THIRTY THOUSAND MEN are wanted immediately for State defence. They are to be mustered into the State service, and serve during the emergency. The Governor's proclamation and accompanying order will be found in our columns to-day. All able-bodied men who can possibly leave their business for a brief period should rally at once to delend in the name of our common humanity they the State from the rebel hordes who are about were entreated to spare the building. They to invade us for the purpose of destroying our towns and cities, and robbing our peoples

Another batch of colored people arrived here, from Cumberland Valley, yesterday. They no doubt skedaddled on account of the rumor that the rebels were coming. These poor creatures are indeed to be pitied. They are compelled to leave their homes upon every approach of the rebels, through fear of being captured. Many of them are penniless-all are poor, and by their constantly moving to and fro are unable to earn anything towards maintaining themselves during the coming

EXTORTION THE RULING PASSION OF THE D Hour.—Prices rule supremely high, and are on the ascending scale. Without shame, conscience or remorse, everybody (the printer D cepted) asks three, four and five prices for every article in the market, with the sublimated assurance that they do not care to sell even at that. We warn the extortioner to desist. Surely, there is a day coming when you will all wish that you had been printers, or had heeded the printer's precepts and fellowed his most reasonable example.

MURDER A brutal murder was committed in the quiet and beautiful village of Turkhannock, in this State, one week ago last Thursday. The particulars are as follows: Two young men, named Jerry Dunn and Tom King, formerly of Oswego, N. Y., brought a negro there for the purpose of enlisting him as a substitute, but the negro becoming dissatisfied, told them that he would not enlist. and started to leave their company. They told him to halt, but he kept on walking faster and faster, until he passed a house, when a dog came out and bit him. This made the negro increase his speed to a rup, when the two young men fired their revolvers at him: ... Still the negro kept running, when after about dozen shots had been fired at high, seven of which took effect, he threw both arms up, and implored them to desist and give him time to pray. They came to him and said, "We will give you time to pray, you ---," and one picked up a club and the other a large stone, and beat his brains out, iterally grinding his head to powder. They were immediately arrested and placed in the Tunkhannock jail, where they now are awaking their trial and conviction for murder. FIENDISHNESS OF THE REBELS AT CHAMBERS BURG.—The Pittsburg Commercial has an account of the burning of Chambersburg from two ladies who were witnesses of the whole aZair. It says: "One instance related to us seems so repugnant to all our ideas of human nature that had we not the most implicit confidence in the veracity of our informants, we should hesitate to credit it even of the rebels. It seems that one house to which they set fire contained the corpse of a dead woman. This fact was made known to the incendiaries, and refused, and after rudely removing the corps to a lot near by, applied the torch and the house of the dead was a smouldering ruin. Another case was related to us of a young lady lying dangerously ill in her room, and upon the fact being made known, it was not until a guard of the rufflans had entered the sick chamber and by a personal examination satisfied themselves of the dying girl's condition that they consented to forego burning

he house."		7
