NATIONAL UNION TICKET

FOR PRESIDENT,

Abraham Lincoln, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. Andrew Johnson, OF TENNESSEE.

Union County Convention.

The loyal citizens of Dauphin county are invited to meet in County Convention, for the purpose of nominating candidates for county officers, at the Court House in the city of Harrisburg, on Tuesday, the sixth day of September, 1864, at 10½ o'clock, A. M.

Meetings for the election of delegates will be held in the various townships of the county, at the usual places of holding said elections, between the hours of five and seven P. M., and the several wards and beroughs between the hours of seven and nine r. M., on Saturday, September 3d, 1864.

H. THOMAS. Chairman Union County Committee.

S. S. CHILD, Secretary.

Bounty Swindlers.

We learn from the Lancaster Express that the city of Lancaster and some districts in the county, have paid large sums of money for the purpose of paying bounties to enlisted men who credited themselves to their respective districts, that the proper credits were obtained, but the soldiers who were to receive the money for performing military duty have been outrageously swindled by certain bounty brokers. The Express states that the following facts can be proven, viz:

"That lieut. Barnes received about $87,-000, which was paid by different wards, boroughs and township; a portion of which was from this county. For these men the credits promised were given.

"That among the credits thus given were members of companies B and C, 16th V. R. O., who were not paid. When Barnes was cornered about the matter, he said he had paid their money to Stuart A. Wylie, and, to justify himself, produced Wylie's receipt for $23,000, referring the officers of those companies to him for payment.

"That Wylie has been "settling" with those veterans by paying them from $125 to $175 each—some who refused these figures being still unpaid—while the tax payers are charged with from $300 to $320 each for the credits.

"It is also alleged, and believed in quarters well informed, that the intention was to prefer charges against Lieut Barnes, but that a son of Col. Bomford, clerk in the Provost Marshal's office at Harrisburg, being interested with Barnes in the "profits," this proceeding was stayed by some mysterious influence."

This Lieut. Barnes was for some time past a prominent "official" in the office of the Provost Marshal General, under Lieut. Col. Bomford, and we referred frequently to the many complaints made against that office.— It was notoriously proclaimed that none but those who were in the "ring" could transact any business with promptness through that office. Whether Col. Bomford's son had any interest in these fraudulent transactions we are unable to say, and we refer our readers to the closing paragraph of the article in the Express on that subject. It reads thus:

"Since our last article, we learn, to our surprise, that when the bounty money from this city was paid at Harrisburg, neither the Treasurer nor the Committee saw the men for whom it was paid. It was paid to certain "agents," who were "endorsed" by Col. Bomford. This fact may throw some light upon the suppression of proceedings against Lieut. Barnes, for the reasons alleged—the complicity of young Bomford, &c."

If Col. Bomford really prevented investigation, let it be done now, since he is removed from office. We have no doubt that Major Dodge, the present incumbent, will cheerfully have the matter investigated, and we shope that it may be done without delay.

Whilst on this subject we would respectfully call the attention of Major Dodge to the notorious conduct of several bounty brokers, who are constantly robbing the men who enlist in the service of the United States. It is a notorious fact that districts, counties and private individuals pay from $200 to $900 bounty for substitutes and credits to men who enter the service, and yet the men who actually enlist with an honest intention to serve the Government faithfully, scarcely receive ONE-HALF THE SUM PAID. Some of these very men who are engaged as bounty brokers in this city to-day, are men who have been disgracefully discharged from the United States service, and are now doing everything to injure the Government by their dishonest conduct; others have been banished from this city before for swindling enlisted men, and we city before for swindling enlisted men, and we hope that Maj. Dodge, the military commander of the post, will not tolerate them in this department any longer. Let kim follow the example set by Major General Butler, and we shall furnish many good and substantial men to replenish the army. Let this done men to replenish the army. Let this done , the example set by Major General Butler, and

