OUR VICTORIES.

Thanksgiving and Prayer on Sunday Next. RECOMMENDATION BY THE PRESIDENT.

OFFICIAL RECOGNITION OF THE LATE VICTORIES. WASHINGTON Sept. 5—11 A. M.—Major Gen. Dix:—The President has issued the following recommendations and orders in relation to the recent successes of the United States forces at Mobile and Atlanta.

THE signal success that Divine Providence has recently vouchsafed to the operations of the U. S. fleet and army in the harbor of Mobile, and the reduction of Fort Powell, Fort Gaines and Fort Morgan, and the glorious achievement of the army under Major General Sherman in the State of Georgia, resulting in the capture of the city of Atlanta, call for devout acknowledgement to the Supreme Being in whose hands are the destinies of nations.

FROM NEW ORLEANS. New York, Sept. 5. The steamship Cahawba, from New Orleans on the 28th ult., arrived at this port this morning.

ARREST OF FEMALE BLOCKADE RUNNERS. BALTIMORE, Sept. 5. Mrs. M. J. Clark, Ann Jones and a white servant woman of Mrs. Clark, were arrested by the military authorities upon the charge of being engaged in the blockade running business.

REJOICING AT WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, Sept. 5. A salute of one hundred guns was fired today by order of the President in honor of the victory at Atlanta.

THE Secretary of War will issue directions for the execution of this order. A BATTLE NEAR BERRYVILLE, Va. BALTIMORE, Sept. 5. The American publishes the following special dispatch:

HEADQUARTERS, MIDDLE MILITARY DIVISION, NEAR BERRYVILLE, Sept. 4. A. M. General Torbett's cavalry corps, which was encamped at Rippon's store, on the Charles-town road and Berryville pike, left camp at 9 P. M. on Friday, and proceeded to Berryville, reaching there at midnight, where they went into camp until daylight, when they moved out through Berryville on the Winchester pike, taking the road to the left about seven miles beyond Berryville, and were still advancing when last heard from at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, meeting with little or no opposition.

THE whole of the fighting so far has been done by Crook's command, who captured fifty prisoners and a stand of colors. Our loss will be about 300 killed and wounded, whilst that of the enemy is at least one-third greater.
