ARE CURED BY

HOOFLAND'S

GERMAN BITTERS.

THE GREAT STRENGTHENING TONIC.

THESE Bitters have performed more cures; have and do give better satisfaction; have more testimony; have more respectable people to vouch for them tnan any other article in the market.

We dely any one to cohtradict this assertion, and will pay $1,000 to any one that will produce a certificate published by us that is not genuine. Hofland's German Bitters, will cure every case of Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and diseases arising from a disordered stomach. Observe the following symptoms, resulting from the disorders of the digestive organs: Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or fluttering at the pit of the stomach, Swimming of the head, Hurried and difficult breathing, Fluttering at the heart, Choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, Dots or webs before the sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Fain in the side;
back, chest, limbs, &c., Suddon flushes of heat, Burning in the fiesh, Constant imaginations of evil, and great dopression of spirits.

Remember that this Bitters is not alcoholic, contains no pression of spirits.

Remember that this Bitters is not alcoholic, contains no rum or whisky, and can't make drunkards, but is the best Toule is the world.

READ WHO SAYS SO:

From the Rev. Levi G. Beck, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

I have known Roofland's German Bitters favorably I have known Roofand's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afficient with the diseases for which they are recommended to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink." Yours truly.

LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the En yelopedia of Religious Knowledge and Christian Chroni-le. Philabelphia oyclopedia of Relizious Knowledge and Christian Chronicie, Philahelphia.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Mehlelnes in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the bonefits he believed himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofand's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert. Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued dobility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the pressit year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had to the present the property of the property of the property of the property of the present the property of the property of the property of the property and the depression of the property o not for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for diregaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN, Philada.

From Rev. Warren Randolph, Pastor of Baptist Church, Germantewn, Penn.

Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters, prepared by yow, as a most excellent medicine. In cases of severe cold and general debility I have been greatly benefited by the use of the Bitters, and doubt not they will produce similar effects on others.

Yours truly

WARREN RANDOLPH,

Germantown, Pa.

From Rev. J. H. Turner, Pastor of Hedding M. E Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—Having used your Ger man Bitters in my family frequently I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge.

Yours, respectfully

J. H. TURNER,
No. 726 N. Nigeteenth street.

From the Rev. J. M. Lyons, formerly Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Milestown (Pa.) Baptist Churches.

Naw Rochella, N. Y.

Br. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since being much af nicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfestled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from tham the most flatuering testimonials as to their great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it to be a tonic that cannot be surpassed.

J. M. LYONS.

From the Rev Thomas Winter, Pastor of Roxborough ptist Church. Dr. Jackson:—Dean Sir:—I felt it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters, did so, and, have experienced great and unexpected gibilet; my health friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters, did so, and have experienced great and unexpected felief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

T. WINTER, Roxborough, Pa.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kniztown, Berks county, Pa.

Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Respected Sir:—I have been troubled with Dyspegis nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health;

Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.

HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 3 1864 PRICE TWO CENTS.

CHAMBERSBURG, August 1, 1864.

There were not, at the time the rebels advanced upon Chambersburg, one hundred troops all told, within reach of this place, subject to the order of Gen. Couch. Several hundred of Gen. Averill's command were about the town during Thursday evening, but they were guards detailed by Gen. Averill for his trains, and such considered, and they were ordered towards Shippensburg at they were ordered towards Shippensburg at one o'clock, A. M., on Friday morning. They could not be detached from the trains, and the moving of the trains was a nenecessity. When they left, there were forty men remaining for Gen. Couch to defend the town' with against the combined commands of the rebel Generals McCausland and Bradly Johnston; and these men were all detached on rights and accretic date. detached on picket and scouting duty. The citizens who "were antious to defend the town; as you state, certainly forgot to mention that fact until they got to Harrisburg. Had Gen. Couch felt able to relist, a number of citizens would doubtless have aided him; but he well knew that he could not resist an augmented force of 3,000 veteran rebels.

The troops engaged under the late call for for not performing impossibilities.

Gen. Averill possibly might have saved Chambersburg, and I know that Gen. Couch exhausted himself to get Averill to fall back from Greencastle to this point. I do not say that Gen. Averill is to blame, for he was under orders from Gen. Hunter, and not subject to Gen. Couch. He had a large force of the enemy in his front, and until it is clearly proven to the contrary, I must believe that he

Gen. Couch had not "shipped all his private effects from town on Monday," as you state. He had moved nething, and left his private effects here to share the fate of the town. He remained at his post until his only squad of traces, were driven into the town. squad of troops were driven into the town, and then Maj. Maneeley of his staff, took one piece of artillery to the hill west of Chambersburg, hoping to delay the enemy in the darkness until the railroad trains and stores could all be got away.

I have not seen Gen. Couch for several days, I have written this at the suggestion of no one, and as I write whereof I know, I may be pardoned for correcting the flood of absurd rumors which have originated fifty miles from the rebel lines. No man who remained to defend the town, and knew of the actual condition of affairs, has given out or sanctioned them.

A Small Party of Rebels in Maryland.

BY THEM. Register of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, August 2. Various reports have been in circulation here to-day of a cavalry force being in Montgomery county, Maryland. It is known, however, that it was only a small raiding party who entered the county last night and proceeded as far as Gaithersville, three miles from Rockville. The people in the county were greatly frightened, and many had property ready to be moved.

EVENING EDITION

A Card from Chambersburg.

To the Editors of the Telegraph :- You have been sadly misinformed as to the facts relative to Gen. Couch's efforts to protect Chamburs-burg, and also as to the feeling in this place. I doubt not that many, who left in good time, complained that Gen. Couch and the citizens not defend Chambersburg against 3,000 rebels; but those who stood by Gen. Couch, ready to join in the defence if practicable, as did the writer hereof, do not and will not censure Gen. Couch.

The troops engaged under the late call for 100 day men, were ordered to Washington as fast as engaged, and even his Provost Guard Regiment, engaged for duty in his Department, was also ordered to Gen. Grant; and he had not a regiment of troops at any point in the State. I mean to express no opinion as to the propriety of mov-ing all the troops to Washington when the State was threatened, but mention the fact as a matter of justice to an earnest, faithful and competent officer, who is now flercely censured did his whole duty.

When Gen. Couch left there two rebel bat-teries planted commanding the town—one on the Fair Ground Hill and another west of that, and a rebel force of certainly not less than 2,500—reported since by Averill at 3,000—was around us. They did not all enter; but while McCausland sacked and burned the town, the remainder of the command were rioting in the doomed village.

I am not one of the lightest sufferers by delivered at the Government stables at Harrisburg, Fa. Said horses to be sound in all particulars, not less than (5) five nor more than (9) nine years old; from 14½ to 16 hands high, full fleshed, compactly built, bridle wise and of size sufficient for cavalry purposes.

Thus specifications will be strictly adhered to and rigidly captured in every wartender. the rebel possession of the town, and had General Couch failed to do his duty, I cer-tainly could have no motive for defending him; but having devoted my whole time and full efforts for several days to aid in protect-ing the town, I fell it to be due to General Couch to say that he left no efforts or means within his power untried to save us, and that he did not succeed, must be explained otherwise than by censuring a faithful but troopless commander.