Slight Foundation for Hope,

A Southern paper has the following: The happiest augury of peace which the elegraph wires have flashed to us for two ears, is the action of the Democratic Conventions of Kentucky, Ohio and Illinois. They have sent delegates to the National Convention with instructions to vote for a Peace Platform framed upon the principles of Long's speech. At last, then, the banner of truth is being lifted over the heads of a people who have been staggering in passion, blood and darkness for three years. Drowning men, it is said, will catch at straws, and we think the condition of Rebeldom must be desperate if it expects anything from the action of the Chicago Convention. The operations of a score of such gatherings can never inaugurate peace in this country upon the policy suggested by Mr. Long. The general Government has gone sufficiently into this war to now continue it until not an armed rebel is left in the land. No proposition looking to any other end would be entertained by the loyal citizens of the United States. They have expended their treasure and spilled their blood to the accomplishment of this end, and having grown earnest in the work; they do not look back over the terrible field of carnage occasioned by rebellious attempts against the Government. The only "banner" they know is the flag of our country, and that must and will float undisputed from the lakes to the gulf.

THE PRICE OF PAPER-Shall Extortion Continue?-The Bellows Falls Times thinks that there is no necessity for the present high price of printing paper, and says that some of the papers in the northern part of the State have suggested that the newspaper publishers in that State should combine and own or build mills of their own. It says further, if this matter had been seriously put forth only a few weeks ago, a mill could have been secured at a very reasonable price and on easy terms. and paper could have been obtained at a cost of less than 16 cents per pound, which is 14 cents less than is now being asked for it.

From a recent circular issued by the War Department, many persons erroneously supposed that the Assistant Provost Marshal General has authority to equlize the men furnished by the sub-districts since the commencement of the war. He cannot go back of the settlement made between the State and General Government on the 24th of October,

ORDER IN RELATION TO THE ADJUSTMENT OF CREDITS.—The following circular has been issued by the A. A. Provost Marshal General: Circular No. 91. - District Provost Marshals are hereby informed that by order of the Secretary of War, Col. Lemuel Todd, of Carlisle, Pa., and myself have been appointed a commission to ascertain what credits the State of Pennsylvania and the different sub-districts of the State are entitled to under section 8th of the Act approved July 4th, 1864, further to regulate and provide for the enrolling and calling out of the national forces, and for other purposes. Hereafter all matters relating to the adjustment of credits under this section will be addressed to the aforesaid commission, in care of this office.

THE ATTACK ON MOBILE.

FORT POWELL EVACUATED BY THE REBELS.

The-Menitor Tecumseh Blown Up by a Corpedo: THE UNION FLEET IN MOBILE BAY

Washington, August 12, 1864. The Government has received official telegraphic advices from Dauphin's Island, Mobile harbor, up to the 6th inst. The only point of interest or importance contained in addition to what was previously known through rebel sources is, that the monitor Tecumseh was sunk by a torpede, instead of the guns of Fort Morgan, which is more satisfactory to the friends and advocates of the Monitors than if she had gone down under the fire of the fort. Mrs. Gen. Banks, who arrived here yester day on the steamship Evening Star, from New Orleans, received the following dispatch at Southwest Pass from the General:

SOUTHWEST PASS, August 6, 1864 ...)
The fleet under Admiral Farragut passed the forts at the entrance of Mobile Bay, at eight o'clock on the morning of the 5th inst. The Monitor Tecumseh was blown up by rebel torpedo. No other vessel was lost. The rebel ram Tennessee surrendered after an obstinate resistance. Admiral Buchanan lost a leg in the action and is now a prisoner.

The land forces, under Major General Granger, invested Fort Gaines, and with the light batteries opened upon the fort simultaneously with the passage of the forts by the fleet, taking the water batteries in the rear and silencing them.

Our loss is not reported. Fort Powell, in Mobile Bay, was blown up and evacuated by the rebels.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 6.

ORDERS FOR THE ATTACK ON MOBILE GIVEN. On Wednesday last orders were promulgated to the fleet off Mobile by Admiral Farragut, that the attack on the forts would take place at three o'clock the following morning.

This is reliable.
Up to this writing, nothing further has arrived, though official dispatches are expected from the Admiral to-day. THE UNION MILITARY FORCES OCCUPY DAUPHIN

ISLAND. The attack on the forts commenced yesterday morning. Our military forces, now oc-cupy Dauphin Island.
