

NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, Abraham Lincoln, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Andrew Johnson, OF TENNESSEE.

Ninety-Four Thousand Majority for the Soldier.

The vote on the constitutional amendments may be regarded as one of the most brilliant triumphs ever achieved by the upholders of the Government at the ballot-box.

The Copperheads Defeated in Connecticut and Rhode Island.

We have already given the fact that the election in Connecticut and Rhode Island, to decide the question of extending the elective franchise to the soldier, resulted in a victory to those who were in favor of that just, honorable and patriotic measure.

The Extension of the Capitol.

The question of extending the capitol by the erection of wings as decided upon last winter, when it came up in the House a few days since, was defeated.

Who are the Friends of the Soldier.

We have been frequently told by copperhead orators, that the true friends of the soldier, were those who advocate opposition to the "Lincoln tyranny."

Recruiting in Pennsylvania.

There never was a time since the precipitation of the slave holders' rebellion that recruiting was more steadily, systematically, and successfully carried on in Pennsylvania, than at the present.

The Bounty Frauds.

The following important bill having been passed by the Legislature, was signed by the Governor to-day.

AN ACT for the protection of Volunteers against frauds in the payment of bounty money.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That any person who may be enlisted with any bounty money for any Pennsylvania Volunteer entering the service of the United States or this State, who shall, with or without the consent of said volunteer, retain the same or any part thereof, or shall fail to pay to such volunteer at the time of his being mustered in the full amount of such bounty money without any deduction or abatement, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of oyer and terminer or quarter sessions, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars, and to be imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary for the term of six months.

Rather Spicy.

Gold represents Democracy; greenbacks Republicans. The one is going up and the other down.—Copperhead Exchange.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE TELEGRAPH. SENATE. EVENING SESSION.

TUESDAY, AUG. 23, 1864.

The Senate re-assembled at 8 o'clock. An act ceding to the United States of America the right of exclusive jurisdiction over two strips of ground adjoining and lying immediately to the south of the United States navy yard in the city of Philadelphia, was taken up and passed finally.

An act to provide additional revenues for the use of the Commonwealth, was passed finally. The bill, as amended by the Senate committee, contains but two of the sections which passed the House of Representatives, namely, the first and third, which are merely explanatory of the act of May 5, 1864.

An act for the protection of volunteers against frauds in the payment of bounty money, was introduced by Mr. JOHNSON, and passed finally. It reads as follows:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That any person who may be entrusted with any bounty money for any Pennsylvania volunteer entering the service of the United States, in this State, who shall, with or without the consent of such volunteer, retain the same or any part thereof, or shall fail to pay to such volunteer at the time of his being mustered in the full amount of such bounty money without any deduction or abatement, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of oyer and terminer, or quarter sessions, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars, and to be imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary for the term of six months.

The remainder of the session was consumed in the passage of various local bounty bills. Adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1864. The House met at 10 o'clock. Senate amendments to the bill making appropriations for the expenses of the extra session, etc., were read, discussed and concurred in, with the exception of the amendment relating to the pay of the House committee that revised the revenue laws, on which a committee of conference was appointed. The remainder of the evening was spent in the consideration of the bill to regulate elections by the soldiers, during the consideration of which the House Adjourned.

SENATE. WEDNESDAY, August 24, 1864. Senate met at 10 o'clock. The resolution in regard to the 85th P. V., passed by the House of Representatives, was taken up and negatived—yeas 14, nays 16. The "further supplement" to the militia act was taken up, amended, and passed finally—yeas 16, nays 13. Various local bounty bills passed, and the Senate adjourned till 3 o'clock this afternoon.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. WEDNESDAY, August 24, 1864. The House met at 10 o'clock. On motion of Mr. OLMSTED, Senate bill for the protection of volunteers from frauds in the payment of bounty, was taken up and passed. Mr. GUERNSEY, from the committee of conference on the general bounty bill, submitted a report, the consideration of which was postponed till this afternoon.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Rebels Abandon the Weldon Railroad.

They Will Probably Fortify Themselves at Another Place.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC, Aug. 23. The enemy early yesterday morning disappeared from the front of the 5th and 9th Corps on the Weldon railroad, and it is believed that the attempt to regain possession of this important line of communication has been abandoned, and that the enemy are fortifying their right flank to resist an attack in the direction of our forces. They may, however, be preparing to make a dash on our lines in some other direction.

