

NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, Abraham Lincoln, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Andrew Johnson, OF TENNESSEE.

THE SITUATION.

The city still continues to be filled and agitated by rumors, received from fugitives as they arrive here from the Cumberland Valley. While we desire to give credence and circulation to all reports worthy of consideration, it is of course our duty to be cautious in creating increased alarm in sections already convulsed with panic.

Col. Samuel B. Thomas, one of the aids of Gov. Curtin, was dispatched this morning to Harper's Ferry, with instructions to look after and report to the State Government, the condition and wants of the Pennsylvania regiments stationed at that post.

Major General Cadwallader telegraphed a stirring and characteristic appeal, from his headquarters in this city, to-day, to the people of Philadelphia and vicinity, earnestly urging them to respond to the call of the Governor for troops to join in the State defence.

A dispatch received in this city, by the cashier of the Harrisburg Bank, from the cashier of the Chambersburg Bank, states that information had been received at Chambersburg, through reliable individuals, of the evacuation of Hagerstown this morning by the rebels.

THE CROSS IN WESTERN MARYLAND are represented to be in a deplorable condition, the country being almost reduced to a parched state, there having been no rain of consequence since the last of May.

THE COPPERHEAD PRESS is now sorely exercised and is toiling to lash the public into indignation about the emptiest of hollow abstractions. The point fiercely insisted upon is, that Mr. Lincoln must not refuse to welcome back the South with slavery.

A REPORT reaches us from Texas that Union sentiments are gaining rapidly in that State, and that in Northern Texas there are already ten lodges of Union Leaguers, which are very secretly and cautiously but constantly increasing their numbers.

The Effect of the Draft on Men Actually in Service.

It is important to those who are entering the service of the National Government, as soldiers, to understand, that when a man is in the army, regularly mustered into the United States service, he is not subject to the requirements of the draft made during the term of his enlistment.

THE 25th JUDICIAL DISTRICT. The Conference of the Twenty-fifth Judicial District, composed of Beaver, Butler and Lawrence, assembled in New Castle on the 25th inst., and nominated Hon. L. L. McGiffin as a candidate for President Judge of that District.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, for August 13, contains the usual fang in Pennsylvania, in which the New York journals all delight to indulge, in the shape of an illustration intended to ridicule our agricultural friends, who have suffered so much from rebel invasion.

THE VOCATIONS OF THE PEOPLE.—The vocations of the people make a curious subject of inquiry. Of 644,966 persons enrolled in Ohio, as heads of families or single laborers, the vocations as shown by the census were as follows:

Table listing vocations and their counts: Farmers, 223,483; Farm laborers, 76,484; Laborers, 78,583; Servants, 82,670; Mechanics, 21,571; Blacksmiths, 10,080; Masons, 3,765; Painters, 3,766; Plasterers, 1,650; Shoemakers, 11,396; Tailors, 5,550; Tailoresses, 1,602; Seamstresses, 7,150; Milliners, 4,990; Merchants, 8,509; Grocers, 4,921; Clerks, 10,963; Teachers, 10,501.

PRIVILEGES OF THE THREE YEARS' MEN.—According to an order from the Adjutant General's office, volunteers serving in three years' organizations, who may have at the date of re-enlistment less than sixty days to serve, may re-enlist in the regiments or companies to which they belong for one, two or three years, as they may in each case elect.

WHAT REBELLION IS DOING FOR SLAVERY.—The Nashville Union says: "The colored regiments revived last Wednesday were composed of stout, able-bodied, athletic men, in the prime and vigor of life. There was not one amongst them who, in 1860, would not have brought, as a slave, $1,000 on the block!

WITH A MORE sublime assurance, the New York News declared that "excepting the few soldiers of fanaticism, who, under any circumstances, would support a war for the abandonment of slavery, every soldier of the North, who is not controlled in the exercise of his elective franchise by his superiors, will vote for a peace candidate, if any be nominated."

SECRETARY FESSENDEN, it is said, expresses much gratification at the manner in which the new loan is being taken by the people. Returns are, as yet, received from but comparatively few points, but the aggregate reported officially and unofficially is already over ten millions of dollars.

THE Democratic party in New York city, if we may rely upon the Herald, is divided into four hostile cliques, viz: the Tammany faction; the Mozart faction; the Young Wood faction; a split from Mozart against the Woods and the McKean faction, represented by Mayor Guithrie.

REBELS WHIPPED AT NEW CREEK. THE REBEL LOSS LARGE. They Leave Their Dead and Wounded.

GALLANTRY OF OUR TROOPS. Rebel Occupation of Hagerstown. CUMBERLAND, Aug. 5. Major Gen. Couch:—My forces repulsed the enemy again yesterday at New Creek.

was composed of the troops who were in the late expedition of Gen. Rousseau.

