the One Hundred Days men, and is acting Brigadier General.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.—The Gazette has just added a four-cylinder press to the appliances of its office, and is now enabled to print 10,000 copies an hour. It is the oldest paper printed west of the Allegheny Mountains, and the first daily ever printed at Pittsburgh. It began with an old Franklin press, able to work 100 impressions an hour, and afterward used a single-cylinder until its present acquisition.

There appears to be a general effort making among the people of this State to fill the quotas of the various sub-districts before the time appointed for the draft to take place. This is right. Let us avoid the disgrace of a conscription by filling up the ranks of the armies to the requisite strength. The payment of local bounties appears to have a mighty influence upon those disposed to "play soldier."

THE MAMMOTH CANNON.—Our enterprising townsmen, Messrs. Burnite & Weldon, photographed the monster gun which passed through this city a day or two ago, and which has been noticed in our columns heretofore. The view embraces the cannon, its trucks, a number of by-standers and the surrounding scenery. Protruding from the gun are the head and shoulders of a full grown man, who does not appear to be crowded in the least. Copies of this photograph can be had by applying to Burnite & Weldon. Price one dollar.

DEATH OF A GALLANT HARRISBURGER.—We were pained this morning to hear of the death of Lieut. W. H. Leamy, 10th Regiment, U. S. A. He died at Chattanooga, from the effect of wounds received at Kennewash mountain. Lieut. Leamy was promoted from the ranks of the regular army for gallant service in Texas, where he greatly distinguished himself by his fortitude and courage when older soldiers in command were yielding to the temptation of treason. When placed in a position of command, he proved his worth in a manner to win the confidence of his superiors and the respect of those with whom he ranked. Indeed, we know of no young man who more faithfully and at the same time more modestly served a cause in which the best feelings of his heart were interested. The time will yet come when the memory of such young men will be held in the highest honor by a redeemed nation and a grateful people.

ANOTHER STAMPEDE.—Some of the scared farmers are arriving here again with stock. We met a party of seven stout, able-bodied men yesterday afternoon, each of them riding a good horse, accompanied by a big, able-bodied negro leading two mules. These men left their homes on Saturday last, scattering exaggerated stories of the near approach of the rebels, as they passed on, and although they were a hundred and fifty miles from the place occupied by the rebels, they were still bound to go further to a place of safety, leaving their homes and families at the mercy of the marauders. Their flight reminds us of a celebrated horseman who left Carlisle the other evening in a great hurry, and drove eighteen miles in two hours, in order to escape the advancing rebels, who were making their way towards this city.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Sunday evening last, a young man named J. P. Nevitt, of Leonardtown, Md., died suddenly, from hemorrhage, at Boiling Springs, Cumberland county. He was visiting the springs for his health.

PRO-NICS.—The Sabbath School of the Free Baptist Church held its picnic to-day, in one of the beautiful groves near this city. All present were highly delighted with the recreation afforded—but none enjoyed it more heartily than the little children, who were exceedingly happy.

To-morrow there will be a "basket picnic" by the Good Templars. A good time is anticipated.

CANTERBURY MUSIC HALL is still doing a good business under the management of Joe Miller. The performance embraces every variety of innocent amusement, such as singing, dancing, &c., by male and female artists. The manager announces the re-engagement of Lizzie Lagrange to-night, the champion female jig dancer of America, together with Miss Mary Newton, vocalist; Lizzie Lane, danseuse; Mollie Florence, the people's favorite; Joe Miller, the happy contraband; Ed. Haven, banjoist and comic vocalist; J. B. Whitman, song and dance maid; Andy Williams, Ethiopian comedian; George Blake, the Little Monitor; together with Frank Gladden, pianist; Harry Mestayer, violinist, and Prof. Brooks, the blind comedian, forming the largest company that ever appeared in this city. Don't fail to go to the Canterbury to-night to see the best company in the city.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—But few cases have been before the Mayor.

David Watson, and Jacob Walters, drunkards, were discharged upon payment of fine and costs.

Ann Grey and Eliza Carson, colored, disorderlies, were re-committed, and, upon a second hearing, discharged.

J. P. McAllister and John Kurtz, were found on the streets late at night. They had no baggage. One said he was going West, and the other East. They were sent out of the city.

Daniel Keller, a regular old bummer, was also sent out of town.

Edward Green was found sleeping on the pavements. After a hearing he was started on route for Lancaster, where he belongs.

John Swiger, a revolver, who is constantly on the move was ordered to leave the city. Abner Franklin, a homeless, friendless boy, who was out of money was sent to the Poor House.