Occasional firing has been going on along the center and was quite lively during the night. The roads continue wet, making travel very difficult.

About thirty rebels were brought in during the night, principally South Carolinians, claiming to be deserters. This story is, however, not believed, as the soldiers from that State have furnished fewer deserters to our side than any other State in the confederacy. They are strongly heartily looking men and seem to think the end of the struggle is at hand. They believe Petersburg to be almost within our grasp and will be in our possession at an early day.

Proclamation by the Governor of Ohio.

He Warns all Persons Against Resisting the Draft.

"Peace" Men to be Nominated at Chicago.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24. Governor Brough has issued a proclamation to those persons in Ohio who are preparing to resist the draft, warning them to desist from such a purpose. Fernando Wood, in a speech at Dayton last night, asserted that peace men on a peace platform would be nominated at Chicago, and the convention would be harmonious.

FROM FORTRESSES MONROE.

ARRIVAL OF PRISONERS. FORTRESS MONROE, August 23. The mail steamer Keyport, from City Point, has arrived with ninety rebel officers captured in the recent operations on the Weldon railroad. The privates captured at the same time, it is now said, will number seven or eight hundred. They will all be brought down to-morrow.

The Western Conspiracy—More Developments.

CINCINNATI, August 23. The morning papers publish long extracts from Dodd's correspondence captured at Indianapolis. The manuscript copy of Dodd's address to the Grand Council is among the papers, in which it appears a grand convention was to be held July 1st, two days before the Democratic National Convention was to have been held. A spontaneous meeting was held at Indianapolis last night to take counsel concerning the dangers surrounding them. It was the largest gathering of kind ever held there. The meeting was extremely orderly, though there was deep feeling against the conspiracy. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the secret order as a most mischievous one, calculated to bring about civil war, and declaring the charge that the Union party intend to use military power to prevent a fair election, as a slander upon Union men and our brave soldiers.

From Admiral Farragut.

ATTACK ON FORT MORGAN EXPEDITED. NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 16, 1864. The land forces under General Granger are within three hundred yards of Fort Morgan, and a general assault is expected in a few days. The fleet is fully prepared, including the ram Tennessee.

From Hagerstown.

A REBEL SUPPLY TRAIN DESTROYED BETWEEN HAGERSTOWN. WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—A dispatch from Hagerstown says that all has been quiet to-day along the border, and that there is no fighting in the Valley, so far as is known. Yesterday our forces destroyed a rebel supply train on the Winchester and Martinsburg turnpike.

Rebels Reported Across the Potomac.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 24, 11:45 A.M. We have reports by the Northern Central railroad that the rebels have crossed the Potomac. The report needs confirmation. We have nothing definite this morning from the Upper Potomac.

FROM MOBILE.

Official Dispatches from Admiral Farragut.

The Evacuation of Fort Powell and the Surrender of Fort Gaines.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Aug. 23. The following was received at the Navy Department this morning:

FLAGSHIP HARTFORD, WEST GULF BLOCKADING SQUADRON, MOBILE BAY, Monday, Aug. 8, 1864. Sir—I have the honor to inform the Department that Fort Powell was evacuated on the night of the 5th inst. The rebels blew up much of the fort, but we took all of the guns, and those of the best quality. We took some covered barges also from Fort Powell at Cedar Point, which do us good service as a workshop.

The Fleet Engineer and Fleet Paymaster came on the Stockdale with iron, &c., for the repairs of our vessels. On the afternoon of the 6th the Chickasaw went down and shelled Fort Gaines, and on the morning of the 7th received a communication from Col. Anderson, commanding the fort, offering to surrender to the fleet, and asking the best conditions. I immediately sent for Gen. Granger, and in the evening had Col. Anderson and Maj. Brown on board, and the agreement was signed by all parties.

At 7 A. M., August 8, Fleet-Captain Drayton, on the part of the navy, and Colonel Myer, on the part of the army, proceeded to the fort to carry out the stipulations of the agreement, and at 4:45 the fort surrendered, and the Stars and Stripes were hoisted on the staff amid the cheers of the fleet. Inclosed are copies of the letters of Colonel Anderson and the reply of General Granger and myself, marked Nos. 1 and 2.

Very respectfully, D. G. FARRAGUT, Rear Adm'l, Com'g W. G. B. Squadron.

