SPECIAL ELECTION.—A special election for a member of Council will be held in the Sixth ward, on Wednesday, the 31st inst., to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Dr. Wm. H. Eggle. The election will be held at the new market house.

READ IT.—On our first page will be found a very interesting account of the late explosion at City Point, Va., and the horrors attending the same. The letter was written by a Harrisburger. It was put in type for Saturday's TELEGRAPH, but was unavoidably crowded out.

THE ELECTION LAWS, by M. M'KINNEY.—A new edition of this well known and useful digest, including the amendment to the Constitution and law providing for the voting of soldiers in actual service, will be issued immediately after the adjournment of the present session of the Legislature. DEATH OF A SOLDIER.—David Moore, of Capt. Saut's company H, 194th Pennsylvania volunteers, of the one hundred days' service, died on Friday last in the camp at Mankin Woods, near Baltimore. Deceased belonged to the vicinity of Carlisle, and his remains have been sent home.

HUNDRED DAYS' MEN.—A company of cavalry, organized in Adams county, for one hundred days' service, has arrived here, and is quartered in camp Curtin. It is commanded by Capt. E. Morgan Warren, and Lieutenants C. H. Fulwiler and S. N. Ecker. The company will be ready for active service duty in a few days.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED.—On Saturday evening we noticed the arrest of Mr. William Roberts, on a charge of constructive larceny. Mr. R. has since had a further hearing, and was honorably discharged, there being no evidence that he had acted improperly, or wrongfully appropriated the money entrusted to his care. We take pleasure in announcing his discharge.

THE WAY A LANDLORD TREATS A SOLDIER'S FAMILY.—A certain landlord in this city, recently removed all the sash from the window frames of a house occupied by a soldier's family, because the rent was not paid as promptly his avarice demanded, and as a means of forcing the mother and her little ones who had occupied the house to move. That landlord will have a happy time when the devil gets a hold on him.

SOLDIER KILLED.—A soldier (name unknown) was thrown from the top of a car attached to the Northern Central railroad express train south, yesterday morning, and instantly killed. He was riding on top of the car, and was struck on the temple by a bridge timber with the above result. The soldier was on his way to the front, in charge of a squad of bounty jumpers. The conductor had warned him of his danger but a moment before the accident occurred, but he paid no attention to the caution. His remains were taken to Parkton, (near which place he was killed,) and properly taken care of.

DRAFT SKEDADDLERS.—Five "skeddaddlers," says the Buffalo Express, from an impending draft in the town of East Berlin, Adams county, Pa., were overhauled at the Exchange street depot yesterday, by officers Nisgal and McConvey. Hearing them make anxious inquiry for the nearest road to Canada, the officers suspected that they might be deserters, and laid hands upon them. But when the facts were elicited, the Chief of Police, having no authority to detain them, set them at liberty, very much to the joy of their craven hearts. The names of the sneaks were Reuben Jacobs, Alexander Jacobs, John H. Bohn, David Thomas and Isaac Pollock. The Peace Democratic ticket, that is to be, has lost five good votes.

ATTENTION, HOME GUARDS!—We will meet for drill, Friday evening at 6 o'clock. Persons having drawn guns, and do not attend drill, will return them.

By order. G. PRINCE, Capt. COMMITTED FOR COURT.—Daniel Brown, charged with robbing Capt. McCall, at the Franklin House, had another hearing before the Mayor, and was committed for trial to answer the charge of larceny. There are several charges against him for stealing clothing, &c.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Just as we go to press we learn that Mr. Michael Burke was seriously injured by a railroad train, near the distillery at the lower end of the city. He was crossing the track in a buggy, when the train came up. Mr. B. had one of his legs badly cut and bruised, and his head injured to some extent. The carriage was broken to pieces.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Fort Callender was crowded last night. This morning the following minor cases were disposed of: Four colored women were sent up for ten days, for keeping late hours in and around the depot; four drunks and disorderlies (whites and blacks) were discharged, and one was sent to the Provost Marshal; Jacob Nipple, a vagrant, was sent to the poorhouse; Joseph Flood, a boy who was found in a car, suspected of intent to rob, was re-committed; David Griffith, for receiving stolen goods, was held in bail; Singleton Sanders, a boy, arrested for assault and battery was re-committed.

SHOCKING RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—One night last week an accident of a shocking nature occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad, at a point known as South Fork, eight miles above Johnstown, in Cambria county. A freight train, westward bound, stood on the main track at that place, while another was heading in the same direction not far in its rear. It is said that the stationary train did not signal the other in time, and a collision was the consequence—the engine of the moving train rushing into the rear cars of the other. The wreck caught fire, and sixteen cars, with their contents, were consumed. The fireman, Mathew Coley, of Altoona, was severely injured, and not being able to extricate himself, was buried in the wreck. The engineer, Robert T. Sachesney, and two brakemen, were severely injured.

