manediately oured, and full vigor restored.
This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are to age to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prident. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offigring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability; dyspepsia, palnitation of the feart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, cough, consumption, decay and death. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by sarly habits of youth, vis: weakness of the back and timbs, pains in the head dimness of sight, loss of amesular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervons tritability, symptoms of consumption, &c.

Mantally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Who mays injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from svil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage moss sible, and destroys both mind and body, should a lift of the marriage in the area of the country.

Whata not that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be anarched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating YOUNG MEN MARRIAGE Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisities to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pill grimage; the prospect hourly darkons to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, too offen happens that an illtimed sense of shame or the dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who from education and respectability, can alone bettical him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment, stance, keep him trifting month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with runed health to sigh over his galling disappointment, or, by the use of the deadly poison, Mercury, hasten from constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as fill to the standard of the Head.
