PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR. The following communication from the Secretary of the Commonwealth, with the accompanying Proclamation of the Governor, was read:—STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA. OFFICE OF SEC'Y OF THE COMMONWEALTH. HARRISBURG, PA., August 9, 1864.

Mr. COCHRAN, (Philadelphia,) I move that a committee of five be appointed to wait upon the Governor and inform him that this House is now in session, agreeably to the call of his proclamation. The motion was agreed to, and Messrs. COCHRAN, (Philadelphia,) PATRICK and HANNEY were appointed as the committee.

Mr. COCHRAN, (Philadelphia,) I move that a committee of two be appointed to inform the Senate that the House is now in session, in pursuance of the Governor's proclamation. The motion was agreed to, and Messrs. SMITH, (Philadelphia,) and ROBINSON were appointed as the committee.

adopt such measures as may, in their wisdom, be demanded by the exigencies of the occasion. In testimony whereof, I have heretofore set my hand and caused the Great Seal of this Commonwealth to be affixed at Harrisburg, this first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-ninth. A. G. CURTIN. [s. s.]

By the Governor: ER. SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth. COMMITTEES OF NOTIFICATION. Mr. COCHRAN, (Philadelphia,) I move that a committee of five be appointed to wait upon the Governor and inform him that this House is now in session, agreeably to the call of his proclamation.

Resolved, That Messrs. FLEMING and KINSLEY be a committee to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate is now organized and ready to proceed to business. The motion was agreed to, and Messrs. FLEMING and KINSLEY were appointed as such committee.

Mr. TURRELL, from the committee appointed to wait upon the Governor, reported that the committee had performed their duty, and that the Governor had stated that he would in a few moments communicate with the House in writing. MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. WATSON offered the following resolution: Resolved, (If the Senate concur,) that much of the message of the Governor as refers to the military organization of the State be and is hereby referred to a joint committee of five members of each House, with instructions to report by bill or otherwise, as soon as practicable.

Mr. BIGHAM offered the following resolution: Resolved, That so much of the message of the Governor as refers to revenue be referred to a select committee of five members of each House.

Mr. SMITH (Chester,) I would suggest that the number of the committee on the part of the House be seven instead of five. A special committee of seven members of the House has already had under consideration the subject of the revision of our revenue system; and as the members of that committee have given this subject more attention than much wiser men might be able to give it in a short time, it probably will be better, (should the suggestion receive the approval of the Speaker,) that the committee already appointed should act as the special committee under this resolution.

Mr. SMITH, (Philadelphia,) Mr. Speaker, I trust that this amendment will not be adopted, but that the original proposition will be carried. If understood correctly, the duties which devolve upon us at this time are to be performed, not in this House, but in our committee rooms, by the several committees which may be appointed to digest and prepare such bills as will be necessary for our action.

Senate has done, without now taking any action as to what shall be our regular hour of meeting. By to-morrow we may, perhaps, be better able to act on this question than we are at present. Mr. HASLET. In view of the suggestion of the gentleman from Chester, I withdraw my amendment for the present.

Mr. SMITH (Chester) moved to amend the resolution of the gentleman from Chester, that the proposition of the gentleman from Chester shall be adopted. It occurs to me, however, that, as matters now stand, we cannot, at the present time, adopt any intelligent action in this House, until the committees shall have digested and reported bills for our consideration. I think that for us to attempt, in this House, to digest the various measures which it is necessary to pass, would be a very erroneous method of proceeding.

Mr. MILLER (on leave) read in place an act for the organization of the National Guard of Pennsylvania. Referred to the special committee on the subject of the military organization of the State.

Mr. MILLER will state, in connection with the bill which I have just presented, that it was prepared by some gentlemen in Philadelphia who are fully competent to frame such a measure; and I am sure that it will be in many of its features in accordance with the recommendations embraced in the message of the Governor. I think that it is a bill suitable for the emergency and one which will secure us an effective military organization.