WHAT PEOPLE THOUGHT OF HIS MISMANAGEMENT AT HIS POST.—A Plain Man telling Healthy Truth.—The Scraper for this Volunteer for the red tape of the Vacator.—In order that our readers may see that we were not alone in our estimate of the mismanagement of the officers at this point, while Col. Bomford was in charge, we quote the following extract of a letter printed in the West Branch Bulletin, and dated "Harrisburg, July 18, 1864." It is a rich and may comment on the follies, fancies, impertinences, and incapacity of those who aspire to the contest of a branch of the most important business of a great prosperous Government. Read it carefully.

General orders No. 50. "Troops will be accepted in squads." &c. Reported must be made to Col. J. Bomford, U. S. A., Superintendent of Volunteer Recruiting Service, at Harrisburg, &c. To officer, "Where shall we find Col. Bomford?" "Inquire, sir, at Headquarters." "Where is Headquarters?" "Inquire, sir, at Camp Curtin." "At Camp Curtin?" Our squad contains seventy men, to whom shall we report?" "Inquire at the Cotton Factory." At the Cotton Factory? To a Colonel—"We have been directed to inquire at this place for Col. Bomford's Headquarters, and report a squad of seventy men, who have responded to the Governor's call of July 5th and 6th." "Col. Bomford's office is in the office below." "Is Col. Bomford's office, to Order below." "Is Col. Bomford in?" "Go up stairs, sir." "Up stairs—clerk with a searching stare—with great emphasis,—"Your business?" "We report a squad of seventy men to Col. Bomford." "Col. Bomford is not in." "We saw this was the office, so we said,—"when, where and how shall we see him?" "Call down stairs at the back office."

At the back office. (Nobody looks up, all very busy—immense amount of business on hand evidently. Traveled about three miles—perspiration flowing freely, no obstructions except the dust to go ahead.) "We have been directed to report here to Col. Bomford." "I understand that, but a very rapid penman—ridiculously—turn off a heap in a day no doubt." "His office is up stairs." "We turned around to a Lieutenant. "See here, Lieutenant, we desire direct information—we are weary of evasion and ambiguity. The Governor has made a call for men to sweep the invaders of our Republic from our soil. A squad of seventy men, from Williamsport, has responded to that call, and now ask where they shall go and who shall receive them?" "They can go down to the soldiers' rest and get something to eat, but they cannot be accepted unless they are accompanied by a company of eight." "Yes, sir, but that is not according to the programme." "Col. Bomford will not depart from his instructions." "Yes, sir, but I understand his instructions require him to have his headquarters at Harrisburg, and if you do not want the unorganized volunteers to organize and placed in your defenses, the Colonel may not be able to carry out his instructions and have his headquarters at Harrisburg; and as it is probable Washington is at this moment besieged, he may not get orders to change his base—but, good day, sir; we will go the Hill where Curtin, Slifer, Russell and others, who wish to save this country, officiate." We started, the streets were full of squads, and no information of where to go or what course to pursue seemed possible. At the Capitol we were warmly received. The Governor apologized and explained for those officials, and immediately set about to receive the volunteers. He hurriedly called on the officers, used his pen, and directed dispatches, but Bomford could not be reached by any State authority. He was a U. S. officer, and would obey Hall. If Washington was no more forever, what the able volunteers of Pennsylvania could have saved it, Washington is safe, Bomford is safe, and after four days of delay, amidst vexatious efforts, the first infantry company, reporting to Harrisburg under this call, was examined and mustered into the U. S. service for one hundred days, safely and comfortably quartered in Camp Curtin. The boys all passed examination, and the eighty (for we were required to go home to obtain the deficiency) received their ration, blankets, uniforms and camp equipage and went into camp with great ease and jollity. We intended to give Col. Bomford a speciality, but we just remember the story of the jackass. Our State authorities have made all sorts of go ahead, rebuffs and all up the call, &c.

THE Sabbath School of the Fourth St. Bethel, under the pastoral care of Rev. D. A. L. Lavery, will hold a celebration to-morrow. The teachers, scholars and friends of the school will meet at the church at 7 o'clock, A. M. No doubt the occasion will be one of rare interest and enjoyment.

Citizens of Third Ward, Attention

The adjourned meeting of the Third ward will be held this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock, at the Franklin House, to determine whether the amount required to secure the exemption of the ward from the draft shall be raised. More money is needed and greater co-operation is necessary. If the citizens act together, the movement will succeed, but if a portion must do the duty of the whole, we will fail.

Rally, then, with enthusiasm. By order.