THE REBEL GEN. FORREST is reported to be at Atlanta under Gen. Hood.

Two hundred and thirty-seven Confederate prisoners reached here last evening, including eleven commissioned officers.

NASHVILLE, August 5.—The latest from Gen. McCook's cavalry expedition is highly encouraging and lessens the extent of the disaster.

Gen. McCook has himself reached Marietta with twelve hundred men. A squad of three hundred had reached the same point a short time previous.

Gen. Sherman alludes to the raid as successful. Everything is quiet at the front.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 3.—Advices from Nashville say that Gen. McCook, who was supposed to have been captured near Newman, has come in with a hundred and twenty of his men.

Gen. McCook was successful in breaking the Macon road, and capturing and destroying a wagon and railroad train.

He also captured seventy-two officers and thirty-five men, but was obliged to let them go.

The safe return of Gen. McCook, with so many of his men, reduces his loss very materially. More will probably get in.

THE DEFENCES OF MOBILE ATTACKED BY ADMIRAL FARRAGUT'S FLEET. HIS VESSELS REPORTED TO HAVE PASSED THE FORTS.

THE BOMBARDMENT SAID TO HAVE OCCUPIED THREE DAYS AND TO BE STILL PROGRESSING.

GEN. GRANGER IN COMMAND OF THE LAND FORCES. NEW ORLEANS, July 30. Intelligence has just arrived at these headquarters that Admiral Farragut has repulsed the rebels off Mobile, and is bombarding the upper defences.

THE ADMIRAL HAS NOW SIX IRON-CLAD GUNBOATS, and two more left this city to-day. This will make eight in all.

THE BOMBARDMENT HAS BEEN CONTINUED FOR THREE DAYS, and it is expected that the city will surrender before the close of next week.

INFORMATION WAS RECEIVED AT THE HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF on Thursday that Admiral Farragut had passed Forts Morgan and Gaines, which had been supposed to command the entrance to Mobile Bay.

HE IS THEREFORE, if the information is correct, with a part of his fleet, between the forts and the city, and the former must speedily surrender.

GENERAL GRANGER WILL COMMAND THE LAND FORCES, which will occupy Mobile and Garrison the forts, if every success crown the movements of Admiral Farragut, as everybody here expects.

COLORADO. ANNOUNCMENT OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. DENVER CITY, (C. T.), Aug. 3. The Constitutional Convention adjourned to-day. H. D. Towne is nominated for Governor.

A SMALL PARTY OF GUERRILLAS, supposed to be from Southwestern Texas, have been committing depredations in this vicinity for a week past.

SMITH, Secretary of the order of the American Knights.

CHARLES L. HUNT and CHARLES E. DUNN, the former the Grand and the latter the Deputy Grand Commander, also asked for a re-examination, in which they acknowledged their former statements to be untrue, and admitted the existence of the Order of American Knights and their membership of it.

THE CONFESION GIVEN BY THE DETAILS OF THE WORKINGS AND PURPOSES OF THE ORDER, but no new facts of importance are revealed.

IN THE NAME AND BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the said Commonwealth.

A PROCLAMATION. The advance of the Rebel Army has again crossed the Potomac and this morning occupied Hagerstown.

I call for thirty thousand volunteer militia to be mustered into the service of the State to serve during the emergency for the defence of the State.

THE MEN EAST OF JOHNSTOWN will rendezvous at Harrisburg, and those West of that place at Pittsburg.

I cannot too earnestly urge upon the people of the State the necessity for the immediate presence of this force.

THE GENERAL ORDERS which accompany this Proclamation, set forth the arrangements for transportation, &c., and the mode of organization.

A. G. CURTIN, [L. S.] By the Governor: ELI SLITZER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

HEADQUARTERS PENNA. MILITIA, HARRISBURG, Aug. 5, 1864. GENERAL ORDERS, No. 53.

IN ACCORDANCE with my proclamation, this day made, It is Ordered, That all able-bodied men of Pennsylvania do immediately assemble in their respective boroughs, wards and townships, and organize companies for the defence of the State.

COMPANIES, as rapidly as organized, will, on application to the different railroad companies, be furnished with transportation, by the United States, to the proper rendezvous—those organized west of Johnstown, to Camp Reynolds, at Pittsburg; those organized east of Johnstown, to Camp Curtin, at Harrisburg, where they will be subsisted by the U. S. Government, sworn into the service of the State, for State defence during the period of the existing emergency, and organized into regiments. By order of A. G. CURTIN, Governor and Commander-in-Chief. A. L. RUSSELL, Adjutant Gen. Penn'a.