THIRD PENNSYLVANIA CAVALRY.—This gallant regiment reached Philadelphia on Saturday, their term of service having expired. There are about three hundred men left. One company belongs to Cumberland county. The time of the regiment expired on the 1st of July, but when the rebels invaded our State they cheerfully consented to serve until the enemy was driven from our borders. The following officers return with the regiment: Edward S. Jones, lieutenant colonel commanding; William B. Hesley, surgeon; Lieut. Charles A. Vernon, acting adjutant; S. P. Boyer, quartermaster; Lieut. S. C. Wagner, commissary; J. Rannell, chaplain; Samuel J. McCullough, sergeant major; Captain William E. Miller, Captain A. Wright, Captain J. Lee Englebert, Captain F. D. Wetherill, Captain E. W. Hoyle, First Lieutenant J. D. Gallo-way, First Lieutenant E. W. Weston, First Lieutenant E. L. Cauffman, First Lieutenant S. S. Green, Second Lieutenant A. Bradbury.

This regiment was raised in July, 1861, under the auspices of Col. Young; it was at that time known as Young's Kentucky cavalry, and retained that title until the removal of Col. Young some two months after its organization, when its title was changed to the 3d Pennsylvania cavalry, although virtually the first cavalry organized in the State for the three years' service. It numbered, when mustered into the service, 1,200 men, and has received at various times recruits to the number of 400, making a total of 1,600 men. Seventy-five have re-enlisted, and those who have returned, with the above exception, are the only survivors of the original 1,600. Two of its colonels, to-wit: Colonels Averill and McIntosh, have been made Generals.

THEATRE.—GRAND OPENING.—Return of the Old Favorites, and First Appearance of New Stars.—To-night will be a gala occasion for our play-goers. Rouse's Grand Star Combination Troupe will commence its season at Brant's Hall, when our people's favorites will re-appear, in connection with a number of celebrated performers who have never yet been introduced here. A grand bill is presented for this evening consisting of the thrilling play entitled LUCREZIA BORGIA, or THE POISONER, in which the celebrated tragedienne Miss Fanny B. Price, will appear in her favorite character of the poisoner; Mr. D. Hanchett, the tragedian, will appear as Duke Alphonso. Messrs. Meeker, Crossen, Alex. Fisher, McAnley and others will sustain prominent characters in the piece. The entertainment will conclude with a new farce called THE MOTHER AND CHILD ARE DOING WELL, in which Mr. Rouse, the inimitable, will appear as Felix Fluffy, and other characters by the members of the company.

Among the old members of the company we might mention the names of Messrs. Rouse, Fisher, Crossen, Byrne, McAnley and Seavey; and Miss Fanny Denham, Miss Nellie Sprague, and Mrs. Rainford—all of whom are well known here.

Want of space forbids us giving the company such notice as it merits. We would say to everybody that the best of plays may be expected during the season, and the management is worthy of the patronage of our citizens. The private characters of the members of the troupe are beyond reproach. Prof. Weber's orchestra will be in attendance.

Third Ward. The Recruiting Committee of the Third ward will meet this evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Sheriff's office, for the transaction of important business. The members of the collecting committees are requested to be present with their subscription list and make their reports. A full attendance is necessary.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CITY COUNCIL.—The city council held another meeting on Saturday evening last, for the purpose of deliberating on the bounty question. After the transaction of some minor business, Mr. Hall offered the following petition to be presented to the Legislature, viz: To the Honorable the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: The petition of the common council of the city of Harrisburg respectfully represents That, believing that a proper local bounty should be paid to volunteers under the recent call of the President of the United States for 500,000 men, or under any call hereafter to be made, so as to avoid the necessity of a draft within the limits of said city; and believing that taxation to provide a suitable bounty should be equitable and uniform; and that the council therefore pray your honorable body to authorize said council to borrow a sum of money, not exceeding $120,000, for the purpose aforesaid, and for the payment of the same, with the interest thereon, to raise a fund by assessing a tax upon the income of every male inhabitant of said city of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, not exceeding two per cent. annually, with the penalty upon every such inhabitant, upon his refusal to pay such tax, of a prohibition of his right to vote for county or city officers, until said tax be fully paid; and also the authority to allow such credit as shall be equitable to every such inhabitant as shall have subscribed and paid any sum of money towards the payment of recruits to be passed towards the quota of said city, and also to such inhabitants as shall have furnished substitutes.

Mr. VERBEKE. I move to strike out the words "with the penalty upon every such inhabitant, upon his refusal to pay such tax, of a prohibition of his right to vote for county or city officers until said tax be fully paid," and insert in lieu thereof the following: "under such penalty as the Legislature in their wisdom may see fit to impose."

Mr. HALL accepted the amendment. The petition was adopted by a unanimous vote. The resolution for the appointment of a committee was then adopted, and the President appointed Messrs. Hall, Hamilton and Will, as such committee.

On motion, the council adjourned.
