TOWN AND COUNTRY The Draft-An Effort to Fill the Quota of the City.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Harris burg will be held at the Court House on Monday evening, August 8th, with the view of petitioning the city council to make an appropriation to secure the filling up of the quotas of all the wards in the city of Harrisburg. Under the plan adopted of assessing respectively the citizens of each ward, several of the wards will be unable to fill their quotas, for the reason that the great majority of the citizens thereof are working men, whose incomes prevent them from making extravagant subscriptions. It is hoped that every man interested in the draft will be present.

A Battallion of Infantry for the Entrenchment and the Defence of the Fords on the Susque-

The Committee of safety has authorized Gen. E. C. Williams, an officer of reputation and character, to raise a battalion of infantry, to secure the entrenchment and defence of the fords on the Susquehanna river, in the vicinity of this city. This will afford a fine opportunity for those of the citizens who seek service near home, and we have no doubt that Gen. Williams will be able to raise his battalion before the Sabbath is over.

Volunteers Wanted.-One Year! Curtin and are nearer completion than any other one year company. A few more good men are wanted, to whom the highest bounty will be paid, and to all first-rate men L am able to offer extra inducements which no other officer can offer. Men are clothed, fully equipped and subsisted immediately, and their pay commences Now is the time to avoid the draft, secure your bounties and rally to the defence of your Government, at the WALNUT ST. EXCHANGE BUILDING, (lower room.)

G. WASHINGTON FENN, Captain.

Independent Cavairy. An independent company of cavalry, to act as scouts, is being organized here, by Capt. Frank A. Murray and Lieuts. S. S. Davis and George W. Swartz. Each man has to find his own horse, and the State will furnish arms and equipments. Application should be made at Murray's or Davis's Livery Stables. Here-is an excellent opportunity for active service as scouts, under good officers.

Lochiel Greys One Years Service. A few more men wanted to fill up this organization. $350 local bounty paid, $100 go to camp and draw uniforms as soon as mustered in. Rally men, and avoid the com-beck, Recruiting Officers.

Attention!

A meeting of the citizens favorable to the organization of a Battalion for the defence of Harrisburg and its immediate vicinity, will be held at the Court house this evening, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of organization.

CITIZENS' MEETING. - A meeting of the citizens of Harrisburg will be held at the Court House, this (Saturday) evening, at the ringing of the bell, for the purpose of organizing companies for the emergency. Let there be a general turnout on the part of the people, so that preparations may be made to defend our city from the threatened invasion.

Owing to the crowded state of our columns we are compelled to curtail our local matters considerably, to-day.

Going Home.—Over a hundred furlougher wounded soldiers, from the York hospital arrived here to day, en route for their homes, Most of them belong to New York State.

BEHIND TIME. - The fast line of the Pennsylvania railroad, due here at six o'clock this morning, did not arrive here until noon. We have not learned the cause of the delay.

Bur five cases were before the Mayor this morning-all drunks. Three were discharged upon payment of fine and costs, and the others were handed over to the Provost Mar-

On the Rise. -There has been a "rise" of several feet in the Susquehanna within a day or two. This is very gratifying, inasmuch as it puts an end to fording the river at present, by the rebs or anybody else.

ALEXANDER PHILIPS, an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad company, was attacked by a party of soldiers, or thieves disguised as soldiers, who robbed him of his pocket book and a number of other articles, night before last, on Second street.

THERE was a slight advance in the prices of marketing this morning, no doubt caused by an extra demand on account of the addition of two or three thousand persons to our population. The supply was large, but not large enough, except in the case of a few articles.

THE Minute Men, who were absent on duty by direction of the Provost Marshal, have returned, and express themselves as highly pleased with their respective trips to Fort Delaware and Washington. Not one of the THE VERBERE GUARDS are now in Camp prisoners or stragglers placed under their care e scaped.

> BAPTIST CHURCH.—There will be service in the Baptist Church, corner of Second and Pine streets, on to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock and at 71 o'clock in the evening. The pulpit will be occupied by the Rev. Mr. Clapp, of Lewisburg. The public are invited to attend.

HARRY H. DAVIS .- A letter has been received from this well known artist, containing the gratifying intelligence that he had safely reached his native land, after a pleasant journey across the 'big water." The letter, which is dated "Monmouthshire, South Wales, July 18th" "states that Mr. Davis arrived at his father's house on the second of last month, after an absence of eleven years. He expects to commence the exhibition of his panorama of the American war, in Concert Hall, Great Nelson street, Liverpool, about the middle of August.

FATAL ACCIDENTAL. An accident occurred on the Northern Central railroad, vester day, by which Reulien Miller, a brakesman on the local freight train (south,) lost his life, near Texas station. THE PANIC IN THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY-Arrival of Refugees from Hagerstown: Green Castle, Chambersburg and Carlisle. - The entire rolling stock of the Cumberland, Valley railroad, is now occupied in carrying pastengers from the country through which this road runs, to Harrisburg, whence they take passage to different parts of the State, or such as can go no further than this point receive hospitable shelter and entertainment in the homes of this city. Over twenty-four hundred women and children arrived here last evening. It was a pitiful sight to behold these standing in groups, strangers as it were, in a strange city, pilgrims from their once happy homes, which but yesterday were turned to ashes by the torohes of the invading traiters. Old women who had never expected to be borne away from their homes, until they were carried to their graves-matrons in the prime of life, with their families of half-grown her breast-all alone, with tearful eyes, and blanched cheeks, made up a picture of distress such as we have seldom before beheld, and such as weeds not again desire to gaze upon. The appearance of the rebels at Hagerstown, yesterday morning, was the cause of the panic which drove these people to this city. From one of these fugitives we learn that the foraging parties of rebels issuing from Hagerstown bear with them black flags. Our informant faither stated to us that the men on these foraging expeditions are exceedingly abusive and coarse in their language, swearing that they did not come to Maryland and Pennsylvania this time to thresh grain or steal horses, but that their FOUND-A lot of papers, the property of purpose was to burn and plunder as they went, to spread ruin and desolation wherever

-Such are the impressions, and such the panic which now prevail in the Chimberland Valley. The women and children from that region who seek shelter in the homes of Harrisburg, will be kindly welcomed and hospiof baptism will be administered to a number tably treated. Let it be said of the wives and of children, by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Barrow, mothers of Harrisburg, that as their his-Tun Cumberland Valley trains of to day Valley, to meet the rebel invader, and give The Cumberland Valley trains of to-day brought large numbers of Chambersburgers, who, in addition to those brought yesterday and last night, have increased our population to a considerable extent.