HON. GIDEON WELLES, Sec. of the Navy. HEADQUARTERS FORT GAINES, Aug. 7, 1864. Admiral Farragut, Commanding Naval Forces of Dauphin Island.

Feeling my inability to maintain my present position longer than you may see fit to open upon me with your fleet, and feeling also the uselessness of entailing upon ourselves further destruction of life, I have the honor to propose the surrender of Fort Gaines, its arsenal, stores, &c. I trust to your magnanimity for obtaining honorable terms, which I respectfully request that you will transmit to me and allow me sufficient time to consider them and return an answer. This communication will be handed you by Major W. R. Browne.

I am, sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, C. D. ANDERSON, Colonel Comd'g.

Another Peace Rumor.

Commissioners to be Sent on to Richmond. The Rumor Probably a Canard.

A DECLINE IN GOLD.

New York, Aug. 24. Rumors are current and credited in the best financial circles, that the Government has decided to send five commissioners to Richmond—three Republicans and two Democrats to arrange preliminaries for peace.

Latest from Washington.

Return of Ohio Regiments. WASHINGTON, August 24. No information has been received here confirming the truth of the loose report that Fitz Lee was killed and General A. P. Hill mortally wounded in Sunday's fight.

Quiet in the Valley.

GEN. SHERIDAN'S HEADQUARTERS, VIA BALTIMORE, Aug. 23. With the exception of a brief skirmish opposite the left of the Nineteenth Corps this morning, everything has been quiet along General Sheridan's front. The enemy still maintains a strong skirmish line along our front, and there are no indications that he has retreated.

The ford on the Upper Potomac are strongly guarded, and no attempt has yet been made by the enemy to cross the river. T. G. C. LATEST FROM THE SHERIDAN—MARTINSBURG RE-OCCUPIED BY OUR FORCES—GEN. AVERILL HOLDING THE RIVER FORDS. WASHINGTON, August 23.—A letter from Hagerstown, dated 21st, says: A detachment of the 3d Virginia Union cavalry entered Martinsburg yesterday, about two o'clock, and drove out the rebels. At the latest accounts the place was still held by our cavalrymen. Gen. Averill holds the river fords, and is keeping a watchful eye on the movements of the rebel raiding parties. The excitement here occasioned by the anticipation of an invasion has somewhat subsided.

General Paine's Expedition in Kentucky.

St. Louis, Aug. 22. When Gen. Paine's expedition (after Johnston's guerrillas) arrived in Uniontown, Ky., Paine arrested several prominent rebels, confiscated sixty hogheads of tobacco, seventy-four barrels of whisky, one hundred and fifty barrels of salt, one hundred cattle and seventy-five horses.

General Hovey joined Paine at Morganfield, Johnston fleeing toward Hopkinsville, in the southern part of the State. A dispatch from Springfield says that Illinois has been made a separate military district, under General Paine, who arrived at Springfield yesterday. He will establish his headquarters there. On the other hand, Cairo dispatches say that Paine will retain command in Western Kentucky.

A dispatch from Fort Smith, Ark., says that General Thayer attacked the rebel General Cooper, 3 miles in front of Fort No. 2, and completely routed him.

IMPORTANT FROM TENNESSEE.

THE REBELS ATTACK MEMPHIS.

NARROW ESCAPE OF SOME OF OUR GENERALS.

Our Forces Drive the Enemy from the City.

GEN. FORREST COMMANDING THE REBELS.

THE ATTACK A FAILURE.

Its Object the Capture of Our Officers.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 21. Memphis was attacked at 4 o'clock this morning by the rebel Gen. Forrest with three brigades of cavalry about 3,000 strong. This force left Gen. Smith's front at Oxford on the evening of the 18th inst., and made a rapid march to this city.

They drove in our pickets and dashed directly into the headquarters of Gen. Washburne, who made a very narrow escape. They then made a rush into Gen. Buckland's headquarters, but he also succeeded in making his escape.

They then attacked the Irving prison, but were repulsed by the guard there. They next visited the Gayoso House, expecting to capture Gen. Harbut, but he was stopping at a friend's house and so the rebels did not get him.

Our troops now attacked the rebels and soon drove them from the city, killing about 30 and wounding 100. The rebels captured 30 of our men and 40 horses. They did not have much time to obtain much plunder. Our loss in killed and wounded is about the same as that of the rebels.

Gen. Washburne is now carrying out a plan which it is expected will result in the capture of a large portion of the attacking party.
