ter Sess ons : The Grand Jury respectfully report : That they passed on all the bills laid before them as expeditionaly as they could. They were, however, delayed by the absence of witnesses and local bounty, $1.0 Government bounty, be-prosecutors, and in many justances they were sides $16 per month and clothing, rations and prosecutors, and in many instances of the failure of parties to appear. They are pleased to know that in such cases the recognizances were forfeited, and they express the hope that wherever they are worth saing, the proper officers will attend to it. They regret to learn that many constables and police officers make arrests of quiet an inoffensive persons. Sometimes these per-sons are intoxicated, but not violent or boisterons ; and it seems to be a great stretch of authority to fine and incarcerate individuals under such circumstances. The jury applane and commend the vigilance of all faithful paid in those wards which have filled their officers; but they desire the power of these quotas under the present call. It is expected officers to be exercised with sounder discretion. In cases where Aldermen or other committing magistrates connive t the settlement of telonies or high misdeameanors, they trust that the vigilance of the proper law officers of

KILLED ON THE RAILBOAD.-A distressing accident occurred yesterday, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Blyer's, three miles below this city, by which Mr. Abraham Livingston lost his life. It appears that a culvert was being repaired, and Mr. L. attempted to cross the track. with a piece of wood, when the eleven o'clock passenger train came along, and, strik ing the wood, threw Mr. L. down and drag. ge i him a considerable distance. One of his lers was broken, and his head mutilated. He was instantly killed. A watch in his pocket a highly respectable citizen, and about sixty years of age. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

SHOCKING AND FATAL ACCIDENT IN A PRINT-ING OFFICE.-A terrible accident occurred in a printing office at Cincinnati on Monday. A young woman named Lizetta Busser, engaged in the press room of the Commercial, was instantly killed, in the following manner: In passing from one part of the press room to another, it is necessary to cross a shaft which carries the power from the engine to the The Grand Law model attention paid to them. passing from one part of the press room to press. the county will bring them to justice. The Grand Jury wishes to call the attention of the District Attorney to the tavern known as the "Duck Tavern," kept by Wm. Hartnett. This house is a nuisance according to many complaints, and should be suppressed. The large crowds that nightly congregate on the pavements in Market street, opposite the Court House, interfere very seriously with the free progress of the citizens ; and such mean ures should be adopted as will prevent this evil from being continued.

The lock-up has been examined and it was found to be in a filthy and unwholesome conwas shattered to pieces. Mr. Livingston was dition. Its ventilation is very imperfect, and the whole arrangements defective. No human being should be confined there, because even a short confinement might jeopardize the health, if not the life of the inmate.

We also visited the prison, and found its management to be good. The prisoners were content with their situation so far as comforts and conveniences are concerned. Some of the floors of the cells are much broken, and they should be repaired with sound, solid planks. From a thorough examination of the poor house, they are satisfied that the affairs o this institution are well and p operly man

The Grand Jury would call attention to the condition of the pavement on Second street, running from Morgan's pavement to Mr. Sample's. It is, and has be en for many years, almost impassable, and should be repaired immediately. The centre of the street at Second and State streets is in a dangerous condition. Serious accidents may occur there and proparly. At the foot of Market street the cars are as greatly to interfere with the free progres moverif and also to punish those who are guilty of thus blocking up the highway. JOHN L. SPEEL, Foreman.