Last Rally in the Fourth Ward.

A meeting of the Fourth ward will be held at the Hope Engine House, this evening, to determine what action shall be taken towards raising the quota. Every man interested in the draft should attend this meeting, as immediate action (if any) must be taken to avoid the conscription.

Volunteers Wanted for One Year.

Verbeke Guards.—The undersigned has received authority to raise a company for one year's service in lieu of the draft. $300 bounty will be given to all good men, and possibly $400. At all events I have made such arrangements as will insure to all the most bountiful given anywhere. This is the only way to avoid the draft. Headquarters at the Exchange, Walnut street.

G. WASHINGTON FENN, Captain.

We find the following in the Leavenworth Daily Times of the 12th of July inst.:

"We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting Capt. Chas. C. Rawn, of the 7th U. S. Infantry, from Fort Craig, N. M. Capt. Rawn has been stationed in New Mexico for over three years, and in that time has seen considerable of greater life. We learn from him that the Navajoes have been very subdued. They are giving but little, if any, trouble at present. The Cheyennes, however, are making preparations for war, and considerable trouble is anticipated from that tribe. A band of Colorado robbers or Texas guerrillas, which he is unable to say, infests the country along the Simaroon, committing depredations upon inhabitants and travelers. Parties are out after them, and it is hoped they will speedily be trapped or destroyed."

After continuous absence on duty in New Mexico of between two and three years, the Captain was lately ordered east to Fort Schuyler, N. Y., in charge of a body of non-commissioned officers of the 7th U. S. Infantry, (to which he is attached), on recruiting service, &c. He is now enjoying a brief furlough, at home, in our city, among kindred and friends, and although looking considerably "bronzed," exhibits unmistakable signs of robust health and hardiness.

WHOLESALE PRICES OF DRY GOODS, AS REPORTED BY SMITH & CO.

No. 81 AND 83 FRANKLIN STREET, New York, July 26, 1864.

Sprague prints, 40c; American, 40c; Pacific, 42c; Dannels, 40c; Dutches B, 35c; American delaines, 47c; 4-4 White Muslin, Bates Mills, 70c; Wamsutter, 75c; Blackstone, 65c; White Rock, 67c; Lonsdale, 65c; Cotton Flannels, Hamilton, 75c; Globes, 70c; Ceneotoga, 70c.

The above is a quotation of prices of a few leading articles, which sales have been made. The public can see from these prices, that the cheap store of C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets, Harrisburg, Pa., is selling these same style and make of goods at five to ten cents a yard cheaper than the present wholesale prices. This state of things can not of course continue but a short time. We therefore respectfully desire those in want of dry goods, to purchase at once.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Bannart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864. C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

Agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannart's Troches.

W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 1, 1864. To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that what has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in relieving the dryness of the throat, and in imparting speed to the delivery of the voice, and in the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.

JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or hoarseness or voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c.

G. G. RAKES, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864.

To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers.

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution. Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article of the Constitution. There shall be an additional section to the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:

"Section 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of the Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens under such regulations as are, or shall be prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of election. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature, containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature, granting any powers, privileges, or immunities, or authority to grant such powers, or privileges, has been, or may hereafter be, conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth."

HENRY C. JOHNSON, Speaker of the House of Representatives. JOHN P. PENNEY, Speaker of the Senate.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, Harrisburg, April 25, 1864.

I do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the original Joint Resolution of the General Assembly, entitled "A Joint Resolution proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Secretary of the Commonwealth to be hereunto affixed, this 25th day of April, A. D. 1864.

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The above resolution having been agreed to by a majority of the members of each House, at two successive sessions of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, the proposed amendments shall be submitted to the people, for their adoption or rejection, on the first Tuesday of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in accordance with the tenth article of the Constitution, and the act, entitled "An Act prescribing the time and manner of submitting to the people, for their approval and ratification or rejection, the proposed amendments to the Constitution," approved on the twenty-third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

ELI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

ASHBOOTH'S LOW WATER DETECTOR IS AN INFALLIBLE PROTECTION against explosion or burning of the flue or boiler, as no other can prevent it. It is placed in the flue, and gives immediate notice of lack of water in the boiler, in season to put on a supply without drawing the fire. Want of water is the great source of so many sad catastrophes which have recently occurred. We warrant this instrument to be a perfect insurance against such contingencies. Price $50. Full instructions for its use accompany the application, as well as reference to some of the prominent manufacturers and iron masters of the State using them, sent on application to D. C. MEADE & CO., Piquette, Pa. 125-d4w3m
